Washington, D. C., April 16.—[Special.]—Three out of four American citizens are in a rebellion which will result in repeal of the 18th amendment within five years. This was the picture sketched for the senate's lobby committee today by Henry H. Curran, president of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment. Five American states, he said, are overwhelmingly against present prohibition legislation.

As a sidelight on the nation-wide resentment against "prevailing intolerable conditions," under what he described as "this most outrageous amendment," the wet leader revealed that his organization, now numbering more than 150,000 members from coast to coast, is gaining recruits at the rate of 1,000 or more a day. The association, he testified, spent $427,213 last year and collected $166,594 more in the first two months of this year.

Refuses to Be Trapped.

Basing upon his use of the word "revolt" Senators T. H. Caraway [Dem., Ark.] and Arthur Robinson [Rep., Ind.], both ardent drys, tried for nearly an hour to trap Curran into admitting that he advocates "armed rebellion" if necessary against Volstead. Caraway insisted that the association charged more serious crimes against the federal government in the enforcement of prohibition than were charged against the British crown in the Declaration of Independence.

Time and time again Curran insisted that "armed rebellion is unthinkable" and that the issue will be settled at the polls in a constitutional manner. Finally when Robinson, continuing to badger him, asked, "Suppose you fail in that manner—do you then advocate armed revolution?" Curren threw up his hands.

"I will cross that bridge when I come to it," he retorted bluntly.

"There is going to be no armed revolution over this," he continued, addressing Caraway, "but the people are in revolution every day, and have been for ten years."

"And are they going to fight?" asked Caraway.

Dry Agents Are Armed.

"The prohibition agents carry shotguns and kill people every day," replied Curran.

Quizzed by Senator Thomas J. Walsh [Dem., Mont.], another dry running for reelection, Curran asserted that while as an individual he believed both the fifteenth and nineteenth amendments like the eighteenth, are usurpations of the rights and powers of the states and have no place in the federal constitution, he is concerned chiefly with the 18th amendment.

"In other words," said Caraway sarcastically, "the question of suffrage and the right to cast a vote is not as important as the right to drink."

"I did not say that, senator," declared Curran, somewhat heatedly. "You are an awfully good spokesman for me, but I really did not say that."

Refuses to Accept Others' Words.

During another exchange Caraway, after drawing from Curran the assertion that Negroes are eligible to membership in the association's board of directors, said, "Apparently you think a Negro has as much right to get drunk as anybody else and I do, too."

"You speak for yourself as to that sort of thing," rejoined Curran sharply. "Keep those words in your mouth and don't try to put them in mine."

Five minutes before the hearing was adjourned Senator J. J. Blaine [Rep., Wis.], the only wet member of the committee, succeeded in interrupting the heckling long enough to get in some questions about the association's lobbying activities, the real purpose of the inquiry.

"How much of this $427,213 spent last year was used for lobbying or for attempting to influence legislation?" asked Blaine.

"Not a penny," answered Curran.

Expenditure Reports Filed.

"And detailed reports of the association's expenditures, together with a complete list of the contributors to its funds, are filed periodically as required by the federal corrupt practices act with the clerk of the house?" asked Blaine.

"Yes, they are," replied Curran, "and there is where we differ from

PLANS REVISION OF REVENUE LAW BY LEGISLATURE

Special Cook County Action Also.

Gov. Emmerson announced yesterday, at the close of a day spent with officials and citizens who have studied the revenue predicaments of Chicago, Cook county and the state, that "in all probability" he will call a special session of the legislature. The call if issued, will be announced soon, the governor said.

The legislature's duties, according to Gov. Emmerson, will be confined to the drafting of amendments to the tax articles of the state constitution, and the passage of bills designed to give temporary financial relief to the Cook county taxing bodies.

Reveal Governor's Plan.

Although the governor declined to make the definite announcement that he has decided to call the special session, it was stated by some of the men attending the conference that Mr. Emmerson had told them he intended to call it without further delay. From these sources it was learned that the governor had hoped to receive definite recommendations yesterday from the citizens' committee, headed by Silas H. Strawn, and from the state revenue commission, headed by Senator Arthur A. Huebsch.

Mr. Strawn, prevented by a severe cold from attending the governor's conference, said last night that his committee expected to present a complete legislative program for Cook county relief by next Saturday. Senator Huebsch said his commission's report would be ready within a week or ten days.

The governor is expected to issue the call for a special session before these reports are presented, possibly within a day or two, with the understanding that both sets of recommendations will be ready before the legislature actually meets.

Emmerson Makes Statement.

Granting an interview in the presence of the others who participated in the conference, Gov. Emmerson voiced the probability of a special legislative session.

"I may say that the Strawn committee, on behalf of some of the municipalities of Cook county, will have certain legislation to present with a view toward relieving the existing financial muddle.

"The state revenue commission, appointed by the legislature, will also have a report to make, recommending changes in the state constitution and the general statutes governing present methods of taxation. It is hoped that the legislature may agree upon amendments to the constitution, so the amendments may be submitted to a referendum of the voters in the November election.

Temporary Relief, His Idea.

"It is understood that only emergency measures for the relief of Cook county will be considered. There is a regular session of the legislature to be held in January, at which permanent reforms, such as the establishment of budget restrictions, should properly be considered."

Gov. Emmerson was asked if a bond issue had been proposed, by which the deficits of the Cook county governments might be absorbed, and he replied that it "has been discussed," but that no definite proposition had been agreed upon.

"Will you consider the passage of such a bond issue without a referendum?" the governor was asked.

"I will not commit myself on that now," he replied. "You know how I stood on that during the last session." It was recalled that Gov Emmerson had insisted on referendum clauses in all bond issue bills, with the exception of the sanitary district bond issue, which was for the construction of works ordered by the federal government.

Asked About State Income Tax.

On Tuesday in a public speech the governor pointed out that under present taxation methods in Illinois, real property, earning only 10 per cent of the income, pays 90 per cent of the tax in the state. He was asked yesterday if an income tax measure had been discussed at the day's conference.

"It was not," he replied.

Throughout the interview he stressed the point that neither the

Dr. J. M. Kirk of Soap Family Dies in Crash

Dr. James M. Kirk, a director of James S. Kirk & Co., soap manufacturers, was instantly killed Tuesday afternoon when he was hurled from the automobile he was driving on a highway near Dade City, Fla. News of the death was received here yesterday by the company's officials.

Dr. Kirk was driving to Eustis from St. Petersburg to open a mansion he had just purchased. An hour before the accident he had concluded final details of the purchase with his bankers. As he approached Dade City, driving, witnesses said, at the rate of 75 miles per hour, the car overturned three times and he was hurled with terrific force on the pavement thirty feet from the car. His neck was broken by the force of the impact.

Friends Blame Heart Attack.

Witnesses said that Dr. Kirk had apparently lost control of the car. Friends said that Dr. Kirk had evidently suffered a heart attack while he was driving. They said that the doctor was a victim of angina pectoris and frequently suffered heart attacks. No official investigation was made. The coroner held an inquest unnecessary after questioning friends.

Dr. Kirk was 63 years old. He was the son of the founder of the soap company, the late James S. Kirk, and a brother of the late Milton W. Kirk, president of the company until his death in 1915. Dr. Kirk had been living in Florida for several years.

He is survived by his wife and a son, James Kirk Jr., who lives in California. The body will be brought to Evanston for funeral services and burial. The doctor lived in Evanston before making his home in St. Petersburg.

Two Cook County Deaths.

Two deaths in Cook county yesterday raised the 1930 motor toll to 253. The victims:

Mrs. Anna Michalowski, 72 years old, 5037 Montrose avenue. Died in St. Anne's hospital of injuries received on April 10, when struck by an automobile driven by Frank Cassettele, 3716 Grand avenue, in front of 3955 Grand avenue.

Miss Edna Perry, 37 years old, 4649 Woodlawn avenue, a clerk. Fatally injured last night when struck by an auto at 47th street and Woodlawn avenue. The driver, John L. Swanson, 8137 Kenwood avenue, was held.

MAKES CITY'S WATER TASTE LIKE A SPRING

Experiments conducted by John R. Bayliss, city chemist at the experimental filteration plant at 68th street and Oglesby avenue, were said by Commissioner of Public Works Wolfe yesterday to have produced a method of eliminating taste producing compounds from Chicago's drinking water. Commissioner Wolfe said that water has been treated at the plant so that it excelled in taste and purity the most palatable spring water.

"The new method is known as superchlorination followed by dechlorination," said Commissioner Wolfe. "The chlorination of the water extracts the objectionable taste and carbon is used to remove the waste. Then the water is treated with lime and the product is as pure as spring water."

The value of the filtered water being carried away from the experimental plant by the public for drinking purposes, based on bottle water prices, is more than $50,000 annually, according to Commissioner Wolfe. Residents of the neighborhood, he said, fill bottles with the water for home use but carry away less than 1 per cent of the capcity of the plant.

BULLETS RIDDLE MAIL ROBBER IN MAD AUTO CHASE

Machine gunners in a wild automobile chase through west side streets last night shot and killed Joseph Blue, ex-convict, mail robber, and pickpocket, who had tried his hand at bootlegging and impinged upon the territory of rival beer peddlers.

The killing occurred while currency was being given, in the manner of an international amity conference, of another of those innumerable "peace agreements" between Chicago hoodlums, gutternipes, and thieves.

Blue was shot down in his Ford sedan as he raced desperately up Blue Island avenue at 13th street in an effort to elude his pursuers. The killers, riding in a large and powerful touring car, overtook him, turned their machine gun on him, and then sped away as his car crashed into the curb in front of 1268 Blue Island avenue.

Recently Freed from U. S. Prison.

Blue had been released from the Atlanta penitentiary only last January and had been living at 420 Surf street under the name of Joseph M. Cameron, an alias which he had employed before he was sentenced to prison five years ago for a Cincinnati mail robbery. Since his release he had been bootlegging, but the police were not certain that his activities in that racket were entirely responsible for his murder.

They regarded it as probable that Blue may have been slain in connection with the affairs of Jimmie Murray, who is now serving twenty-five years in the Atlanta prison for the $2,000,000 Rondout mail robbery and whose arrangements for a release on parole struck a hitch just about the time Blue was freed.

Slain in Wild Chase.

Where the mad chase in which Blue was killed started the police were unable to learn, but it was some distance from the scene of the killing, as both cars were racing at top speed when the killers opened fire on him. Walter Peterson, 3244 Beach avenue, turned into Blue Island avenue at 14th street just as Blue dashed past the intersection going northeast in Blue Island avenue.

A short distance behind him the touring car was roaring with a wide open throttle. As Blue's car crossed 13th street his pursuers drew alongside the smaller car and opened fire, flames spurting from the side of their machine as the machine gun bullets tore through the left side of the sedan. Blue was struck eight times or more in the head and body and killed instantly.

Slayers' Car Speeds On.

The killers' car did not even hesitate as the bullets poured into Blue's machine but continued speeding north. As it shot into the lead, the Ford, with its driver dead, swerved sharply to the left and crashed into the curb.

Beside Blue's body the police found a revolver with four loaded cartridges in the chamber. There were no empty shells in the gun, but an examination showed that it had been fired recently. On the floor of the car was a gallon of beer in a glass jug, and in his pockets were a whisky price list and a long list of names and telephone numbers, indicating that he had been engaged in bootlegging in Chicago.

Mail Robber's Wife Listed.

Among those listed were Mrs. Jennie Murray, wife of Murray, the mail robber, and her brother, Duke Panton, who the police say are in the beer racket. The police considered it likely that Blue had had dealings with Murray's wife, either in beer selling or in connection with the return of Murray's share of the bonds taken in the mail robbery.

They were inclined to the latter theory because among the other papers they found a list of $37,000 worth of bonds, which they believed represented part of Murray's share of the loot.

Murray returned $340,000 worth of bonds to the federal government last year and it was generally understood that his sentence of 25 years was to be commuted as a result of the restitution. Then it was announced that the department of justice would not recommend his release.

Blamed for "Double Cross."

It was reported that Murray had been double crossed by some of his associates, and it was reported last night that Blue had, in some way, been connected with the double crossers and that Murray's gang took their vengeance on him.

Blue was not connected with the Mother Wills Thorne Fund of $2,000,000

The will of Mrs. Katherine Comstock Thorne, widow of William C. Thorne, vice president of Montgomery Ward & Co., was filed yesterday with Mitchell C. Robin, clerk of the Probate court. It leaves a personal estate of $100,000 and a $2,000,000 trust fund, created for her by her husband, to her son, Gordon C. Thorne, 3500 Sheridan road.

Mrs. Thorne had created a $1,500,000 spendthrift fund for her son several years ago after his marital adventures drained the estate left by his father. At that time Mrs. Thorne announced that she would not pay alimony to her son's three ex-wives. A contempt of court sentence against Thorne for failure to meet an alimony order of $750 a month for his first wife, Mrs. Virginia Milner Thorne of New York, is now pending in the Supreme court. A second citation, secured by his third wife, Mrs. Anna Thorne Hutchins, was settled out of court last winter.

The will also leaves Thorne, who is married to a fourth wife, Mrs. Thorne's home, an automobile, and household furnishings. It empowers him to dispose of the two trust funds at his death. The son appeared with his attorney, George L. Schein, before Edward S. Scheffler, assistant to Probate Judge Horner, to prove the will.

The will disposes of $75,000 in jewels. These are left to an adopted daughter, Mrs. Helen Norcott, 222 East Chestnut street, and two sisters, Mrs. Letitia Ingalls and Mrs. Annie Schmidt.

Died Following Operation.

Mrs. Thorne died April 4, at the age of 66, following an operation for gallstones and an illness of several years. She had been prominent in Chicago's social circles. At the time of her death her son was returning from a trip to Europe.

William C. Thorne died in 1917, leaving his widow an estate of more than $3,000,000. She later became the wife of William C. Camp. In 1922 she began a long litigation to obtain an accounting of her estate, which she claimed to have turned over to him. It ended with a revocation of a $350,000 trust fund she created for Camp and in a divorce.

Iowa Prison Population Up 163 Pct. Since Dry Law

Keokuk, Ia., April 16.—(AP)—An increase of 163 per cent in the population of the Iowa state penitentiary at Fort Madison was reported for the last ten years by Miss Merta Mitchell, census supervisor, today.

She announced the population of the prison as of April 2 this year was 1,241, compared with 471 in 1920, an increase of 770 persons.

MRS. HOOVER INJURES HER BACK SLIGHTLY IN FALL AT WHITE HOUSE

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—Mrs. Herbert Hoover, wife of the President, suffered a painfully wrenched back in a fall this afternoon at the White House.

Dr. Joel T. Boone, White House physician, said tonight that Mrs. Hoover's injury was slight. She fell in her living room and was injured sufficiently to keep from standing when she received the children of the American Revolution who visited her this afternoon.

The fall was the reason, Dr. Boone explained, why Mrs. Hoover reclined on a couch while she accepted a gift of flowers from the children. The elder members of the organization were not received.

Tonight she was confined to her room, but Dr. Boone explained that her condition was not at all serious. The cold from which she has been suffering for the last few days has improved, he said.

Negro Church Leader Slain Mysteriously

Edward D. Pierson, 54 years old, 5434 Michigan avenue, auditor of the Negro National Baptist convention, was found clinging to a tree in the Muscatatuck river at Scottsburg, Ind., yesterday, shot six times in the body. His hands and feet were bound and two traveling bags were weighted about his neck.

He died before he could be pulled from the water, without revealing any details of the mysterious shooting.

Pierson was on his way from the Nashville, Tenn., headquarters of the Negro Baptist church to Columbus, O., and his friends could not explain his presence in Scottsburg. It was believed that either he had been taken from a train there or had been taken there from Louisville by automobile and slain.

See Feud Over Auditing.

Investigators regarded the murder as an outgrowth of Pierson's activities during his twelve years as auditor, during which he had made many enemies. The Negro Baptist church, they said, has had numerous clashes between officials of the convention and an outside faction.

As the auditor of the convention, Pierson had frequently found irregularities in the accounts of church leaders, his son, E. D. Pierson Jr., said, and had caused the dismissal of of fenders.

In his capacity of auditor Pierson had gone to Nashville on March 30 to examine the books of the Sunday school publishing board, an auxiliary of the Negro Baptist convention. Efforts were made to keep him from going to Nashville, according to Sheridan A. Bruseaux, who was retained last night by convention officials to investigate the killing.

Report Loan Juggled.

An Associated Press dispatch from Nashville last night said that an investigator for the district attorney's office revealed that Pierson in his recent audit "had found that a loan of $62,000 made recently to the Nashville office had been juggled." He said Pierson was soon to have reported his findings.

Some of the Negro church leaders in Chicago doubted, however, that the audit had any connection with the killing.

"I find it the general opinion that Pierson was taken from the train and murdered for some imagined slight or offense, fancied by some other passenger," said the Rev. J. C. Austin of the Pilgrim Baptist temple, 3301 Indiana avenue.

The church leaders who retained Bruseaux to investigate the affair announced through him last night that they would pay a reward of $1,000 to any one supplying information leading to the arrest and conviction of the slayers.

Rondout mail robbery but had been sentenced for a mail robbery in Cincinnati in which he was aided by Joe Bertsche, an old time Chicago safeblower. In prison, however, he became intimate with Murray and the police believed he had been sent here as an emissary of Murray when he was released.

Had Long Police Record.

He had a Chicago police record dating back to 1907, when he was sentenced to the Bridewell under the name of Joseph Blau for thirty days on a charge of assault. He was known to the police as an expert pickpocket, a hi-jacker, a yegg, and a holdup man. For a number of years before prohibition he had owned saloons in the vicinity of Washington and Wells streets and was a familiar character in the underworld of those days.

He dropped out of sight seven or eight years ago and was not heard of again until his arrest in Troy, N. Y., for the Cincinnati mail robbery. Letters found in his pockets indicated that he had numerous friends or relatives living in New York, and when the police questioned his wife she at first told them that he had come here from New York a few months ago.

She refused to tell the police who his associates were, declaring that she did not know what his business was and that he had been out of work since his return from the penitentiary.

COMMONS TOLD BOILING LOBSTER CRIES WITH PAIN

LONDON, April 16.—(AP)—Whether lobsters should be killed before boiling and whether it is humane to swallow live oysters occupied the house of commons during the question hour today. J. Compton, labor member for Gorton, Manchester, chairman of the house kitchen committee, told a questioner that lobsters might be alive when they were put in the cooking vessel, but that death was instantaneous.

The questioner responded with the charge that cries and groans were heard from lobsters long after they had been put in the broiler. He wanted prohibition of lobster eating in the house restaurants. Then another member raised the question of oyster-swallowing.

Mr. Compton closed the debate by declaring other small fish, such as shrimps, mussels, winkles and cockles were treated like the lobsters, and if the members wanted a different method of killing them, he suggested nature's method—letting them be killed by the lobsters.

South Parks Adopt as West Pks. Abolish Speeder Bond

Reckless drivers and speeders arrested on the boulevards of the south park district after May 1 will be taken to police headquarters and required to post a bond for their release, the south park board decided yesterday. Plans for the new system of dealing with violators of the major traffic laws will be started at once, Supt. Donoghue said. A station where offenders will be booked will be opened in the Washington park refectory. At the same time the west park commissioners abolished the practice of making vehicle law violators secure bonds. In the future motorists will be given arrest slips after making proper identification.

Store Manager Kidnaped on Way to Bank, Robbed

Cass Gallion, 4631 South Albany avenue, manager of the Metropolitan Chain Stores, Inc., reported to the New City police last night that he had been robbed of $100 by three gunmen who kidnaped him in an automobile. Gallion said he was on his way to make a night deposit at the People's National bank and Trust company at 1542 West 47th street, when the three men forced him into their car, later putting him out at 49th and Throop streets.

SCHOOL TRUSTEE DEMANDS QUIZ IN REALTY DEALS

Asks Righeimer to Explain Condemnation Prices.

Mrs. W. S. Hefferan, member of the board of education, yesterday declared that she will demand an investigation of the amounts paid for property acquired for school sites. Mrs. Hefferan said she will call upon Frank S. Righeimer, school attorney in charge of condemnation matters, to explain the procedure in condemnation cases.

There is one transaction which Mrs. Hefferan especially wishes to be informed about, she said. This deal is the one in which the board acquired one and one-quarter acres of land and property for nearly $250,000, an amount which she says is excessive.

Acquired for Addition.

This property was acquired last summer as the site for an addition to the Waller High school at 2007 Orchard street. The property has a frontage of 298 feet on Howe street, 250 feet on Garfield avenue, and 125 feet on Orchard street. According to the report of the attorney, $62,245 was paid for the land and $182,050 for the buildings, a total expenditure of $244,295.

The records in the office of Ernest Withall, business manager for the board, show, Mrs. Hefferan said, that there were sixteen buildings of two or three stories each located on the land. All were built more than 25 years ago. The records also show that, after the school board acquired the property, one building was sold for $500. The remaining fifteen are being wrecked at an expense to the board of $1,000.

Wants to Know Procedure.

"Mr. Righeimer should tell us how these condemnation matters are carried out," Mrs. Hefferan said. "He ought to explain how the appraisals are made and who makes them. He also might tell us how many cases are settled in court and how many are settled out of court by friendly agreements."

Mrs. Hefferan said she brought the matter to the attention of the trustees two months ago but that the discussion was quickly side tracked. Ten days later, she said, John E. Byrnes, then head of the board's bureau of real estate, was removed from office by President Caldwell and demoted to a clerk's position in the educational department.

The reason for Byrnes' transfer was never fully explained, Mrs. Hefferan said. "I have recently been informed that he was removed because he 'knew too much'," she said. The real estate bureau handles much of the preliminary matters in condemnation cases.

Valuations Are Different.

Nate Delue, assistant to the business manager, said the Waller site, purchased for $244,295, was valued by an appraiser employed by the legal department at about $200,000. By the records of the board of assessors the full valuation of the property during the recent reassessment was placed at $97,145.

The business manager pointed out that the attorney has been doing all the work in condemnation matters, although the Otis school law delegates most of the work to the business manager and only calls upon the attorney to draw up a legal title to the land.

Mr. Righeimer recently was appointed by the board to handle all the condemnation matters exclusively, although James Todd, head of the board's legal department, protested that it was his prerogative to assign the duties of his assistants. The board also voted to pay Righeimer $10,000 annually.

Mrs. Hefferan voted against the appointment and questioned the right of the board to take such action. Attorney Todd since has brought suit against the board to compel the trustees to rescind their order and restore his powers.

JAMES COSTIN, FIRE MARSHAL, CRITICALLY ILL

Division Fire Marshal James J. Costin was critically ill of pneumonia last night at his home at 7543 Ridgeland avenue. Oxygen was being administered to him under the direction of Dr. Gilbert H. Marquardt. Marshal Costin contracted a severe cold while fighting a fire in the Western Radio Company building at 128 West Lake street on April 5, aggravating it by breathing fumes of burning leather in a leather goods store in the same building. Later the same day he directed firemen at another fire at Institute place and Franklin street and a few days later became seriously ill. Costin is in charge of the 1st division at Clinton and Washington streets.

WEDDED JURORS PONDER FATE OF OLGA EDWARDS

BULLETIN.

New York, April 17.—(Special.)—At 1:52 a. m. today Judge Rosalsky announced the jury in the trial of Olga Eide Edwards, actress, on an attempted extortion charge made by Nathan L. Amster, financier, had been locked up for the night and that he would be prepared to receive a verdict at 10 a. m. today. It had deliberated nine and a half hours.

New York, April 16.—[Special.]—A jury of twelve married men was trying tonight to decide whether Olga Eide Edwards attempted to extort money from Nathan Leonard Amster, millionaire traction man.

The dancer is liable to as much as from three to seven years' imprisonment if convicted.

With Judge Otto F. Rosalsky's admonition to disregard any controversy between the brunette actress and the elderly financier, the jurors filed late this afternoon from the General Sessions courtroom, where Harry K. Thaw, Police Lieutenant Becker, George A. McManus, and Miss Mae West have had their fates submitted to juries.

They at once set about on the process of determining the condition of the girl's mind, for her motive, according to the court, as shown in her actions, will indicate whether she has committed a crime.

Paternity Not Involved.

Even if Amster is the father of Miss Edwards' six year old son, Lee, which Amster has denied, Judge Rosalsky instructed the jury to find her guilty if they believed she threatened to expose the secret in order to obtain money.

The question of whether the $100,000 trust fund agreement, the fund having been established by Amster for Miss Edwards, was violated is not to be considered by this court, the judge said, for, even if it were, the child is not without a remedy, to be found in proceedings to establish paternity. Amster still could be adjudged father of the child if it were shown in the proper court that he acknowledged the child in writing or by support, the court said.

Trust Fund Charges Made.

In his summing up address James D. C. Murray, counsel for the girl, charged that her arrest was brought about "to save a $100,000 trust fund" for Amster.

Miss Edwards finished her story of her relations with Amster at the forenoon session.

"Isn't it a fact," demanded Assistant District Attorney Richard H. Gibbs, "that your family disowned you ten years ago?"

"I don't think so," replied Miss Edwards with a half smile. "My father is very fond of me," she continued slowly, "and my mother is here now. Otherwise I don't think I could have gone through this horrible ordeal."

Dead Swedish Queen's Dog, Pal 10 Years, Dies of Grief

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, April 16.—Luck, the black spaniel dog of the late Queen Victoria of Sweden, died today from grief over the death of his mistress, to whom he had been a faithful companion for ten years. During the last days of the queen's illness here, the dog appeared melancholy. After her death he refused to eat. He was buried today in the Villa Svesia, where the queen lived while here.

German Flyer Killed as Wing of Plane Snaps Off

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

BERLIN, April 16.—Johannes Nehring, who reached 26,160 feet altitude on April 4 in a small double decked plane, thus setting a record in this class of plane, was killed today when his plane dropped a wing at a height of 10,000 feet over Kuehhoff island, near Darmstadt. A companion, Dr. Steinhaeuser, landed safely by parachute. Herr Nehring was also a glider champion.

AVOID UGLY PIMPLES

Does a pimply face embarrass you? Get a package of Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. The skin should begin to clear after you have taken the tablets a few nights, if you are like thousands of others.

Help cleanse the blood, bowels and liver with Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets, the successful substitute for calomel; there's no sickness or pain after taking them.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets do that which calomel does, and just as effectively, but their action is gentle and safe instead of severe and irritating.

Thousands who take Olive Tablets are never cursed with a "dark brown taste," a bad breath, a dull, listless, "no good" feeling, constipation, torpid liver, bad isposition, pimply face.

Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound, known by their olive color.

Dr. Edwards spents years among patients afflicted with liver and bowel complaints, and Olive Tablets are the immensely effective result. Take nightly for a week. See how much better you feel and look. 15c, 30c and 60c.

OPPOSES PARKER AS "AFFRONT" TO MISSOURI NEGRO

Senator Overman Asks Early Action.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—Deluged with increasing numbers of indorsements and protests over the nomination of Judge John J. Parker of North Carolina to be an associate justice of the Supreme court, Senator Overman [Dem., N. C.] said today he would press for action at the next meeting of the senate judiciary committee on Monday.

However, restlessness in Republican ranks over the nominee shows little signs of diminishing and leaders are considering some early conferences to discuss the situation. The protests of organized labor and of the Negro organizations have created some concern.

Patterson Gets Protest.

Today Senator Patterson [Rep., Mo.] received a telegram from B. G. Voorhees, Republican state chairman for Missouri, asserting that the Republican party "might just as well say good-by to Missouri for the next two or three elections at least" if Judge Parker is confirmed.

Senator Patterson is one of many Republican senators anxiously looking for facts. Parker is a Republican and the President has been informed of uneasiness in the party fold because of organized protests. The chief executive has sent back word he is standing by the nominee.

The Negro organizations have objected to a speech attributed to Parker as a candidate for governor in 1920 in which, they contend, he showed prejudice toward their race.

Opposes Confirmation.

The telegram from Voorhees said confirmation of Parker "will be the first great affront given by a Republican President and a Republican senate to the Negro race since the days of Abraham Lincoln."

Voorhees also challenged the indorsement of Judge Parker by the Kansas City Bar association. He said that James Aylward, the president of this bar association, was a Democrat and added that he had read of no meeting of the bar association.

Mother Enjoined

Superior Judge Charles A. Williams yesterday issued an injunction to restrain Mrs. Marian Goewey, 17 years old, 6806 North Clark street, from abandoning her 9 months old daughter, Dolores May. The injunction was secured by her husband, William Irving Goewey, 25 years old, 1664 Pratt boulevard, a mechanic, who charged that his wife was about to abandon her child just as "Smiling Jimmy Taylor" was left in the Stevens hotel.

Goewey appeared before the judge with his attorney, Harry K. Cole; yesterday afternoon, after he filed a bill for divorce on charges of cruelty. The Goeweys were married Oct. 27, 1928, and separated last April 16. Hhe charged that his wife has refused to take proper care of their daughter, because she is averse to the discomforts of caring for the child.

He declared that his wife has threatened to put the daughter in an orphan asylum on several occasions. Mrs. Goewey was said to have left her child with neighbors while she went to dance halls. Recently, Goewey said, she talked of the abandonment of the child in the Stevens hotel, and threatened to do likewise with their daughter. Goewey asked that she be enjoined from carrying out her threat and from seeing her child.

Ancient Bus Makers Going Out of Business

Quincy, Ill., April 16.—(AP)—The E. M. Miller company will go out of business May 1. Put that way, that doesn't mean much. But to those who who rode the old horse drawn coaches of the Fifth Avenue Bus company and the famous twelve seater "Columbian buses" at the Chicago World's Fair of 1933, it means that one of the famous old carriage and wagon makers of the country is quitting. Competition of the automobile has taken away the demand for its product, the announcement today said.

DRY LAW CITED AS MENACE TO AMERICAN YOUTH

"Secret" Report Made to League Welfare Body.

GENEVA, April 16.—(AP)—The league of nations child welfare committee, for whom Mlle. Marie Chantal president of the International Council of Nurses, has made a "secret" report on social and moral conditions in the United States, met today for its closing session.

Mlle. Chantal yesterday made a brief oral report to the commission, but has also prepared a written report, which has not been officially disclosed.

It was learned informally, however, that some portions of her written report contained rather sensational implications. Of New York she wrote:

"We encountered such depths of misery, moral and physical, as would appall the most experienced of welfare workers."

The Dangers to Girls.

Regarding New York the report further said:

"Hygiene frequently takes the place of morals and physical health sometimes takes precedence over conscience. The human soul does not seem to be regarded as a living reality. We think one of the principal dangers to girls of the working class lies in a lack of family unity and the habit of seeking recreation outside the home."

The report also told of Mlle. Chantal visiting an unidentified Juvenile court in New York.

"The judge attributed a great deal of the increase in child delinquency to the prohibition law," the report said. "He blames it for a great deal of harm that is done. Parents break the law and are inveterate drinkers. The child becomes accustomed to seeing the law disobeyed. He is often employed by the parents to carry fermented liquors and sell them and, with these bad examples before him he loses all respect for the law."

Detroit Gets Some Praise.

The report praised the work of policewomen in Detroit and the treatment in that city of girls and young women coming under them. She also commended the work of Detroit's Children's court and detention home, adding that Detroit dance halls were quiet, decent and well conducted.

She reported excellent conditions at the Sleighton Farms reform school near Philadelphia, and also gave high praise to the Thornhill school near Pittsburgh.

Regarding the United States in general, Mlle. Chaptal said:

"The child's life is not surrounded by the protective bulwark of the home, which he does not leave except to go to school or church, or to places of recreation known to his parents. He lives his own life, has his recognized freedom, and is allowed to make his own decisions. In these circumstances the social services in the United States are naturally directed toward the development of the child's personality without regard to any factor which might tend in another direction."

The investigation in the United States is one of many to be conducted in behalf of the league in various countries of the world.

Slain Prosecutor's Widow Vows Revenge on Assassins

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Mauston, Wis., April 16.—[Special.]—Standing by the coffin in which lay the body of her husband Mrs. Myrtle Price, widow of Clinton G. Price, slain Juneau county prosecutor, today made to Sheriff E. H. Hempelman a dramatic plea for vengeance upon her husband's killers.

It was the first time Mrs. Price had spoken since Price was killed Sunday night from ambush as he stood in the lighted doorway of his home. She revealed that the dying man had gasped out directions to her on how to handle the investigation of his murder.

"Get Them," Last Words.

"Get the man who did this, Myrtle," the district attorney whispered to her, she said. "I've been expecting this; get them, or there will be more lives lost. Don't let —— be appointed to handle the case."

She named a prominent attorney as the man whom Price had warned her against permitting in the case.

"Clint wanted me to see justice done," she declared. "I am going to work on this case myself and I want his murderers caught, otherwise what he said will come true. There will be others shot down in the dark."

Get Death Threats.

This last statement of the widow was supported by the revelation today that Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lehman of New Lisbon, Wis., witnesses for the state in a recent booze conspiracy case, had also been threatened with death. Yesterday Frank Scholz, the star witness in the same case, demanded police protection, because he had been told he was to be killed in the same manner as Price.

Lyall T. Wright, the young ex-sheriff, who was ousted from office on Price's charges, remained silent in jail, where he is awaiting a hearing next Tuesday on charges of murdering Price. The impression is growing among the investigators that Wright did not actually fire the shot which killed the prosecutor, but was present at the time and saw the murder. Wright's only comment, made shortly after his arrest, was that he didn't do it, but saw it done.

Sheriff Hempelman today rounded up all the defendants in the last case prosecuted by the district attorney and questioned them. He said he found no evidence against any of them. The theory of some investigators is that the slaying was done by a gunman imported from Chicago.

Hunt Milwaukee Men.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 16.—[Special.]—A state-wide police net was spread tonight for two Milwaukee bootleggers believed to have important knowledge of the slaying of Clinton G. Price, Juneau county district attorney. Three members of the notorious Diamond liquor gang were questioned here today by O. S. Loomis, Mauston special prosecutor in the case.

CITY GETS NEW AIRPLANE PORT ON LAKE FRONT

South Parks Will Build Permanent Ramp.

BY ROBERT WOOD.

Chicago was assured a lake front aircraft landing beach yesterday when the south park commissioners, at their regular meeting, authorized the reconstruction of the water ramp for amphibions and seaplanes at the foot of 8th street in Grant park. The ramp will be rebuilt of permanent materials to withstand the ravages of the lake.

Edward J. Kelly, president of the south park board, announced that construction of the ramp will be started as soon as bids are received. The plans call for the building of a concrete and steel runway leading from the water to the shore to permit amphibions to land in the yacht club harbor in the city's front yard and roll up on shore under their own power. The estimated cost of the construction is $15,000.

Links Airports and Loop.

The opening of the ramp will make possible shuttle services between the city's outlying airports and the lake front, bringing air service for passengers and merchandise to within five minutes of the loop.

At the meeting yesterday it was learned that several air passenger lines may be established this spring and may use the landing beach as the Chicago terminus for their lines. Curtiss-Wright flying service was reported to be considering regular airplane commuter service between the lake front and Lake Geneva, 30 minutes from here by air, and also between Chicago and other summer resorts in Wisconsin.

Rear Admiral Urges Move.

Yesterday's action of the park board was urged by Chicago plane owners and aviation enthusiasts, who pointed out that other important cities with water fronts have established landing ramps for water going planes.

Rear Admiral Walter S. Crosley, commanding officer of the 9th naval district, urged the establishment of the landing beach as a peace time convenience and a measure for defense in war time.

The concrete and steel ramp will replace a plank runway built by the park commissioners last year. The wooden ramp was destroyed during the lake storms last fall.

LAKE ERIE OVER SHORE; DAMAGES MUCH PROPERTY

Toledo, O., April 16.—(AP)—Hope for relief from the worst flood in the history of Point Place, which forced 30 families in this residential district, adjacent to Toledo, to flee their homes early today, was expressed tonight as the water receded a little more than six inches after being four feet above normal. This is said to be the highest in the history of Point Place.

The flood, which caused thousands of dollars worth of property damage along Maumee bay and Lake Erie was especially disastrous this year because the waters of Lake Erie have been unusually high since last fall. The level tonight was three feet above normal. Hundreds of summer cottages along Lake Erie were flooded as well as the scores of permanent homes that dot Maumee bay, especially in the Point Place district. Difficulty was experienced rescuing some families.

36 HOUR RAIN BENEFITS CROPS; MORE EXPECTED

True April weather, with threatening skies and possibly showers, was forecast for Chicago today and tomorrow, after 36 hours of incessant rainfall. At 7 o'clock last night the rainfall, which started with light showers last Friday, had reached a total of 1.28 inches, of which 1.07 inches had fallen since Tuesday morning. Yesterday's precipitation was .61 of an inch. The precipitation during the present rainy spell has been near to the amount which ordinarily falls during the entire 16 days of the month.

W. P. Day, official weather forecaster, predicted that after a slight dip in the temperature this morning to a minimum of 35 degrees, the temperature will rise again and that today will be slightly warmer than yesterday. The day will be partly cloudy, with possibly a shower, while tomorrow will be cloudy and "somewhat threatening," he said.

The rainfall of the last few days has been general throughout the central west, with the exception of spotted areas in Oklahoma, Texas, and Kansas, and farm advisers said that the rainfall had been heavy enough generally to break the drought which had threatened crops.

THINK THIS OVER THE NEXT TIME YOU LIE AWAKE

WHEN, after an evening cup of coffee, you toss sleeplessly, don't blame yourself for lack of will-power. Blame yourself for lack of initiative.

For you know it's one single ingredient of coffee that steals your sleep—caffein. Undoubtedly you've heard of Sanka Coffee—genuine, delicious coffee from which 97% of the caffein has been removed. But you just haven't got around to trying it. And what a treat you're missing.

Uncommonly delicious!

For Sanka Coffee is uncommonly delicious. Nothing is added—only the caffein that steals your sleep is removed. Sanka Coffee is a blend of the choicest Central and South American coffees—skillfully roasted and blended to bring out the finest flavor, the most tempting aroma. Coffee experts recognize that no other blend is finer.

Physicians endorse Sanka Coffee wholeheartedly. Your grocer carries it—ground or in the bean—in pound cans that preserve its freshness and its fragrance. He sells it on this money-back basis: "If, after a thorough trial, you are not fully satisfied, return what's left and we'll refund the full purchase price." Get a can of Sanka Coffee today—and sleep tonight!

Make the night-test!

The first time you try Sanka Coffee, drink it at night. It won't keep you awake. Next morning you'll know, from actual experience, that you've discovered a delicious coffee you can enjoy morning, noon and night—without regret!

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

AR FRANCHISE ALL DONE BUT ODDS AND ENDS

Remaining Points to Be Settled Tomorrow.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

The text of the proposed indeterminate franchise for a new transportation company that will consolidate the surface and elevated lines was "practically completed" last night, according to be the bankers, aldermen, transit executives, and lawyers who have been in conference on the matter.

No more conferences of these groups are planned, although there are a few changes and additions in phrases to be made in the text. One of these concerns the exact wording of the section on transfers and another relates to gratuities which the new company may make.

The aldermen—J. B. Bowler, McDonough, Arvey, Nelson, and Toman—and assistant Corporation Counsel Higgins will meet with Attorney Walter L. Fisher, attorney for Federal Judge Wilkerson, tomorrow morning for a reading of the ordinance to catch any slips in language or other errors. The companies and their lawyers will make a similar canvass.

Goes to Printer Next.

According to the agreement, if neither side finds anything wrong, the draft will be sent to the printer tomorrow night and the ordinance will be presented to the local transportation committee early next week, minus the schedule of improvements to be made.

A surprise feature of the text, inserted yesterday, is an obligation on the part of the new company to remove the elevated loop when subways have been provided to obviate its need and when its value has been amortized out of the capitalization.

An commission from the draft relates to the Chicago Motor Coach company. It has been rumored that the ordinance would permit the merger of these lines with the surface and elevated roads. The text of the franchise, it is said, neither permits nor prohibits the new company to assimilate the motor coach concern. A lawyer in the conference yesterday said that the proposed regulatory commission will decide whether there shall be such a merger.

Puts Action Up to City.

While all the conferees appeared pleased that the text was practically completed, one of them privately pointed out the necessity for action on the part of the city for subway construction. An ordinance providing for rates has not been prepared.

Under the proposed franchise the new company is obligated to spend $250,000,000 for extensions and betterments in the first 10 years, and the city promises to build the initial subways at an estimated cost of $100,000,000. The company is further pledged to expend $65,000,000 in the first three years, but it is not required to complete extensions and add tracks which depend for effective operation upon subways until the subways are finished.

The city has $61,000,000 in its treasury with which to start subways. It has been the aldermanic view that the subway cost of bores should be paid by special assessment upon property benefited, with an allowance for general public benefit. This general benefit would be paid, according to the discussion so far, out of the city transit fund.

In the last day of negotiations the conferees decided upon the final wording prescribing the powers and also the duties of the transit trustee, who will handle the city's transit fund and its compensation from the company.

Under the text as now written the trustee will not be permitted to invest his funds in city tax anticipation warrants. His investments of the transit fund must be in city, county, state, and federal bonds, or in securities acceptable at the federal reserve bank for rediscount, according to one of the conferees.

Riots in India Grow; One More is Slain, 50 Injured

BOMBAY, India, April 16.—(AP)—Civil disobedience, with attendant battles, bloodshed and arrests, spread from coast to coast in India today. One civilian was killed and nearly fifty other persons were injured in today's riots, which occurred at Karachi, Calcutta and Poona. The number of arrests was mounting hourly. Seven Europeans, including two women, and two Americans were stoned by mobs.

The fatality was reported at Karachi. Thirty-three persons were injured, seven seriously. The clash resulted when a mob, angered at the arrest of six Nationalist leaders, stormed the city magistrate's court. After the arrest of the leaders the situation quieted.

Among those injured in the rioting at Poona were the city magistrate and the superintendent of police, who were stoned when a crowd of Nationalists attacked police headquarters in protest against the conviction of Pandit Jawarhalal Nehru. When the police charged with batons the rioters were dispersed with only one injury, but many were arrested.

New Calcutta Riots.

Calcutta, which suffered from a riot last night, was the scene of further trouble this morning. The seven Europeans and two Americans injured there are in hospitals. The situation there was quiet this evening. Military pickets were posted about the disturbed areas. Sir Stanley Jackson, governor of Bengal, and members of his cabinet will return to Calcutta tomorrow from Darjeeling.

At Bombay 500 followers of Mahatma Gandhi sold contraband salt in the suburbs, and the city civil disobedience committee of the Bombay provincial congress committee said Mme. Kamala Chattapodhyaya had sold $10,500 worth of salt before the Cotton Brokers' association at Sewri.

The bright spot in the Bombay situation was the calling off of a strike of Great Indian Peninsular railway men, leaders telling the strikers that further fighting for better conditions was useless.

Spotlight Off Gandhi.

The spotlight of the whole situation has withdrawn completely from the ascetic little leader, Mahatma Gandhi, who has not yet been molested by the police. His only activity today was a speech at Navsari, where he urged women adherents to continue a nonviolent campaign of picketing liquor shops and stores selling foreign cloth.

It was officially announced that Mrs. Gandhi will start picketing liquor shops at Jalalpur Friday.

Washington Confirms News.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—The state department today announced that the two Americans injured in the rioting at Calcutta, India, yesterday were Albert N. Baudin of Houghton, Mich., and Frank Bond-Nelson of Buffalo, N. Y. Both are employed by the Ingersoll-Rand company, mining machinery manufacturers. Robert Frazer, American consul-general at Calcutta, in his report said neither was seriously injured. He described the rioting as "serious."

Pauline Frederick Gets License to Wed Leighton

New York, April 16.—(AP)—Pauline Frederick, stage and screen actress, and Hugh Chisholm Leighton, 51, president of the Interstate News company, today obtained a marriage license. They hurried away from the license bureau without saying when or where the ceremony would take place.

REGULAR FEEDER BUS SERVICE TO START TODAY

Officials of the Chicago Surface Lines announced last night that regular feeder bus service will be established this morning on Diversey and Belmont avenues. Both lines will operate on a 7 cents fare with transfers to the street car lines. The service on Diversey avenue is provided by trolley buses which operate from overhead wires, while twin coach gasoline buses will be used on Belmont avenue.

Chairman Charles W. Hadley of the Illinois commerce commission, Commissioner of Public Works Wolfe, representatives of the mayor, the police, the aldermen from wards on the northwest side, heads of improvements clubs in that section and officers of the surface lines will make an official inspection of the new trolley buses on Diversey avenue.

The Real Test for Sheer Stockings

Stockings for spring should be sheerer than ever . . . in fact, you should be able to draw them through your little finger ring and still have room to spare. That doesn't mean that they should be impractical, but it does mean that they should be made with special care and attention paid to strength of silk, evenness of weave and reinforcements.

We offer a three-thread 48 gauge, self-picot top—French heel—all silk chiffon stocking. They carry a corner toe-guard, double toe-piece and a double all silk top graduating from seven-thread to five-thread to three-thread, to insure long wear.

U. S. ACCEPTS NEW DEAL TO LIMIT CRUISERS

Stimson Pledges Not to Build Full Fleet.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 16.—The American delegation made another concession to Japan today, which will have the effect of assuring Japan 74 per cent of America's auxiliary tonnage and postponing the attainment of even such an approach to parity of the American with the British navy as is envisaged by the London treaty limiting navies for the next five years.

Secretary of State Stimson and Senator Reed entered into a "gentlemen's agreement" with Reijiro Wakatsuki, head of the Japanese delegation, and Admiral Takarabe that the United States would not build during the life of this treaty the additional tonnage of light cruisers to which it is entitled if it should decide not to build the last three of the 18 heavy cruisers allowed by the pact.

Also Pledges Big Ship Limit.

Several weeks ago the American delegation made an agreement with the Japanese, which is incorporated in the treaty, that America will not complete more than 15 of its 18 eight inch gun cruisers by the time the treaty expires in 1936. As the Japanese have 108,400 tons of eight inch gun cruisers, this agreement insures Japan for the life of the treaty not less than 70 per cent of America's 150,000 tons of this class of ship. This is what Japan demanded.

By virtue of the "gentlemen's agreement" reached today, Japan also is assured of 70 per cent of America's light cruiser tonnage. In addition Japan is allowed 70 per cent of America's destroyer tonnage and parity in submarines. Altogether, until the next arms conference, Japan is allowed 74 per cent of America's aggregate tonnage in cruisers, destroyers and submarines.

More Than Demanded.

This is more than the 70 per cent Japan demanded and the 60 per cent it accepted at the Washington conference in 1921 in consideration of a relinquishment by America of the right to develop naval bases in the western Pacific and Aleutian islands.

The Japanese were moved to exact this additional concession in reference to light cruisers because it is possible that the United States may elect to exercise its option and duplicate the British cruiser fleet. Under the Anglo-American agreement Great Britain is to have 15 big cruisers aggregating 146,800 tons and 192,200 tons of small cruisers, while the United States is to have 18 big cruisers aggregating 180,000 tons and 143,500 tons of small cruisers. Under this agreement the Japanese are allowed 70 per cent of this class of ships.

Under the reciprocal option arrangement with the British, America can come down to 15 big cruisers and go up to 189,000 tons of light cruisers. But that would leave the Japanese with only 53 per cent of America's light cruiser tonnage. By a gentlemen's agreement that the United States will not build the additional 45,500 tons of light cruisers, Japan is assured of at least 70 per cent of our tonnage in this category.

The tonnage allocations under the Anglo-American agreement, according to Mr. Stimson, establish parity of the American and British fleets. By the agreement with the Japanese, however, not to build up to the tonnage limit allowed, America will fall short of parity with Great Britain.

22D WRECK VICTIM DIES.

Albuquerque, N. M., April 16.—(AP)—Frank L. Myers of Columbia City, Ind., died today, bringing to 22 the number of fatalities from the wrecking of a Pickwick Greyhound line motor bus by a Sante Fe train at Isleta, N. M., last Friday.

FRENCH BUILD NEW LINER ABLE TO DOUBLE AS TROOP TRANSPORT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

PARIS, April 16.—The new French liner Atlantique, which was launched yesterday, represents not only a bid by France for the South American passenger trade, but an important change in the peace time naval policy, according to the explanations of well informed observers.

The new line, although it is intended as a peaceful passenger ship, was built under the vigilant eyes of navy engineers, with the special aim of adaptability as a troop transport in time of war. Experts agree that the Atlantique is ideally suited for this purpose because of its great speed and size—the vessel is 675 feet long and displaces 39,000 tons.

Still more important is the fact that the ship is equipped with a modern ventilation system, a vital point of a transport ship, especially in the tropics. Minister of Marine Dumesnil is particularly interested in developing a line of fast packets between Marseilles and Algiers which could transport troops from Africa.

D. A. R. DEMAND THAT UNCLE SAM KEEP HIS ARMS

Hoover's Peace Program Is Denounced.

Washington, D. C., April 16.—[Special.]—Maintenance of sufficient military and naval equipment to meet any emergency that may face the United States in the future was advocated today by the Daughters of the American Revolution, meeting in Washington for their thirty-ninth continental congress.

The demand for adequate national defenses was one of the high lights of a day during which President Hoover's peace program calling for American adherence to the world court and ratification of the three power naval agreement was scored by delegates. A report opposing scrapping of American ships until the major powers sign a limitation agreement was approved.

European Alliances Opposed.

No definite action was taken by the D. A. R. congress on the world court issue reopened by the President in an address Monday night. The only reference to the international tribunal came when Mrs. Charles Brand, wife of Representative Brand of Ohio, denounced the league of nations and the world court as instruments which would entangle this country in European diplomacy.

"We must stand against involvement in European affairs and stand anew for American independence," Mrs. Brand stated. "In this time of unrest over the world, when work is being done to drag the United States into a tangle of European politics by way of the league of nations, or by way of the world court, or by way of any consultation pact, or by any means little or big, slight or important, to get us involved in European diplomacy or in European offensive or defensive operations, it is healthy for us to look back to the days of our revolutionary fathers and mothers when our flag was born."

Awaits Satisfactory Conclusions.

The attack on the three power treaty concluded at London was made inferentially by Mrs. Eva E. Morgan, chairman of the committee on legislation before the United States congress. She asserted that until conclusions satisfactory to all nations are reached this country should not scrap American ships. Her plea for adequate naval defense was applauded and her report adopted.

"So far as material construction goes, our position is unchanged, but in sentiment we are convinced more and more as the days go by that we can never maintain the proud position we hold among the nations of the world without naval resources sufficient to protect our extensive coast line and safeguard the interests of our people," Mrs. Morgan said.

"While we in no sense are of a militaristic mind we are not yet convinced that propaganda being circulated has so far transformed human nature that we have reached a stage where it is no longer necessary to protect our diversified interests. The enemy is not only within our gate but without."

Following today's meetings the 6,000 delegates were received at the White House by Mr. Hoover. He stood alone in the receiving line, as Mrs. Hoover is still suffering from a severe cold.

LONDON PARLEY RACES WITH TIME TO END TUESDAY

New Safeguard Clause Is Submitted to Tokio.

BY JOHN STEELE.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 16.—The naval conference has settled down to a race against time in an effort to complete the drafting of the proposed treaty in time for the five nations to approve and sign it at the final plenary session at 10:30 a. m. next Tuesday. If the drafting committee succeeds, the American delegates will leave London Tuesday night and sail on the Leviathan early Wednesday.

There is still some doubt that the treaty will be ready by Tuesday. Minor difficulties are arising. Chief of these has been the safeguard clause, allowing any one of the three powers which have agreed on a limitation in all categories of ships to exceed the fixed limits in case any outside power builds so as to become dangerous.

Submit Plan to Tokio.

Prime Minister MacDonald, Reijiro Wakatsuki, head of the Japanese delegation, and Secretary of State Stimson had a two hour meeting at 10 Downing street this morning. Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Stimson had agreed on a formula, but Mr. Wakatsuki had dissented. He showed some heat, declaring that America and Great Britain were ignoring Japan in fixing up an arrangement which was just as important to Japan as to them. The two English speaking delegates finally appeased Mr. Wakatsuki and a new formula was drawn and sent to the experts for examination. This was cabled to Tokio tonight for approval.

At the conclusion of this morning's session, Mr. MacDonald left by air for Lossiemouth, Scotland, where he will spend the Easter holiday, returning Monday.

Outline Plan in Parliament.

An outline of the agreement reached by the conference was laid before parliament today in the form of a white paper.

According to the white paper, a complete agreement has been reached among the five powers not to replace 15,000 ton capital ships which the powers are entitled to build under the Washington treaty up to 1936.

There is a complete agreement, according to the white paper, between the three powers on the category system of limitation in all classes of ships and on figures within the categories and on the question of transfer between six inch gun cruisers and destroyers. The official figures are:

GREAT BRITAIN—Eight inch gun cruisers, 15 units aggregating 146,800 tons; six inch gun cruisers, 192,200 tons; destroyers, 150,000 tons; submarines, 52,700 tons. The latter figure is the same for the United States and Japan.

UNITED STATES—Eight inch gun cruisers, 18 units aggregating 180,000 tons; six inch gun cruisers, 143,500 tons; destroyers, 150,000 tons.

JAPAN—Eight inch gun cruisers, 12 units aggregating 108,400 tons; six inch gun cruisers, 100,450 tons; destroyers, 105,500 tons.

The United States undertakes not to complete more than 15 eight inch gun cruisers before 1935. She has an option to rest on this number and take 189,000 tons of six inch gun cruisers, making Great Britain and the United States equal in cruisers, destroyers and submarines at 541,700 tons. If the United States does not choose to exercise this option, the sixteenth 18 inch gun cruiser will be laid down in 1933, the seventeenth in 1934 and the eighteenth in 1935. Under this plan, the United States would have 526,200 tons of cruisers, destroyers and submarines to Great Britain's 541,700 tons.

Japan will be free in 1935 to claim an increase in eight inch gun cruisers.

The figure of 150,000 tons of British destroyers is conditional on the destroyer and submarine strength agreed on by other European nations in further negotiations. This refers to France and Italy.

GRANDI RETURNS TO ITALY; HAILED AS A DIPLOMATIC HERO

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, April 16. — Dino Grandi, Premier Mussolini's young foreign minister, was given a hearty welcome on his arrival here from the London naval conference tonight after a three months' absence.

"I have nothing to say yet, but wait a while," remarked Sig. Grandi.

He was accompanied by Admiral Alfredo Acton and Admiral Sirianni, who remarked that "it was difficult to keep saying no all the time at London but there was no other way out of it."

Sig. Grandi will see Premier Mussolini tomorrow. The press hails Sig. Grandi and Admiral Sirianni as having emerged victoriously from the battle of London after staunchly upholding the line laid down by Mussolini to defend Italian prestige and not to give in on the parity stand with France.

Women are simply
at a time like this

● No matter how independent they may ordinarily be, women have a temperamental weakness which you probably have discovered. A terrible weakness for those who remember them at a time like Easter.

● Perhaps you reason that it wouldn't give you any thrill to receive an Easter bunny or a chick or an enormous egg. But unless past experience is all wrong, women and children think it's great.

● As a matter of fact these particular eggs are perfectly delicious to eat. And the barnyard ancestry which goes along with them—with no undue financial drain—gives eloquent testimony to your largesse, your imagination, and your thoughtfulness.

● A few of the many Easter Gifts at DeMet's eight stores

1 Bunny, charming but somewhat self-conscious with basket of eggs. Gentle. 75c and $1.25.

2 Big chocolate egg, garnished and embellished very festively, filled with delicious candy. $1.50—$3.

3 Satin egg, beautifully hand-painted, many sizes; filled. $2—$4.

4 Egg-shaped basket of pure chocolate—practically a centerpiece. Filled with fine candy. Going at $1.50.

5 Red, yellow, purple and green rooster, very gamey, but not to eat. $1.50—filled.

6 Easter Greetings of DeMet's delicious chocolates at $1 per pound.

GOVERNOR WILL CALL ASSEMBLY TO TAX SESSION

Action Is Probable Soon, He Announces.

Strawn committee nor the Huebsch commission has completed its recommendations, and that pending this action he could not discuss the nature of the legislation to be presented. He permitted Attorney William H. Sexton, who with Robert S. Carr and Douglas Sutherland appeared to represent the citizens' committee, to answer questions as to the nature of that committee's recommendations.

"We have given the governor a rough sketch of our present ideas," Mr. Sexton said. "Mr. Strawn prefers that the committee's plan should be definite in all particulars before it is submitted for public discussion."

The possibility of increasing the tax rate was discussed at the conference. Gov. Emmerson said. He and the others interested in obtaining the proposed legislation realize, it was made plain, that legislators who will seek re-election in the November election will hesitate before voting for an increase in taxes, or for a bond issue without referendum. However, the funds collected by the Strawn committee for the purchase of city and county tax warrants will be insufficient, it is known, to tide the local governments over until a referendum can be held, which will not be possible until the November election.

Hope to Relieve Taxpayers.

Asked if the legislature will be requested to pass bills by which Cook county taxpayers will be saved from the payment of two tax bills in one year, Gov. Emmerson said he and the others were trying to make it as easy as possible for the taxpayers, and he indicated some such plans will be pushed.

"Of course," he added, "that is primarily up to these gentlemen of the Strawn committee. I am concerned primarily in obtaining a revenue amendment to the general constitution. The Strawn committee is to present the solution of the problems in Cook county."

David E. Shanahan, speaker of the state house of representatives, attended the conference. When it was ended Gov. Emmerson took a night train for his Mount Vernon home.

New Dilemma for City.

George K. Schmidt, city controller, notified the city council yesterday that the city cannot pay salaries up to July 1. Setting up the anticipated revenues to that date and the pay roll expenditures, Mr. Schmidt finds a deficiency on June 30 of $1,088,000. In addition there will be $4,000,000 in unpaid miscellaneous expenses, he said.

Mr. Schmidt also revealed that unless a special meeting of the city council is called the school teachers will not be paid when their salaries are due on April 25.

Asks More Rescue Cash.

The controller yesterday submitted to the citizens' committee a request for $4,325,000 for the city corporate fund, the Municipal Tuberculosis sanitarium, the Chicago public library, and the firemen's pension fund; $4,425,000 for salaries of school teachers and miscellaneous employés under the school educational funds, and $49,000 for the school playground fund.

These amounts will pay the city and school pay rolls to May 15. However, the city council has not authorized Controller Schmidt to purchase school board 1930 tax warrants with the funds obtained from the citizens' committee, which has been the method of procedure demanded by the committee. There is no meeting of the council scheduled until April 30, which means that the teachers will not be paid until after that date unless a special meeting is called, officials pointed out.

FISHERMAN SWANSON SUGGESTS 'CATCH LINE' TO FISHERMAN HOOVER

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—As one fisherman to another, Senator Swanson [Dem., Va.] suggested today to President Hoover an inscription for the doorway of the Hoover fishing camp on the Rapidan river. It read:

"Lord, suffer me to catch so large a fish that even I in talking of it afterwards shall have no need to lie."

JUNIOR LEAGUERS FILL JOBS IN TEA ROOM KITCHEN

Six members of the Evanston chapter of the Junior league rolled up their sleeves, donned aprons and went on "kitchen police" duty yesterday at the Cradle Maisonette, a tea room at 638 Church street, Evanston, after all of the kitchen employés quit without notice. Another contingent of Junior leaguers will labor in the kitchen today, and continue until new workers can be employed.

The Junior league bought the Cradle Maisonette from the Cradle society of Evanston a week ago and immediately served notice on the kitchen employés that they would be replaced by women who formerly worked there. Yesterday, the managers found themselves without help and Mrs. Louis E. Tilden, president of the chapter; Mrs. Burton Ellis, Mrs. Richard Bachmann, Miss Alice Judson, and Miss Lenore Rogers went to work as cooks to replace the two who quit, while Mrs. William Kingsbury took over the duties of the striking salad maker.

Junior leaguers have always served as waitresses in the tea room, the proceeds from which are given to charity. The formal opening of the place under the Junior league management is scheduled for April 28.

Plane Crashes Into House; Kills Woman; 2 Pilots Die

CHATEAUROUX, France, April 16. —(AP)—One woman was trapped in a house and burned to death and two pilots were killed when two military combat planes collided over this city today. One plane fell in front of the city hall, hitting and slightly injuring a cabman. The pilot was hurled through the roof of a freight car. The other plane crashed through the roof of a house and trapped a maid in a room. She was burned to death in the fire which followed. The pilot was catapulted into the courtyard and instantly killed.

NO; You Can't Hide It

With every breath you take millions of germs sweep into the mouth. They destroy teeth and gums and cause an odious condition none of us can forgive or forget. Dull yellow teeth, ugly tartar, decay and soft, receding gums reveal the presence of this condition known as Bacterial-Mouth. To have sound, sparkling white teeth and firm, pink gums get rid of this condition. Use the dental cream that kills the germs that lead to Bacterial-Mouth . . . KOLYNOS.

In 3 Days You'll Want to Smile
TEETH will be 3 Shades WHITER

USE the Kolynos Dry-Brush Technique* for just 3 days and see what happens when Bacterial-Mouth is removed.

Teeth look whiter, fully three shades. Gums feel firmer, they are healthier. And your mouth tingles with a refreshing, clean taste.

Kolynos cleans teeth and gums as they should be cleaned. As soon as it enters the mouth, this highly concentrated, antiseptic dental cream gives you a pleasant surprise. It becomes an exhilarating FOAM that is full of life. This FOAM gets into and cleans out every tiny crevice, pit and fissure. It instantly kills the millions of germs that cause offensive Bacterial-Mouth—that lead to tooth decay, stain, ugly yellow and to gum diseases. (Kolynos kills 190 million germs in 10 seconds.) Moreover this FOAM keeps on working after you hang up your toothbrush. For 3 hours it continues to cleanse the teeth and purify the mouth.

That is why teeth are so easily and swiftly cleaned down to the beautiful, naked white enamel—without injury.

If you want whiter teeth free from decay, and firm, pink gums—discard the dentifrice that does only half the job. Switch to Kolynos. It will win you in 3 days. Get a tube from any druggist—or mail coupon for a generous trial tube.

POLITICIANS SEE MAY 1 AS MOVING DAY FOR MALONE

Predict Shakeup in State Tax Commission.

BY PARKE BROWN.

With Gov. Emmerson in town discussing taxation, talk around the almost dusty political headquarters yesterday swung to the old discussion of when William H. Malone will resign or be ousted from the chairmanship of the state tax commission.

Malone was reported out of the city and his attitude toward resignation could not be learned. But for about a year Gov. Emmerson's closest friends have said that the tax commission would be shaken up as soon as the Cook county board of review completed its part of the reassessment. The board will finish the last of the books and turn them over to County Clerk Sweitzer next week.

Therefore the politicians' gossip fixed May 1 as moving day for Chairman Malone and at least some of the other members of the commission, there being five places in all, including the vacancy left by the death of Fred E. Erickson.

Two Successors Suggested.

It is believed among his close associates that Gov. Emmerson has not made a final decision as to Malone's successor, but for weeks the story has been that, while he has been anxious to select a Chicago man because of the amount of work the commission has in Cook county and the complexity of its task here, he may name a downstater for the chairmanship.

So far as is known, no outstanding Chicagoan has been recommended for the place, and there are at least two downstaters who have been put forward as well qualified for it. They are Garrett Kinney of Peoria, former state treasurer and now director of finance in the Emmerson cabinet, and A. D. Rodenberg, an assistant attorney general for years, who is considered an authority on taxation.

Assessor Charles Ringer, whose term expires this year but who did not seek renomination last week, is reported to be under consideration for one of the memberships. Another Chicagoan, who also has been proposed for the chairmanship and is said to be under consideration for a membership, is Theo Smith, a former member of the legislature and a candidate for lieutenant governor in the 1928 primary.

Vote Canvass Goes Forward.

About the only action around the almost silent county headquarters yesterday was connected with the official canvass of the vote going on in the election commissioners' rooms. The Republican count in three wards was completed during the day.

One of these was the First, a Democratic bailiwick, which cast a large Republican vote for United States Senator Deneen. The final figures showed that Deneen carried the ward by better than two to one, the record showing 3,654 votes for him and 1,766 for Ruth Hanna McCormick.

This gave a total Republican vote of 5,420 in the ward. Two years ago the ward's total vote for Hoover in the presidential election was 4,157. The vote for United States Senator Glenn in that election was 4,259.

The official count of the ballot in the 32d ward showed that Committeeman Charles Vavrik, city hall supporter, had been defeated by William Lass, Deneen follower, by twenty votes, the totals being, Lass, 3,531; Vavrik, 3,511. This raises Deneen's total vote on the county Republican committee to five.

TWO DIE IN AUTO CRASH.

Owatonna, Minn., April 16.—(AP)—Two men, Henry Brock Sr., of Rochester, and a companion believed to be W. H. Gardner of St. Paul, were killed near here tonight when their car collided with a bus.

ALLEGED "KING OF BLACKHANDERS," 4 OTHERS SEIZED

Michael Puppilo, 1319 West Grand avenue, who, the police say, has succeeded to the throne of Rocco Maggio as "king of the extortionists," was captured last night by police as Perry Scava, 643 Noble street, alleged to have been one of his intended victims called at Puppilo's pool room to make arrangements for paying tribute. Held with Puppilo are his wife, Teresa; Frank Mello, part owner of the pool room, and his wife, Rose, and Tony Calarco, 510 North Elizabeth street, who were in the place.

Scava told the police he received a letter threatening him with death unless he delivered $5,000 at 73d and State streets. He went to a friend who said she had paid $300 to Puppilo to settle a similar case and who advised him to see Puppilo. Scava called at Puppilo's place and made arrangements to settle for $300, and he also notified the police. When he called at the pool room last night, Lieut. George Barker and Detectives Rocco Fillitti and William Balzano accompanied him and seized Puppilo and the other four.

The police said Puppilo fled from Chicago seven years ago after he had been shot by Maggio, who was slain last fall. He was acquitted of a murder charge in Los Angeles and returned here after learning of Maggio's death, the police said.

STATE'S ERROR ENDS GUN CASE WITHOUT TRIAL

CRIMINAL COURT.

L. J. Baker, rape, sentenced to 5 years in the penitentiary by Judge Harry B. Miller.

Murray Humphreys, a business agent for the Bill Posters union, was freed in the Criminal court of a gun toting charge yesterday. An order of nol pros was entered in Judge E. I. Frankhauser's court by Assistant State's Attorney Edward C. Duffley after he admitted that a petition alleging former jeopardy filed by Attorney John H. Johntry was legaly correct and a bar to prosecution.

Humphreys, who has a police record and is reported by the police to be an associate of the Capone gang, was arrested on Jan. 30 by Detectives Louis Capparelli and Michael Casey of the state's attorney's office. The arrest was made during the police drive on gun toters.

The detectives went to the room of Ralph Pierce in the Paxton hotel, 1430 North La Salle street. There police found two 38 caliber revolvers, but could not arrest Pierce because of the law which gives one a right to protect his home.

Then Humphreys walked in and the police found a .38 caliber revolver in his pocket. He was charged with carrying concealed weapons.

The grand jury voted an indictment on Feb. 11. Three days later the state's attorney's office instituted the same case before Judge William Helander in the Felony court on a direct information, not the usual complaint for examination. This gave Judge Helander complete jurisdiction, lawyers said, because the crime is a misdemeanor under the law. Had the proceeding been the usual complaint for examination, it was pointed out, the Municipal court action would have been no bar to future prosecution.

Judge Helander allowed Humphrey to waive a jury trial and proceeded to hear the testimony. In the midst of the hearing the prior grand jury action was discovered and the state entered an order of nol pros, with the consent of Judge Helander.

When the indictment case came up for hearing yesterday Attorney Johntry declared Humphreys had already been in jeopardy. The attorney filed his petition. Judge Frankhauser examined it and said that if the claims stated were correct it seemed that the case had been bungled. Prosecutor Duffley, who had nothing to do with any of the original proceedings, asked time to look up the records, and he soon returned and admitted that Humphreys could not be prosecuted.

The records show that Humphreys in 1918 served a six months' Bridewell sentence for burglary and in 1927 was fined $50 for disorderly conduct.

HIS TWO WIVES HELP EACH OTHER TO WIN DIVORCES

Charles C. Chelly, alias John C. Bonertt, 29 years old, had two wives yesterday, but today he has none. The two wives were awarded divorce decrees yesterday by Circuit Judge Thomas J. Lynch and appeared as witnesses for each other.

The first wife was Mrs. Anna M. Chelly, 35 years old, 1855 Orchard avenue. She was married on March 2, 1923. Last November her husband told her he was going to work overtime every other night, she said. She said that on Nov. 9 she found that he was living under an alias with Mrs. Frieda M. Bonertt, 28 years old, 903 North Ridge avenue.

The first wife charged infidelity and the second obtained divorce on the ground that her marriage was illegal. The husband is missing.

WILLIAMSON IN DOLDRUMS SINCE COAL COLLAPSE

7 Banks Close; Miners Back on Farms.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Marion, Ill., April 16.—[Special.]—Seven bank closings within ten days in Williamson county are blamed by local financiers largely to the sick coal mining industry in the southern Illinois fields. For five years mining has been in a decline, and the effect has been permeating the business and financial setup of the communities in this county.

"Frozen assets" are given as the reason why the seven banks have locked their doors. These are largely in the shape of real estate loans, instead of farm loans, as in other regions which have been experiencing bank troubles. Stagnant mining instead of depressed agriculture is held to have done the refrigerating.

Local financial circles pointed to a few comparative figures indicating the difficulties the last five years have brought to mining in Williamson county. The compiler was Mark Woodley. The figures showed that in 1925 47 mines operated with 12,097 men employed, mining 9,474,292 tons of coal and averaging 1,600 tons daily, with an average of 125 days worked. In 1929, 20 mines operated, with 4,620 men. They mined 5,262,000 tons, averaging 1,370 tons daily in 192 days worked on the average.

Coal Strike the Last Straw.

Local analysists declare the county has never recovered from the coal strike of three years ago, which lasted a year and a quarter. At the time the industry had long been feeling the effect of improved combustion of coal and the competition of gas, oil and electricity. Since 1919 consumption of bituminous coal has remained about stationary. The end of the strike found affairs in worse shape than usual and local coal men say the industry is now at the bottom because it can't drop any farther.

One effect of the drop in employment, and buying power was upon real estate. Some of the state banks had been loaning 50 to 60 per cent on real estate, some of which has slumped to about one-half its market value of five or six years ago. The better pieces are selling at 75 or 80 per cent of their value, bankers say, but others have in some instances been cut in half, and then have found no market.

Merchants Hard Pressed.

Some merchants, with trade falling off, began to get hard pressed, and were unable to meet their bank loans, secured to the bank by real estate. Miners who had gone into building and loan associations to build their homes found themselves unable to keep up payments and some of this trickled back into the banks, to become part of the frozen assets in the icebox.

As an indication of how stagnation in mining impaired the flow of general business, one banker today said that in 1925 there were 152 places in Marion selling groceries and now there are 49.

Agriculture, meanwhile, is doing comparatively well in Williamson county. Many of the miners are said to be going back to the soil.

Whatever excitement attended the closing of the seven banks, it appears to have died down. Plans are under way for reorganizations.

How Banks Went Down.

The first to close was the State Bank at Hurst, followed by the State Savings Bank at Herrin and the Citizens State Bank of Johnson City. Last Saturday the First State Bank of Pittsburg closed, and on Monday the State Bank of Cambria, the Carterville State and Savings bank, and the Marion Trust and Savings bank followed. The total deposits of the seven were about $3,517,000. The largest was the Marion Trust and Savings bank, with $1,771,000 in deposits and 5,000 customers, which occupies the first "skyscraper" built in Williamson county.

Tonight E. B. Jackson, cashier of the closed Marion bank, a former mayor of Marion, who has been with the bank for thirty years, declared that every depositor will be paid in full when the reorganization has been completed.

In analyzing the couse of the seven closings, the local financiers say there was no sudden upheaval, but a steady drain on liquid assets, added impetus being given by the decline in mining pay rolls. Today the government's figures on bituminous coal used for railroad fuel came out and were used to point the slump in mining.

In Illinois in 1921 the mines employed 96,000 miners, and in 1928 64,000. In 1921 they worked an average of 152 days, and in 1928 156 days.

Between 25,000 and 30,000 miners are estimated to be almost chronically unemployed.

As part of the general situation in this region, community leaders are working with a view to creating a diversified industry, and at a recent meeting leading citizens declared that Williamson county must bring in mills and factories to supplement mining.

WASHINGTON NOTES

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—Complete restriction of Philippine immigration into this country except for business and pleasure visitors was postponed in a bill by Senator Shortridge [Rep., Cal.].

The senate bill to authorize the sale of the government owned piers in Hoboken, N. J., was passed by the house with an amendment that sale should be restricted to American citizens.

President Hoover accepted an invitation to attend the centennial celebration of the founding of Randolph Macon college at Ashland, Va., on October 24.

Expenditure of $475,000,000 by the federal government over a period of ten years to aid states in the construction of reservoirs to store waters of navigable streams was proposed in a bill by Representative Garber [Rep., Okla.].

Chester Gray, legislative representative of the American Farm Bureau federation, was assailed in the senate by Senator Norris [Rep., Neb.] for "pulling the chestnuts out of the fire for the power trust" in supporting the old Cyanamid bid for Muscle Shoals.

The White bill to provide $1,835,000 for a five year facility expansion program for the bureau of fisheries was passed by the house and sent to the senate.

The internal revenue bureau ruled today that the motor vehicle fuel tax imposed by the state of New Jersey is deductible for federal income tax purposes by the distributor who pays it and not by the consumer.

Robbers' Victim Dies as Result of Beating

Frank Jamiga, 46 years old, 1546 West Walton street, died yesterday in the County hospital as a result of a beating by three bandits who robbed him of $3 on March 4. Jamiga was found unconscious in the rear of 951 North Ashland avenue, a short time after the robbery.

GUNMEN ROB STORE OWNER.

Peter Varcunas, owner of a grocery at 1800 South Peoria street, was robbed of a watch and $185 yesterday by two Negro gunmen who held him up in his store.

A "50 million to One" shot!

How's That for Odds on a Sure Thing?

THE 50 Million end of it represents the resources of Alemite Corporation, which they now offer the motoring public as odds that even—

ONE Shot of Carbo-Solve will remove the lion's share of the carbon from an engine well carbonized—will keep any engine free from the evil effects of carbon, if used every 500 miles.

No Mere Sporting Gesture!

We're "betting" on a sure thing. We know what Carbo-Solve will do. But you can't lose by accepting the bet at any odds.

Carbo-Solve goes to the root of the carbon problem—dissolves the gummy binder that holds carbon to engine parts and allows it to float out harmlessly through the exhaust.

Peak Engine Efficiency Always!

But Carbo-Solve isn't a stunt, although it works like magic. Use it every 500 miles and you'll always find your engine driving with the power and efficiency its engineers planned it to deliver. This you can not expect if it is laboring under the handicaps of carbon!

Buy This Positive Proof Package Today

If You're Not Satisfied—we'll return your money without a word!

Below is where you can get Carbo-Solve and Carbo-Solve Service. You may have either the full installation or get a shot of Carbo-Solve with a Shop Gun for the price of one can plus a minimum service charge.

When a Child is FEVERISH, CROSS, UPSET

Colic, gas, sour belchings, frequent vomiting, feverishness, in babies and children, generally show food is souring in the little digestive tract.

When these symptoms appear, give Baby a teaspoonful of Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Add it to the first bottle of food in the morning. Older children should be given a tablespoonful in a glass of water. This will comfort the child—make his stomach and bowels easy. In five minutes he is comfortable, happy. It will sweep the Bowels free of all sour, indigestible food. It opens the bowels in constipation, colds, children's ailments. Children take it readily because it is palatable, pleasant tasting.

Learn its many uses for mother and child. Write for the interesting book, "Useful Information." Address The Phillips Co., 117 Hudson St., New York, N. Y. It will be sent FREE.

In buying be sure to get genuine Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Doctors have prescribed it for over 50 years.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of The Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co., and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.

The Famous Keeley Treatment for Liquor and Drugs

More patients came to The Keeley Institute in 1929—than in any year since 1907.

For more than 50 years, The Keeley Institute has been the Mecca for men and women facing physical, mental or financial ruin, because of drink or drugs. They have come to Dwight, and at the end of the treatment, have gone their several ways with no more desire for a drink or drug, than if they had never used it. TOO MANY LAWS, PRISONS FILLED, MITCHELL SAYS

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—Ready to take over the enforcement of prohibition, Attorney General Mitchell wants to "get our house in order" before any new statutes are enacted making more crimes.

Giving this view to the senate judiciary committee in testimony made public today, the attorney general warned that the prison population of the United States is so great today that it is inexpedient to stimulate any further prosecutions.

Blames Crowding on Prohibition.

Mr. Mitchell reported that the federal prisoners had increased during the last nine months by 6,277, including those confined in county, city or state institutions. He said every federal institution was overcrowded. He attributed most of the new prisoners to the prohibition law.

He appeared before the judiciary committee to talk on the resolution for a senate investigation of prohibition and he opposed this on the ground that it would "paralyze" enforcement work during the inquiry. He urged, instead, that congress enact the prison relief legislation and the measure transferring prohibition from the treasury to the justice department.

Presenting data showing considerable increase in federal prisoners during the last 20 years, the attorney general attributed the "overtaxing of the federal machinery" to the prohibition, white slave, narcotic and automobile theft laws.

Against More Federal Laws.

"It makes me feel," he said, "that we ought to get our house in order and increase our facilities for handling the criminal business we already have before we start passing any more federal statutes that make things federal crimes that are not at present."

Pointing again to the overcrowded condition of the penitentiaries, he said, "we have reached a point where, of course, further stimulating activities of prosecution under any law will get us into difficulties."

The attorney general proposed increased pay and numbers of district attorneys as a step in improving enforcement.

CHINESE BANDITS FREE AMERICAN GIRL MISSIONARY

HANKOW, April 16.—(AP)—Miss Nina E. Gemmell, an American missionary, formerly of Girard, Kas., and Tacoma, Wash., arrived here today from a bandits' camp in Kiangsi province mountains, where she had been held for ransom.

7 Are Arrested to Halt 'Jake Paralysis' Epidemic

Richmond, Ky., April 16.—(AP)—Alleged sale of Jamaica ginger resulted today in the arrest of seven persons, one a woman, by federal authorities in an effort to halt the spread of so-called "Jake paralysis," which has affected approximately 250 persons in Madison county and some 600 in the state at large. The woman is Mrs. Cinda Lamb, operator of a sandwich shop. Others arrested were John Agee, grocer; Calvin and Boyd Agee, operators of a soft drink stand; Joe Barnette, grocer; Alex Douglas, lunch room operator, and Oscar Frazer. Hugh C. McFarland, treasury department investigator, said victims of the partial paralysis have signed affidavits as to where they purchased the Jamaica ginger.

Chicago Woman Attacked, Stabbed in Indiana Harbor

Mrs. Louise Mechenn, 38 years old, 8442 Saginaw avenue, was criminally attacked and stabbed beneath the heart by a Negro last night at 139th place and Stewart road in Indiana Harbor. She was found lying in the prairie at the scene of the assault and was taken to St. Catherine's hospital in East Chicago, where it was said her condition was critical. Mrs. Mechenn had been visiting friends in Indiana Harbor and was walking to a bus stop on her way home when the Negro attacked her. The police are searching for the rapist.

Says Three Out of Four Rebel at Prohibition Laws

the Anti-Saloon league and the Methodist board of temperance, prohibition, and public morals."

Challenging Curran's assertion that three-fourths of the people are in revolt against Volsteadism, Senator Robinson declared that study of the association's reports disclosed that seven men contributed more than 60 per cent of the $166,554 collected during January and February of the current year. The seven who, according to Robinson's computation, gave $110,000 to the wet cause, were Irenee du Pont, $30,000; Pierre du Pont, $12,500; Lammott du Pont, $17,500; Richard T. Crane Jr., Chicago, $12,500; Arthur C. James, New York, $12,500; J. J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee, $17,500, and C. H. Sabin, New York banker, $7,500.

Many Small Contributors.

"Why," said Robinson, "it looks like a Du Pont subsidiary and not as though the American people or any majority of the people are against the constitution."

"You have read the names of men whose contributions are given in two annual installments—in January and July each year," exclaimed Curran. "As a matter of fact, more than 5,000 people contributed in amounts from $1 up during the first three months this year, and in every organization there are always a few who are able to give and do give more generously than others."

Curran's disclosure that the association had sent $1,500 into a Massachusets congressional district to support a wet candidate in a recent campaign led Caraway to ask how the organization determined upon the candidates to support. Curran isisted that the association considered other qualifications as well as the candidate's stand upon the liquor issue, but admitted the latter "is a prime question."

"Peace or war, good government or bad, all are subordinated to that question?" asked Caraway.

"That's your statement, not mine," retorted Curran.

The association, Curran testified, did not take any part in the recent primary election in Illinois.

"Are you going to take any part in the general election there?" asked Caraway.

"That will depend on Mrs. McCormick," said Curran.

"But," he was reminded by Caraway, "she said she is going to run on a dry platform."

"O, but she may change her mind," replied Curran.

HOME OF PETER THE GREAT TO BE RED PLAY CENTER

LENINGRAD, Russia, April 16.—(AP)—Peterhoff, built more than 200 years ago by Peter the Great as the imperial summer residence, and known as the Versailles of Russia, soon will be converted into a recreational center for soviet workers and their families.

Soviet authorities today decided to erect fifty permanent rest houses, to create twenty recreational centers and to prepare numerous bathing beaches there for the workers.

Peterhoff is world famous for its magnificent palaces, fountains, parks, cascades, lakes, grottos and statuary. American visitors recall it chiefly by the quaint Dutch cottage called "Mon Plaisir," where the bed, nightgown, slippers and nightcap of Peter the Great are displayed.

6 CHAIN BANKS IN NEBRASKA ARE CLOSED BY STATE

Lincoln, Neb., April 16.—(AP)—Six small banks of Saunders county, with deposits aggregating $1,400,000, have been closed in two days. They were part of a privately owned chain in which F. J. Kirchman had the controlling interest.

2 KILLED IN FIREWORKS BLAST.

Northford, Conn., April 16.—(AP)—Two men were killed in an explosion at a fireworks plant here today. They were the only persons in the building at the time.

From the world's highest mountain falls to its most brilliant seaport

-in a single great vacation day!

TAKE all the things you've ever seen, and every place you've ever been... and in the glory of the great Yosemite Valley you'll find a thing that dwarfs their sum!

Breaking the mountain silence, Yosemite Falls, the highest in the world, drop 1430 feet, then tumble down again through another sparkling mist. Vernal and Nevada Falls and Bridal Veil are just three more among the score of gorgeous water spectacles. And, if you like to climb, you'll scale the granite walls six thousand feet to peer at the green wooded valley down below... to gaze upon an awe-inspiring panorama.

And then... only a few hours away, by highway or rail... San Francisco ... Cosmopolitan San Francisco, America's coolest summer city. Where seven fabled hills look down upon the Bay, and you'll see ships from over every sea. You'll see the largest Chinatown outside of China; and golf, perhaps, beside the Golden Gate. Great hotels and famous restaurants will cater to your smallest wish... in all, you'll come to know why thousands who come to visit, return again to live.

But wait! Yosemite and the city by the Golden Gate are not the only things that California offers you this summer. Lake Tahoe, Russian River, the Redwood Empire, Lassen Volcanic National Park, Monterey Peninsula, Mt. Tamalpais, Feather River ... these and many more await you—with every kind of sport and every way to rest.

The coupon below will bring a free, illustrated book to tell you more... Send it now!

Rates for excellent accommodations are varied as the things you'll see and do in California.

Beginning May 15, low roundtrip fares will be in effect to San Francisco and the Pacific Coast on all railroads. The Victory and Lincoln highways will be in good condition. Or you can come by air, or by steamship via Panama Canal.

BEER MAN TELLS OF $10,000 VISIT TO DRY OFFICIAL

Says Money Vanished but Permit Appeared.

New York, April 16.—[Special.]—A story of how "between $10,000 and $20,000" disappeared from a table in a hotel room in which a conference had been held between Palmer Canfield, former prohibition administrator of the Albany district, and three men representing a brewery, was told in federal court today.

Canfield, now an adviser to the Graham committee on law enforcement, and three men representing the brewery met in the Hotel Roosevelt, it was testified. Subsequently the brewery obtained a permit to operate its concern.

The witness who told this amazing story was Joseph F. Walsh, president of the Columbia County Cereal Beverage company. He was on the stand during the trial of the brewery and twenty individuals on charge of conspiracy of violation of the prohibition laws.

How the Money Vanished.

Michael A. Devasto, alleged head of the conspiracy; George A. Burt, secretary treasurer of the company, and another man were the brewing men in the room, Walsh said. Both Devasto and Burt, separately, told him the story of the vanishing money, he asserted. He could not be sure of the exact amount.

"A sum of money, $10,000 or $20,000, was taken to this meeting with the administrator-to-be," Walsh testified.

During the meeting the money was placed on a table and they left the room. When they returned the money was gone.

The witness was not asked who was meant by "they," or who remained in the room.

Walsh yesterday testified that Canfield had refused the company a near-beer permit. Today he testified that Canfield, soon after taking office in the Albany district on Jan. 1, 1929, issued to the company a permit for the manufacturing of near-beer.

Canfield's Career.

The career of Canfield as a federal official began in 1922 after he had waged vigorous warfare against the liquor traffic during his four terms as mayor of Kingston. He became a special assistant United States attorney and reorganized the prohibition division. In 1923 he succeeded E. C. Yellowley as federal prohibition director of New York state and later became administrator for the Albany district. Last June Prohibition Commissioner Doran announced that Canfield was to be transferred to the position of supervisor of legal work in the northeastern states. The change was made, Mr. Doran said, "in the interest of the service."

Congressmen Delay Relief of Courts Swamped by Drys

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—Action on the law enforcement commission plan and the Bachmann federal judge substitute program to relieve the congestion in federal courts brought about by prohibition was deferred for two weeks today by the house judiciary committee.

The group has been deadlocked on the commission program for several weeks and the Bachmann plan was drafted as an alternative when committee members took the view that it would solve the congestion problem without involving constitutional questions raised by objectors to the commission plan.

Although Chairman Graham declined to say that agreement by the committee on the commission program to permit United States commissioners to conduct juryless trials of minor dry law violators was hopeless members of the group conceded that favorable action was doubtful at this session.

On the other hand, nearly all of the Bachmann bills to provide eighteen addition federal judges for acutely crowded courts are expected by members to be approved when the committee meets two weeks hence.

Chairman Graham was of the opinion that before the end of this session of congress there will be a number of new federal judges on the bench.

The committee further considered the Stobbs bill to amend the Jones law to define misdemeanor violators of that act but was unable to reach a conclusion.

"WHIM SLAYER" WINS DELAY ON INSANITY PLEA

August Vogel, so-called "whim slayer," who was to be executed immediately after midnight tonight, was saved temporarily at least from the electric chair by an insanity petition filed yesterday by his new attorney, Tyrrel Krum. He was sentenced to death on a plea of guilty by Judge Otto Kerner in the Criminal court. Because of the absence of Judge Kerner, the petition was filed before Judge Walter P. Steffen.

The hearing of the insanity issue was set for April 28 and a stay of execution was granted until May 9. Attorney Krum, in his petition, alleges that Vogel has become insane since sentence was imposed on his plea of guilty to the charge of murdering Lyle Perrenoud, a salesman. Vogel shot Perrenoud because he was angered when their automobiles brushed fenders. Vogel at the time was in the midst of a career of banditry.

The petition contained affidavits of Vogel's wife and sister. They charge that his actions now are such as to cause them to believe he has become insane.

Chicago Youth Jailed for 3 Months for Speeding

Harry Hollingshead, 20 year old son of H. T. Hollingshead, president of the Nash Motor Sales company, 4753 Kimbark avenue, was sentenced to serve three months on the Vandalia prison farm near Kewanee, Ill., yesterday following his arraignment there for driving an automobile while intoxicated. Mr. Hollingshead refused to intervene in behalf of his son.

Finds Why Food Sours the Stomach

Mrs. Joan Hannum of 2655 N. Melvina Ave., in Chicago, is one of the happiest women in the country now. It is not hard to understand why, either. She is able to eat again without suffering afterward from indigestion which was caused by a stomach which could not digest rich and starchy food she liked so well. "For the last ten years, rich or heavy food and my stomach didn't get along at all," she says. "I guess I would be that way yet if my sister hadn't told me about Acidine. It relieves me quicker than anything I ever heard of. I can take a dose of it now, and in a few minutes my stomach is settled, the gassy belching is gone, and so is that burning sensation in my throat."

Stories like this have caused the fame of Acidine to spread until more than two million people are already using Acidine when there's too much acid in the stomach, and appetite is gone—you'll like the taste of Acidine, and it costs so little. Get it at any drug store.

INSANE FUGITIVE HUNTED AS KILLER OF CAR SALESMAN

Howard Kennedy Webber, a fugitive for nearly a year from the state asylum at Kankakee, was being sought by police last night for the murder of Edward J. Wolf, south side automobile salesman. His picture was identified by two garage employés as the man who left the McFadden Motor Sales agency, 10858 South Michigan avenue, with Wolf less than an hour before the salesman was found shot to death at Normal avenue and 95th street on the night of April 11.

A cousin, with whom Webber had been living at 6554 Kimbark avenue, told Sergt. John Dalton and his detective bureau squad that Webber had left home the night before the murder and had not returned since. From the authorities at Kankakee Lieut. Walter Storms learned that Webber had been committed to the asylum following an automobile accident in South Chicago about two years ago in which two persons were killed. He has a mania for driving, Lieut. Storms said, and frequently rented automobiles.

'CHICKEN DEALER' LATEST TAG HUNG ON RALPH CAPONE

Ralph J. Capone was described as a chicken dealer yesterday in his trial for evading income taxes in Federal Judge Wilkerson's court. A few moments later, however, Bohumil Hak, saloonkeeper at 6329 Roosevelt road, Cicero, admitted that a $385 check he gave to a Capone collector was not for chickens but for beer.

Hak was the second government witness to take the stand and identify photographs of Ralph Capone and Tony Aresso, a Capone employé. He referred to Tony as "Dago," the name applied to him by employés of the Pinkert State bank, where, the government alleges, the money collected for beer was deposited in Capone's accounts.

Shown the $385 check, Hak was asked by Assistant United States Attorney Dwight H. Green what it represented.

"Well, chickens," said Hak.

"There must have been some beer," Mr. Green remarked.

"Well, maybe," said Hak.

"He asked you whether it was for beer," interposed Judge Wilkerson, whereupon Hak replied it was.

Bohumil and Miles J. Hak, his brother, identified checks for $660, $550, $550, $440, $385, $165, and $650, which, they testified, were collected either by "Dago" or by one of the twenty other runners who called at their establishment. The checks showed that from July 1 to July 23, 1928, forty barrels of beer were bought at $55 a barrel.

The government brought out this testimony in an effort to show that Capone's claim that he was insolvent, made when the government started action to collect back income taxes it contends are due, is false.

Ralph Capone took time out at the trial yesterday to express sympathy for his young brother, Albert [Bottles], sentenced at Miami Beach, Fla., to 30 days at hard labor and a fine of $1,000 for vagrancy.

Albert, according to dispatches, posted a bond to appeal.

2 HELD IN RAID BY MRS. OBERTA GET TRIAL TODAY

Percy Baulsir, 6250 North Talman avenue, and a young woman who told police her name was Muriel Kline, 24 years old, of 908 Crescent place, will appear before Judge Joseph Schulman in Morals court, 1121 South State street, this morning on charges of disorderly conduct.

A raid against them in an apartment at the Crescent place address was led Tuesday night by Mrs. Florence Murphy Oberta and her sister, Mrs. Annie Baulsir, wife of Percy. Mrs. Oberta is the widow of John [Dingbat] Oberta and also of "Big Tim" Murphy, both slain gang chieftains.

Mrs. Oberta accompanied her sister to the Morals court yesterday when the case was continued until today. She and her sister have been living at the Talman avenue address and conducting the floral shop at 1725 West 47th street which was nominally the business of Oberta before his death.

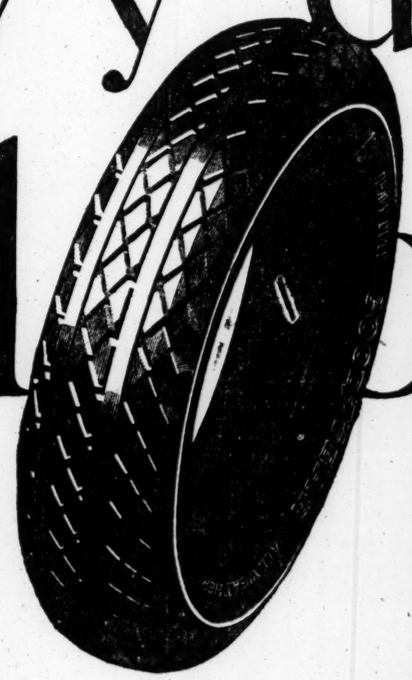
Goodyear offers a new heavy duty Balloon



A BEAU BRUMMELL for Looks

A HUSKY for Wear!

Here's a new tire by Goodyear for the heavy car, the fast driver, the tough and rocky road—for any service that's arduous in the extreme!

It steps apart from other Heavy Duty balloons not only by its greater strength and improved construction, but also by its strikingly handsome appearance.

It's a big, stout, massively proportioned tire, armored with an extra-thick and extra-safe All-Weather Tread, and around its sleek black side-wall runs a single identifying stripe of silver.

New and original is the way in which the outer rows of All-Weather blocks are faceted down into the side-wall, a touch as smart as anything in modern sculpture.

You may be willing to pay a little more for a tire which gives you extra immunity against puncture, extra protection against blowout, extra mileage even in hard continuous service.

If you feel that way about it, go see the nearest Goodyear Dealer, and have him change over your car's tire equipment to these new Goodyear Heavy Duty balloons today!

GOODYEAR
THE GREATEST NAME IN RUBBER

Goodyear can give you greater tire values because Goodyear builds more than 1/4 of all the tires sold in America, the remainder being divided among some forty manufacturers. "More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind."

THE GOVERNOR'S TAX PROGRAM.

Gov. Emmerson favors amendment of the state constitution to permit a wider distribution of the tax burden. He argues that only 10 per cent of the income received in Illinois is derived from real estate, but real estate pays 90 per cent of the tax. He believes that the inequality will persist as long as the constitution requires that all wealth be taxed at the same rate regardless of the nature of the property assessed. With this analysis of the situation we are in substantial agreement, but the governor should have carried his analysis a step farther. If he had, he must have qualified his recommendations considerably.

Chicago today pays a disproportionate share of the cost of the state government. So do the other cities in the state. This generalization holds true in regard to the real estate taxes. It is even more marked in the division of the gasoline taxes and automobile license fees. Chicago's contribution to the state treasury in corporation taxes is, of course, overwhelming. The governor now plainly foreshadows an income tax which will be felt scarcely at all by the rural population, but which will be paid almost in its entirety by wage earners, the salaried classes and other city dwellers. Farmers, with very few exceptions, do not pay income taxes, as the federal returns plainly show. That is why the Illinois Agricultural association has been campaigning for years for an income tax in Illinois. The association sees in the income tax the certainty of saddling a still greater proportion of the state's costs upon Chicago and the other cities of the state.

If Chicago were paying less than its share at present, the proposal might be regarded with equanimity. But Chicago is already paying more than its share and is threatened now with a further disproportion. Representatives of the cities and city voters would be insane if they accepted any such proposal. The cities, and notably Chicago, have been denied the share of representation in the legislature to which the state constitution and the census returns entitle them. The city dwellers are now asked to intrust to a legislature gerrymandered against the cities the task of devising a new system of taxation which must bear even more heavily against the cities. No more outrageous violation of the principle of no taxation without representation has been proposed since the colonists revolted against British tyranny.

We do not suggest that Gov. Emmerson favors the misuse of the power to tax, but we cannot blind ourselves to the probabilities should his powers pass to another Small. Under Small Cook county paid for half the roads built in the state, but Cook county received only a twentieth of the roads, though its needs were greatest. In 1927, the last year for which returns are available, Cook county paid 54 per cent of the general property taxes received by the state treasury and received much less than 54 per cent of the benefits. The northern third of Illinois paid in 1929 $210,000,000 in federal income taxes, personal and corporate, while the rest of the state paid only $7,000,000. The metropolitan area alone contributed well over 90 per cent of the income tax payments. Illinois still remembers vividly that the political support of whole counties downstate was bought and paid for with road funds taken from Cook county. Unfair as that was, it was not as unfair as the misuse of the income tax might be, for Cook county provided only 50 per cent of the road funds; but Cook county will pay 90 per cent of the income taxes.

We have said that the representatives of the cities would be insane to approve a constitutional amendment governing taxes at least until a reapportionment of the legislature is carried out. Certainly there is nothing in the record of attempts to amend the taxation clause which suggests that the voters of Cook county will suddenly lose their minds. A proposed new constitution of the state was defeated in a referendum largely because of the prevailing injustice to Cook county. Since then an amendment along the lines now suggested by Gov. Emmerson was defeated by the voters for the same reason. We predict a repetition of these results as long as those who must pay the taxes have no fair voice in determining what the taxes shall be.

A PASTOR AND HIS FLOCK.

A Baltimore minister is reported to have expressed the opinion in a Lenten sermon that "there is no more justification for being a chaplain in the army or navy than there is for being a chaplain in a speakeasy."

The speaker is employed by a congregation of individuals presumably of sound and responsible minds. He is their pastor, that is, their religious and, we suppose, their moral shepherd. By their appointment and with their financial and moral support he addresses them regularly to enlighten their consciences and inspire them to worthy living. We wonder not so much at the pastor as at the flock. We are made aware from time to time of individuals in the pulpit who are neither morally nor mentally fit to be there. A mind that finds similarity between a speakeasy and the service of a nation's defense has lost, if it ever possessed, either mental or moral discrimination. But how is an individual of such mentality selected for a guide by an American congregation? The reverend is easily classifiable. Are all his congregation in the same category?

We don't think they are. More probably they are amiable individuals averse to the trouble of thinking, who like to listen to sentimental humanitarianism and enjoy inexpensively the sense of their own virtue. The laity of the Protestant churches in America submit to a good deal of preaching which they do not dream of using as a guide of action in their own affairs and to a great deal of moral highfalutin in regard to political policies, especially in foreign relations, which they are too indolent to test by their own common sense and experience in human affairs. Pacifism and radicalism among American preachers and pedagogues, in the colleges, schools, and church or clerical organizations need more attention than they get.

COLLEGE MERGERS.

Knox and Lombard, old and respected colleges in Galesburg, Ill., will merge, and their hitherto divided efforts to get good students and good teachers and to raise funds and buildings for administering to their needs will be joined intelligently in one small college project. By pooling resources they will find, no doubt, that two colleges can live almost as cheaply as one. Their joint strength will be much greater than the sum of the separate two.

The strong small college is a persistent need in educational America that the growth of the great universities never will overcome. As the great schools move towards the specialties and professions, towards extensive laboratories and bureaus, towards research divisions and graduate departments, their colleges of liberal arts usually decline in value, if not in size, and the students handled there by massed and mechanistic methods lose the cultural interests that the liberal arts should give. In the mechanism of classes, grades, credits and degrees they lose the generous enthusiasm of youth. Their standards are externalized. They become time servers or grade hunters, and the meaning of the liberal arts is smothered in the rumble of the educational machinery.

The small college or its equivalent remains the most successful way to institutionalize the liberal arts. Though the weak small college with its backward, overworked faculties, its dogmatic precepts, its low educational standards, is anything but a cultural asset in America, the strong small college is leading the way to a modern point of view in liberal training. Rollins college in Florida is an example. Williams, Amherst, Oberlin, Grinnell, Beloit, Knox, and others may well become the foci in America of the true liberal arts. The strong small college may be created here by merger, or in other cases by administrative subdivision of a larger school, or by persistent loyalty, in others, to the small college standard of size and individual quality. The small college of high grade deserves public support.

EVANSTON EVOLVES.

Sin and Chicago have advanced a step northward, and in Evanston movies will show on Sunday. Along the elm lined avenues north of Davis street the small white ribbons still are flying. "No" stands on terse placards in the windows, and the evidence of moral fervor and Sabbath day serenity still remains. The Evanston that was bravely battled for the right and for Frances Willard against the Evanston that will be. Evanston's tomorrow won.

It seems that "yes" prevailed. Joy reigns south of Dempster, while northward there is bitterness. Wickedness and the wish for urban comforts and amusements on Sunday have their tardy triumph. With fifty-six majority against her, after a stubborn recount, the old Evanston retired and, battered but unbowed, she will glower and gloom upon the great city creeping upon her. She will take her losses sorely, but give way.

Slowly the tide has come. Smaller and smaller was the margin that withheld it. Now it has trickled over. The breach will soon be made.

The old folks with their homes give way to young folks with apartments. The zoning laws wear slowly down by attrition and increased land values, now here, now there. South Evanston already is but the north end of Rogers Park, and the north town soon will go the way that nature and the boosters take it. The old town of quiet streets and shaded lawns, where the family walked to church on Sunday, the old town of bells and quaint serenities, gives way to builders, sky signs, and tall buildings. The flicker of the movies on the Sabbath day is the new restlessness. Evanston evolves.

ARLISS ON THE TALKIES.

[Providence, R. I., Bulletin.]

George Arliss says about the most encouraging thing yet concerning the fate of the legitimate theater—flesh and blood drama, which everybody professes to love and comparatively few go to see.

Sound pictures will not, in his estimation, be the death of real plays for the very good reason that the pictures must present plays, chiefly, which have withstood the audience test. Legitimate drama, in other words.

Mr. Arliss speaks from forty years' experience. He knows that the ultimate judge—and nine times out of ten the best judge—of a play is the audience. He knows, too, what subtle influence the watchers out front exercise upon actors. Stimulate them, depress them, correct them. The same immediacy makes oratory more convincing than the written word. Look at the Congressional Record!

An audience brings about changes in the structure and mood of the play itself. That is why so many shows are "made on the road." The play doctor—not the anxious gentlemen counting the house from some point of vantage—but the play doctor sits among the crowd with finger of one hand on its pulse, finger of the other on the play's. He prescribes accordingly.

Among the accepted mysteries which the cynics have not yet succeeded in destroying is the one that no producer, no matter how experienced, can truthfully predict a play's fate. Which is one of the reasons that make a first night, or better yet, a second night, audience such a respected institution in their eyes. Well, you begin to see how necessary an audience is in the formative period of a play's life.

Obviously a mere talkie, conceived and produced in the studio, can never be thus tried by fire. The critical test comes too late. Far better to draw upon Mr. Arliss' "classics." A list of successful sound pictures bears out his statements. And by the same token, Shakespeare will eventually take his rightful place in the talkies. We have Mr. Arliss' word for that, too.

WORK IN CEMENT PLANT.

Working in a cement plant cannot be regarded as healthful. However, there has been a tendency in recent years to think it more wholesome than was once the general opinion.

The trade is about the last word in dustiness and the public has come to think of dustiness in terms of consumption, pneumonia, of deaths and ill health. Some part of the change in public opinion is due to improvements in the process of cement making but much of it is due to propaganda setting forth that lime dusts are harmless and therefore cement dusts have a record that is not as black as it has been painted.

Drs. Thompson and Brundage of the U. S. public health service have recently published a second report on their studies of this industry. They have found that a heavy labor turnover makes the sickness rates of employés of the cement industry somewhat deceptive. It seems that a large part of the men who work in cement factories quit before they have reached ordinary employment pension requirements. When these men are located and their health inquired into, it is found that a considerable proportion are sick. They seem especially prone to lung troubles, which are charged against dusty air.

When the sickness in this group is added to the sickness among those who stay on the job, it is plain that working in a cement mill is not a good job. It seems to cause a high sickness rate, a high respiratory disease rate especially. It seems that men who do not stand dust well are prone to quit. Those who are left behind are pretty good dust eaters. They keep fairly healthy during the first eight years of their employment. After eight years of working around the mill the dust seems to get even the hardy dust hogs.

Not all the work around a cement plant carries the same sickness rate. The men who work outside have a higher absentee rate than those who work inside. The men who work around limestone have a higher rate than those who work in other dusts. It is no more safe to generalize as to sickness rates among cement workers than it is to do so in other directions. There are jobs around cement plants that are not very dusty and in which there is not much hazard to health. No part of the work is harmful in the sense that sand blasting, granite cutting, or metal polishing is.

IS SOURCE OF DANGER.

A. M. writes: My sister was away for a few months, a victim of lung trouble. She is home now and still coughs and spits. I would like to know if I could contract it. I am subject to colds and am worrying quite a bit.

REPLY.

If your sister has tuberculosis and coughs and spits she is a source of danger. If she is careless the danger is great. If careful, it is slight.

TREATING DEMENTIA PRECOX.

Miss R. writes:

1. Is dementia precox curable?
2. How can I learn how to train such a person to lead a useful life?
3. Where can I get any books telling how to train such a person?

REPLY.

1. In many cases it is curable in the sense that a person of that class may be trained to live comfortably at home and be a useful citizen.
2. You must learn that from your own physician or from experience in an institution.
3. I do not know of any books which give methods.

TRIPP AVENUE GAS MAINS.

Chicago, April 11.—[Friend of the People.]—When will South Tripp avenue from west 63rd street south be paved? Curbing was put in last year. Are there any gas mains in Tripp avenue between 63d and 64th streets? If not, will they be put in before paving?

P. H. B.

The city of Chicago cannot compel the gas company to lay mains or install service prior to pavementing. If sufficient revenue is in sight or the property owners will deposit funds to cover the cost of extension with the gas company, the latter will install the mains.

Detailed information on the above may be secured from the distribution department of the Peoples Gas Light and Coke company, 122 South Michigan avenue.

JOHN B. HITTELL,
Chief Engineer of Streets.

MAY RAISE RENT.

Chicago, April 13.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—I have a tenant who has no lease. Can I raise his rent? J. M.

A tenancy is "by the month" if expressly so agreed, or if the rent is payable monthly and there is no valid agreement for a longer term. Since an oral agreement for a year to commence in the future is invalid under the statute of frauds, the tenancy under such an agreement is ordinarily by the month.

The Illinois statute provides: "In all cases of tenancy by the month, or for any other term less than one year, where the tenant holds over without special agreement, the landlord shall have the right to terminate the tenancy by thirty days' notice in writing." In 10 Ill. App. 626 it was held that "this section has no reference to the right of the tenant to terminate." Hence, the common law oral notice by the tenant is probably sufficient, but we advise written notice in all cases. The notice does not relieve the tenant of his obligation to pay rent to the end of his tenancy. There is no legal obligation to assign a reason for the notice. The right to increase the rent is incidental to the right to terminate.

TRIBUNE LAW DEPARTMENT.

MUST RESIDE 6 MONTHS IN COUNTY.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 10—[Friend of the People.]—How long must a person reside in the state of Illinois before applying for final citizenship papers? First papers were taken out in Milwaukee five years ago.

D. L.

According to the naturalization law effective July 1st, 1929, an alien must have resided at least six months continuously in the county in which he intends to file his petition for naturalization next preceding the date of the petition and in the United States five years at least continuously next preceding the date of the petition.

District Director of Naturalization.

HOW MUCH IS A HUNDRED TRILLION? LISSEN!

Prof. Trumpler of the Uni. of California tells us that it would take a ray of light one hundred trillion years to travel from one end of the cosmos to the other. And as a traveler light is no slouch either, doing 186,000 miles a second with its hands tied behind it and both legs in a sack. To make us understand just how wide the cosmos is the prof. says to multiply 186,000 by 60, and the answer by 60, and that answer by 24, and that by 65, and that by 100 trillion, and we'd have the rough idea. Oh, prof., we can give the boys and girls the rough idea quicker'n that. Listen, pupils, you know how long it takes to get a postoffice in Chicago? Well, multiply that by the time it takes to get a subway in Chicago. Take the answer to that and multiply it by the time it takes for the national prohibition law to prohibit. That'll be a hundred trillion. Easy.

HOPE.

I built myself a snowman
Of all my yesterdays.
I hoped that he would melt
In tomorrow's sunny rays.

I gave him blues for nose
And sorrow for his eyes.
A mouth I made of lonely days.
His chin was weak with sighs.

So many yesterdays I had
To build him big and strong,
That I was quite afraid
He'd be too wide and long.

I felt so sorry for him
Looking so glum and fat.
But I hadn't in all my past
A jaunty silk top hat.

Tomorrow will come, I said,
And melt him all away.
Tomorrow came and I
Am looking at him today.

KEEPER OF THE STARS.

HOORAY for the new tariff! Mr. Grundy has let 'em reduce the tax on fur hats and unset diamonds and pearls. It's been hiked up on about everything else, but gosh! Anyhow, we can get fur hats and unset diamonds and pearls a lot cheaper. This is going to be grand news to the unemployed.

AND DON'T FORGET YOUR RED FLANNEL UNAWARES!

A prosperity return item which the prosperity return writers have overlooked is that all our very best people are terribly excited over Easter next Sunday and are planning to parade the Gold Coast in the smartest clothes that have been seen for years. Oh, my dear, they're going to wear bolero dresses and glorified duds with the "lingerie touch," whatever that is. And flowers of starched linen or pique silk, and white violets or orchid blooms! Oh, la, la, la; and hats large and floppy with velvet bows or organdie rosettes on one side! My word, it all certainly sounds as though the parade is going to be swell. But, dearies, the way things look now you had best get ready some of the latest Paris style raincoats and rubber boots and the newest thing in umbrellas. Also, you might need the newest shades in canoes and pretty little rafts with orchids trimmed around the edges. And bathing suits! Oh, do not forget your bathing suits.

OLD DOC EVANS is pretty subtle, he is. Yesterday he comes to bat with a cure for cold feet. He says the thing to do is to soak the hoofs in a weak tea of cayenne pepper. Well, those who are scared stiff by the way grand old Illinoy spoke right out in meetin' in regard to joining the World Court can try it. It may help.

Oh, Well, It Means About the Same Thing.

[From the Daily Freeman-Journal, Webster City, Ia.]

CORRECTION.

The Daily Freeman-Journal wishes to correct an error in yesterday's issue pertaining to the Fifth ward P. T. A. meeting. The title of one of the two songs sung by Mrs. E. W. Garth and Dave Thompson should have read "Just a Wearying for You" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, not "Just a Rarin' for You."

SEATED in the cockpit of our alma mater automobile t'other day and receiving a fine bawling out for not putting the clutch in when we shifted gears from the professor of driveology, who should pass in his classy motor but Ashton Stevens in fashionable Piccadilly clothes and presumably white spats lolling on the rear seat while Mrs. Stevens drove the car. We were surprised that Ashton was not playing his banjo, but he probably will. Bah! When we appear with our auto on the Boul, Mich. we'll be driving the damn thing ourself. (He said hopefully.)

WARNING.

You have found my attitudes are hard to reconcile?
Still, I'd rather have your frown, dear, than any other's smile.

Of all your other virtues
your fortune is the least?
But I'd rather have your crumbs, dear, than any other's feast.

But dare to say my verses lack a well-turned phrase,
And you'll certainly regret it all of your remaining days.

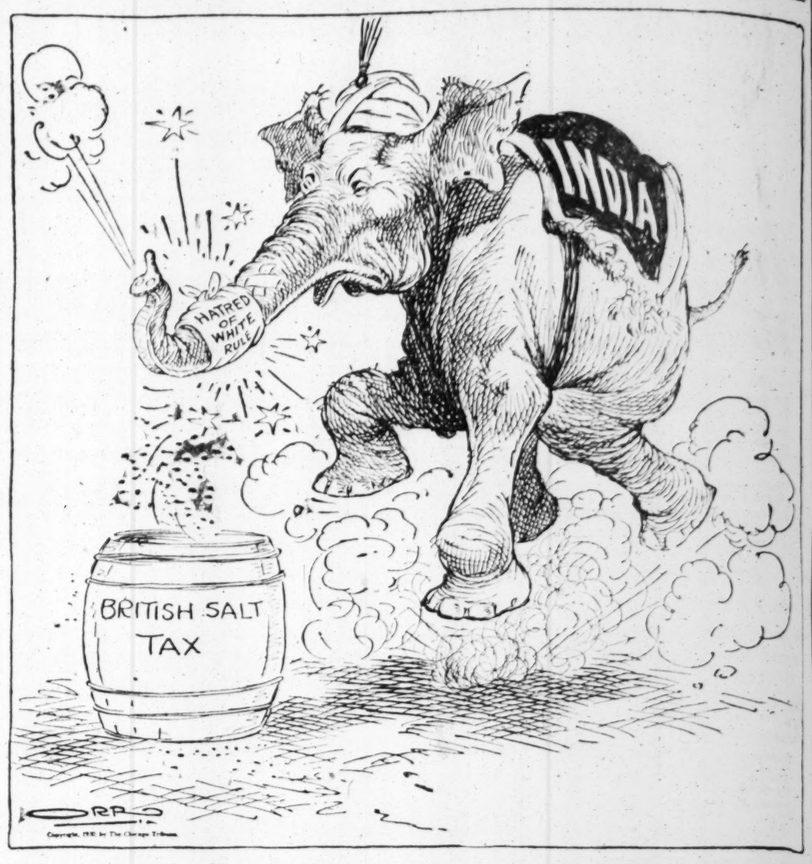
SALT IN THE WOUND



FROM THE TRIBUNE'S COLUMNS

65 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 17, 1865.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—It is now the general impression that the murderer Booth and his accomplices have escaped into Virginia. Many reports have been received of the capture of Booth but none are authenticated.

NEW YORK.—The Times special says: "Secretary Seward will recover. Frederick Seward is still unconscious."

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The funeral ceremonies for the late President will take place Wednesday the 19th at the executive mansion. The body will be placed temporarily in the vault of the Congressional cemetery and thereafter taken to Mr. Lincoln's home at Springfield. Services will commence at noon, at which hour throughout the whole land the various religious sects have been requested to assemble in their respective places of worship and prayer. The body of the President will be laid out in state on Tuesday in the east room of the White House to give the public an opportunity to see once more the features of him they loved so well.

NEW YORK.—The Herald's Washington special sends details of the President's last hours. He died at 7:22 o'clock. Mrs. Lincoln took her last leave of him about twenty minutes before and was sitting in an adjoining room when his death was announced to her. She exclaimed, "O, why did you not tell me he was dying?" The surgeons and members of the cabinet, Senator Sumner, Capt. Robert Lincoln, Gen. Todd, Mr. Field, and Mr. Andrews were standing at his bedside when he breathed his last.

EDITORIAL.—The nation mourns. Its agony is great. Its grief is dumb. Never before have the American people been so stricken. The ball that pierced the President has pierced the hearts of us all. President Lincoln—whose life was covered with glory by his faithfulness to his country—has ascended to his God. Pale in death, murdered by the hellish spirit of Slavery, which has already drunk the heart's blood of so many whom we loved, his body lies at the nation's capital—a new sacrifice upon our country's altar. All the land weeps. For we love none as we loved him.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 17, 1900.

CHICAGO.—The American Sheet and Wire company closed twelve of its mills as a coincidence with a sensational drop in its stock—a drop that may prove disastrous to many investors. The net loss to the preferred was 4¼ points and to the common 7½ points. The closing of the mills throws 4,000 men out of employment. John W. Gates, chairman of the company, said the shutdown is due to overproduction.

PARIS.—Mme. Melba is here and has admitted that she will marry Haddon Chambers, the Australian playwright, within two weeks.

CHICAGO.—Mayor Harrison apologized to Duke D'Arcos, the Spanish minister to the United States, for inviting him to attend the Dewey day celebration in Chicago.

10 YEARS AGO TODAY

APRIL 17, 1920.

CHICAGO.—The nifty overall suit which promises to kick the props from under old H. C. L. dropped in on Chicago. Billy B. Rose of New York City, who wore one of the jean outfits in Michigan boulevard, was stopped every few steps and surveyed with interested eyes. Boul. Mich. liked it. Atop his head was a $15 hat. From his gingham breast pocket peeped a $2 silk handkerchief. A $20 silk shirt added to the class. News of the overall craze from all parts of the country will be found on page 3. Both men and women are wearing them.

BALTIMORE, Md.—Theodore Newton Vail, chairman of the board of directors of the American Telephone and Telegraph company, died at Johns Hopkins hospital of a complication of cardiac and kidney troubles. He was 74 years old and a pioneer in the telephone industry.

CHICAGO.—The majority of the trustees of the sanitary district in a stormy session ousted Charles H. Sergel as president and elected Trustee William J. Healy to succeed him. Sergel refused to surrender the position.

IN MEMORIAM.

Macomb, Ill., April 14.—It may not be amiss at this time to relate a heroic incident in the life of Ralph Skelton, the lost artist-aviator. In the spring of 1917 he was a student in the Western Illinois State Teachers college in Macomb. On the April morning that the congress of the United States declared war against Germany four small children of Dr. and Mrs. Mosher wandered over on the college campus and attempted to cross the dam that holds back the water in Lake Ruth. The three older children succeeded in getting across, but the fourth, a little girl about two and one-half years old, fell into the lake. The child had on heavy winter clothing, and the flannel skirts, spreading out, formed a buoy which held her up so that she sat floating upon the water. The screams of her brother and sisters were heard by painters working on a neighboring residence. They dropped their brushes and ran to the rescue. The first to arrive plunged in, but was seized with cramps and begged to be taken out without rescuing the child. Ralph English, the second painter to arrive, succeeded in getting him out and then plunged in to rescue the little girl. He sank in twelve or fifteen feet of water and did not rise. A third painter, a Mr. Miller, an old man of sixty-five years, swam in some fifteen or twenty feet, got the child, and brought her to the shore, but young English was on the bottom of the lake. The news reached the college and soon scores of students were on the banks of the lake. Ralph Skelton made his way through the crowd, plunged in, and brought up the lifeless body of young English.

When young Skelton returned to college he learned of the declaration of war and immediately enlisted in the United States navy. Of the two hundred and fifty or more stars on the honor flag of the college in memory of those who served in the world war the first star is in honor of Ralph Fisher Skelton. He served during the war on a convoy between New York and London and after the war was one of the marines sent to take possession of the Virgin islands.

METTERNICH'S WORDS.

Chicago, April 11.—The best arguments against any foreign entanglements on the part of the United States come, I believe, from the lips of Metternich, the clearest thinker of the restoration era and probably the greatest statesman of the nineteenth century. This man would today represent a typical European diplomat—and he argues against our entering any European congresses or alliances. He says:

"In great part the principles recognized and approved by the European powers are not merely foreign, but opposed to the principles of the United States, to the form of their government, to their doctrines, to their customs, to the civil and political régime of their populations. There can exist amicable relations between the powers of Europe; treaties, engagements of every sort may be negotiated with them, but no common basis exists on which the United States could take part in a European congress."

ROBERT WECLEW.

LAWYERS IN INDIANA.

South Bend, Ind., April 6.—The Indiana constitution provides: "Any citizen of good moral character may be admitted to practice law." This provision was sponsored by Benjamin Harrison and Thomas A. Hendricks, one Republican and the other Democrat, one later President and the other Vice President of the U. S. One does not have to be educated to practice law in Indiana. Nevertheless, in ability and worth the bar of Indiana is at least the equal of that of any other state.

Character and not education makes men trustworthy. Education makes dishonesty efficient. In Indiana any person of ambition may in leisure hours study law and while doing so support himself in work in shop, office, store, or farm work and many of the very best Indiana lawyers have so done.

Attempt is now being made to amend this constitutional provision, to permit the legislature to enact what conditions must be fulfilled to permit one's admission to practice. Such attempts have been before made, but on submission to the people have failed. The purpose of those who desire a change is to provide none but graduates of colleges may be admitted. This would prevent young men of no means entering the bar. And that is desired by a majority of Indiana lawyers, for such majority believe such restriction would, by lessening the number of lawyers, give the ins more money and more business, which would not be the case because it is only after a lawyer has demonstrated ability in small things that he is trusted with bigger, and the lawyers who have real worth are over busy, while the others will never be busy. If, because he will not work, a young man does not qualify himself to care for law business his failure only hurts himself, but if he is studious and ambitious his poverty and consequent inability to gain a college education should not be permitted to keep him from improving himself.

ELMER WISE.

COURTESY.

Chicago, April 13.—During the severe weather we had the latter part of March, I, too, called the board of education but I only asked if Calumet High was open, or could they give me the phone number to find out. I received this answer, "Go over and find out," and up went the receiver. Some time before I called and wanted to know the Altgeld school number, where my youngster attends. They asked me how far the school was. I said four blocks. Their answer was, "Walk over," and up went the receiver. When I think my husband paid enough taxes to have paid the year's salary for this same person it more than burns me up.

MRS. JOSEPH F. ZIEHRER.

THE COST OF GETTING A JOB.

Chicago, April 9.—I am wondering if it is generally known that thousands of men are hindered from working because they are obliged to pay a cash sum for their jobs. The prices vary from $3 to $7.50. The railroads make these charges and every employment agency demands money before the unemployed can secure work. This is an absolute hindrance to men who are penniless. I speak for thousands of men who are waiting eagerly for any kind of a job, but are stopped by these charges.

CHICAGO PARTY SEES BENEFITS OF WATERWAYS

Good Will Tourists Visit Texas Refineries.

BY PERCY WOOD.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Beaumont, Tex., April 16. — [Special.]—Waterways and oil or oil and waterways; there is no precedence; these developments were flung at the heads of the Chicago good will emissaries today, as the thirty-four business men made the first Texas stop of their two weeks' itinerary.

Arriving early from Shreveport, the delegation was treated to a day of sightseeing, was dined twice, and finally delivered back to its special train—"reluctantly," said the citizens—for the run to Houston. Hot Springs, Little Rock, and Shreveport already have welcomed the party; there remain visits to six Texas cities and stops in Oklahoma, Kansas, and Missouri before the return home April 27.

Becomes Port of Call.

What Chicago has only dreamed of as the culmination of the Mississippi river waterway system is already partly Beaumont's. Completion of the 30 mile Port Arthur-Beaumont ship channel to the Gulf of Mexico in 1915 made this city of 70,000 a port of call for foreign vessels. In the harbor today the good will party boarded a Japanese freighter from Yokohama; a Britisher from Liverpool; a West Indian freighter; and a Norwegian tramp steamer.

"When the intra-costal canal is completed and skirts the Texas coast from Corpus Christi to New Orleans," Lachlan Macleay, secretary of the Mississippi Valley association and a member of the Chicago party, told the Beaumont Chamber of Commerce tonight, "the low water rates to Chicago will furnish a most desirable means of transporting your heavy freight.

Many Products to Move.

"Texas cotton, sulphur, oil, sugar rice, and lumber will move to the northern markets, while iron and steel, farm machinery, and northern grains will come to the southwest for domestic use and to the gulf for export."

The canal will link Beaumont with the Mississippi river by a barge line, and at noon today President Charles Walden of the Chamber of Commerce announced that Beaumont's exhibit to Chicago's Century of Progress exposition in 1933 will be shipped there by barge.

This morning the tour group visited Spindle Top oil fields, adjoining Beaumont, where 40,000 barrels of oil are drawn daily from wells that reach to a depth of from 5,000 to 6,700 feet.

World's Largest Refineries.

Spindletop is an important unit in the oil industry of Jefferson county. At Port Arthur, 26 miles away, are located the two largest refineries in the world, owned by the Gulf Refining company and the Texas Refining company, which refine a bulk of the 300,000 barrels that are reduced to products daily throughout the county.

Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, told the Texans tonight that Chicago's crime is vastly overestimated by reasons of its sensational nature.

Similarly, City Treasurer Peterson explained the reasons for Chicago's financial difficulties, and gave comparative figures to show that the capital of the mid-west is sounder than a majority of American cities.

RAIL PROPERTY VALUE IN COUNTY IS CUT $8,508,799

Reviewers Will Finish Job in a Week.

The tax valuation of Cook county railroad property, as fixed by the state tax commission, dropped $8,508,799 in 1928, compared with that of 1927. The 1928 valuation is $223,613,602, while in 1927 it was $232,122,401. The value of rolling stock in 1928 is set at $202,207,671, as compared to $201,824,454 in 1927. These figures were released yesterday by County Clerk Robert M. Sweitzer as the board of review announced that it would complete its work on the reassessment by next Wednesday.

Board to Finish Early.

The board will finish its work a week ahead of the promised date of May 1. This will enable the county clerk to gain a week and insure the issuance of tax bills by June 1 and possibly by May 15. The $75,000,000 fund raised by the Strawn citizens' committee will be exhausted on July 1, and if the tax bills are mailed 30 days or more before this date the tax money may be distributed to the tax spending bodies before all of the Strawn funds have been used. The board of review saved a week by denying hearings on the 35,000 complaints in country townships.

Charles V. Barrett, member of the board of review, declared that a hearing of the 35,000 country town complaints would prolong the reassessment by at least five months. He said taxpayers might find relief in the courts.

Promise of Adjustments.

"If we had received the books on time we might have afforded all a hearing," he said. "It is unfortunate that some should be denied redress. However, I have secured the promise of the reassessment staff that adjustments will be made in the country towns in the 1929 assessment where they are warranted."

CHICAGOAN BACK FROM SEA TRIP IN SMALL YACHT

Joseph M. Rummler, 23 years old, one of four Cornell graduates who embarked for Greece last July in a 46 foot auxiliary ketch Carlsark, will return home tomorrow. He and his companions, Carl I. Weagant, Douglastown, N. Y., and Dudley M. Schoales, Cleveland, toured Europe after crossing the ocean, and made their return trip in the same small craft.

Word of the adventurers' safe arrival at West Palm Beach was received yesterday by Joseph's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rummler, 9247 South Winchester street. The party landed in Spain on Aug. 25 after battling storms from the Azores, where H. M. Devereux, fourth member, left the boat and returned to the United States because of a death in his family.

FLYER AND WIFE KILLED IN CRASH OF PLANE IN FOG

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lacey Die in Kansas.

Hays, Kas., April 16.—(AP)—A young pilot and his wife, flying in heavy fog, lost their lives today in the crash of an airplane nine miles southwest of here. Two passengers were injured, one seriously.

The dead are A. J. (Steve) Lacey, 21, of Wichita, well known exhibition flyer and test pilot for the Cessna Aircraft company and Mrs. Lacey, 20.

Russell Guild, 22, son of a Holyoke, Colo., motion picture theater owner, suffered serious internal injuries, and Dr. H. C. Hill, also of Holyoke, escaped with a broken nose and several fractured ribs.

The party was bound for Holyoke from Wichita. Dr. Hill said Lacey, after flying in dense fog since 20 minutes out of Wichita and being forced to make one landing, apparently lost all sense of direction. Flying "blind," he nosed the ship down instead of up. With its engine racing the plane speeded 3,200 feet and buried itself in a pasture. The engine was found 200 feet from the fuselage.

Lacey was an entrant in last summer's national reliability tour.

Army Student Flyer Killed.

San Antonio, Tex., April 16.—(AP)—Lieut. Stanley H. Ayre, student flyer at Brooks field, was killed today when an airplane he was flying crashed southeast of here. His home was at Monticello, Ill.

The accident occurred near the same point where, a week ago, Lieut. Bert C. Muse, a classmate of Lieut. Ayre at both West Point and Brooks field, was killed. Both were piloting De Haviland planes, the last of which will soon pass from the service.

Seaplane Pilot Killed.

Port Washington, N. Y., April 16.—(AP)—Peter Talbot, 40, of Pensacola, Fla., was killed today when a seaplane he was demonstrating dived into Manhasset bay. His body was recovered some time later. Talbot was putting the ship through a series of stunts about 2,000 feet in the air when it suddenly went into a dive. The ship plunged straight downward and broke to pieces as it hit the water. Talbot was formerly a navy pilot.

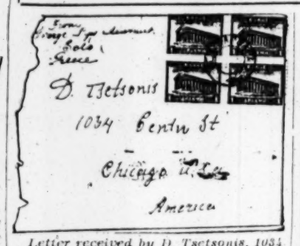
FROM THE RIVER STYX, GREECE



Letter received by D. Tsetsonis, 1034 Center street, Chicago.

The region in Greece from which this letter was sent is near the supposed site of the fabled River Styx. The writer lives at Solos, a village on the slopes of Mount Helmos, not far from Akrata in the division of southern Greece known as Achaea. Mr. Tsetsonis, who is a Greek and whose uncle sent him this letter from his old home town, gives the present day version of the legend of the famous River Styx:

"Solos is famous, as it is near Mount Helmos and the waters of Styx. In Greek mythology the Styx is a mighty river, the tenth part of the water of Oceanus, which flows in the lower world. It is described by Homer and Hesiod as the terrible black water falling from a high precipice and dashing itself upon a lofty rock, through which it passed and then fell into the Crathis.

"The fabled waters of the Styx have been identified by students of antiquity as the two slender cascades falling over a high perpendicular precipice of Mount Helmos, near Solos. After winding among a labyrinth of rocks the water unites to form a mountain torrent which eventually joins the River Akrata (Crathis). Superstitious feelings of dread still attach to the water, which is considered of a peculiarly noxious character."

NEW AIR BASE IS MAPPED OUT FOR NEW YORK

New York, April 16.—[Special.]—New York City is to have a complete airport and seaplane base within 15 minutes of the Canal street end of the Holland tunnel, it was revealed tonight by Clarence D. Chamberlin, technical engineer of the city for areonautics.

The airport is located at Doyer's point, Jersey City, and is now in operation on a small scale, having been started by the veteran trans-Atlantic pilot when he built his Crescent aircraft factory there. The owners of the property elected Chamberlin as the head of a new airport corporation today with the understanding that the field is to be enlarged and placed into commercial operation.

On the eastern shore of Newark bay a seaplane base will be added with ramps to the landing area.

FATHER'S PLANE DOWN IN RACE TO STRICKEN SON

The plane in which O. M. Green of Olympia, Wash., was flying in an air race from Seattle to Chicago to the bedside of his son, Jack, 15 year old student at Culver Military academy, was forced down last night at North Platte, Neb., by bad weather. Mr. Green telegraped Dr. Austin A. Hayden, who is treating the boy, a sufferer with meningitis, that he was coming the rest of the way by train, and would arrive on the Chicago and North Western's Gold Coast limited at 4:30 p. m. today. Mrs. Green is at the bedside of her son in St. Joseph's hospital.

LEGGE PREDICTS WHEAT WAR IF DEBENTURES WIN

Says Other Nations Are Watching U. S.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., April 16.—[Special.]—Chairman Alexander Legge of the federal farm board directed a new attack upon the export debenture plan as a means of solving the wheat problem in a radio address delivered today as part of a program broadcast by the National Farmers' union.

"Some persons think a way should be found so that the world market price would apply only to the surplus production and have the tariff effective on the wheat sold at home," Mr. Legge declared. "To my mind this is impractical."

"At the present time you see the situation of France paying a bounty of twenty cents a bushel on the export of certain grades of wheat, of which they have an excess supply, and Great Britain taking measures to retaliate. A few weeks ago, in parliament, Lloyd George made the statement that if the United States tried to ship wheat to England at a price lower than domestic price levels he would not be satisfied with a duty, but that the remedy should be an embargo prohibiting the importation of any wheat from this country.

Other Nations Eying Us.

"All of the consuming countries of the world are watching us closely. I am satisfied that they would take prompt measures to retaliate in the event exporting was done on a basis which they believe would be unfair to their growers, just as we do in this country under such circumstances."

Defending the board's setup of central marketing associations, Mr. Legge stressed the point that these "are not government agencies, as some critics who cry 'Socialism' would have the country believe, but, instead, are the instrumentalities of the producers, who grow crops, to market these crops to their best advantage.

Crop Reduction Vital.

"Wheat growers are being urged to reduce their acreage ten per cent," he continued. "The purpose is to get production more nearly in line with domestic market requirements, so that the 42 cent tariff can be made more effective. The board feels that there is no other sure way for the farmer to receive the protection congress voted on wheat."

Yankees Thanked by Greek Senate for Refugee Work

ATHENS, Greece, April 16.—(AP)—The senate today approved a convention winding up the work of the Greek refugees settlement commission at the end of 1930. The senate expressed gratitude to the three American presidents of the commission—former Ambassador Henry Morgenthau, Charles P. Howland of New York, and Charles B. Eddy of Plainfield, N. J.

British Told Russia Now Owes Them Over 4 Billion

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, April 16.—The repudiated debt of the imperial Russian government to Great Britain amounts to $4,678,308,900, according to Hugh Dalton, under secretary of foreign affairs, answering a question in the house of commons today. In addition there are about 50,000 private claims amounting to a total of $121,500,000.

THREE GUNMEN ROB WOMAN.

Mrs. W. H. McPherson of Joliet was robbed last night by three gunmen who forced her to throw her purse, containing $20, and her fur coat into the car in which they were riding. She was walking from the elevated to the home of her brother-in-law, James Ray, 630 Lyman avenue, Oak Park, when stopped by the robbers.

ACCUSE 2 OF KILLING 2 NEGROES IN FRAMEUP FOR BANDIT REWARD

Fort Worth, Tex., April 16.—(AP)—John Alsup, a former policeman, and A. P. Boyt, a barber, late today were charged with the murder of two Negroes who attempted to rob the First State Bank of Polytechnic, a suburb, recently. Police Chief Henry Lee, who signed the complaint, charged that there was a frameup, for the Negroes to be slain so the $5,000 standing reward offered by the Texas Bankers' association for each "dead bank bandit" could be collected.

The pair was charged with the slaying of Will Tate and George Terrell. Alsup, Chief Lee charged, shot the Negroes as they fled from the bank. Boyt did not participate in the shooting.

Officials of the Bankers' association announced after the shooting that the bank had never contributed to the reward fund, and for that reason no reward could be paid by the association.

POLICE FORCE WEARS SLICKERS AT INSPECTION

Slickers protected uniforms from the drizzle yesterday as 2,507 members of the police force assembled in Grant park south of Monroe street for the annual inspection of uniform and equipment by First Deputy Commissioner Alcock. The remainder of the force, with the exception of men in citizen's dress who have been excused from inspection, will be reviewed next week at a date to be set later.

The men appeared in two groups, one at 10 a. m. and the other at 1 p. m. They wore the uniform prescribed for spring and fall, which consists of the short coat, single breasted, with a turn down collar. Their belts, holsters, revolvers, and night sticks underwent the same inspection as the uniforms.

WOMEN FIGHT MOVE TO FREE CO-ED ATTACKERS

The law enforcement committee of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs yesterday sent a protest to the state parole board against a proposed pardon for Leonard Rich, Stanley Hurt, and Emerson Wilson. The three pleaded guilty to criminally attacking Miss Dorothy Westervelt, their fellow student at the Northwestern Illinois Teachers' college, at De Kalb in 1926. Last January Miss Westervelt appeared before the pardon board at Springfield in opposition to clemency for her attackers.

The board has had the plea for a pardon or commutation before it since January and it was understood that it was to make a decision yesterday. The members declined to discuss their action, however, until their recommendation had been considered by Gov. Emmerson, who was in Chicago. The governor, before leaving for Mount Vernon, last night said he had not received any communication regarding the three youths.

Mrs. Marion H. Biel, 3106 West Washington boulevard, chairman of the committee of women's clubs, said telegrams had been sent to Gov. Emmerson and members of the board when it was learned final action might be taken yesterday.

"We have taken this action as a civic duty," Mrs. Biel said. "We protest their release on account of the bad moral effect it would have. We must protect our young folks against such moron attacks."

She was informed that under the law the three would be eligible for parole after they serve one third of their 13 year sentences, which will be next September, and with time off for good behavior they would be released in seven years and nine months, or three years from next September.

TWO BANDITS ROB FRANKFORT BANK; KIDNAP CASHIER

Two men, believed to be the same pair who robbed the Monee bank a month ago, yesterday held up the Frankfort State bank, at Frankfort, in Will county, eight miles west of Chicago Heights, and, after taking $3,500 from the vault, kidnaped J. A. Luhring, 52 years old, the cashier. They released him from their car a mile north of Frankfort, speeding away toward Chicago.

The bandits entered the bank with their guns drawn. One of them forced Luhring to sit on a chair with his hands on his knees, while the other walked behind the cage to the open vault and gathered up all of the currency, ignoring the silver. William Lankenau, the bank president, was in a washroom at the rear of the bank and heard the bandits, but remained in hiding until they had left.

LIEUT. GOV. CYR CALLS GOV. LONG LIAR, MANIAC

New Orleans, La., April 16.—(AP)—In an open statement, Lieut. Gov. Paul N. Cyr today called Huey P. Long a liar, a destructive monarch, and a raving maniac.

Replying, Gov. Long said: "Cyr is just sore."

"I think he thought I'd go on to the United States senate and let him finish out my term as governor," added the governor. "Now he finds out that I propose finishing my term as governor before going to Washington."

Asked if that meant he would be a candidate in the September primary, the governor said he "was not quite ready to say yet."

The governor and the lieutenant governor broke off relations last year during Gov. Long's impeachment trial. Recently in pre-legislative speeches over the state the governor revived the old scores.

A Confidential Word to Wives

Husbands—being men—are funny creatures. Being men ourselves, we know. They sometimes buy complicated mechanisms, which require highly expert handling, even though simple devices are available. Then they go down town or out of town and leave their wives the responsibility of keeping the complicated machinery at work.

What a woman wants of a furnace is ample, dependable heat and complete forgetfulness of what supplies it.

Women have no desire to play nursemaid to a balky furnace that needs to be fed or coddled two or three times a day.

If a group of women were to write the specifications for the perfect furnace and the ideal fuel and then have it built to their order, the result would be a heating plant that would duplicate the new Bryant MODEL 45 GAS BOILER in performance, cleanliness, absence of furnace tending, and good looks.

WAR ON SMOKE EVIL WINS O. K. OF COMMISSION

Specify Automatic Stokers for Apartments.

The efforts of Frank A. Chambers, chief of the city's smoke abatement forces, to enforce the anti-smoke ordinance were approved yesterday at a meeting of the smoke abatement commission in the office of Health Commissioner Kegel.

The commission, of which Dr. Kegel is chairman, adopted the regulations under which Chambers has been conducting the city's anti-smoke campaign. Among them was a new ruling drafted by Chambers to abate apartment building smoke. Under this ruling the smoke department will not approve plans for buildings of six or more apartments unless automatic stokers or other smokeless equipment is specified for the heating plant.

Nye Representative Objects.

The only objector to the new rule was Gerald Gearon, who represented Boiler Inspector Nye at the meeting. His arguments were answered by Dr. Kegel and the ruling passed by a unanimous vote on the motion of Dr. Elmer Mosely, who represented Commissioner of Police Russell.

The installation of automatic stokers, according to Chambers, offers a satisfactory solution for the problem of abating smoke from the smaller size heating plant. He said it encourages the use of small coal and makes possible the use of local in place of imported coals.

Economy Is Seen.

"It is apparent from statistics covering cost of installation and economies effected," said Chambers, "that the installation of better stokers, smokeless furnaces, and mechanical equipment designed for the smokeless combusion of low priced fuels will result in a direct economy.

"Many of our troublesome smoke cases could be overcome either by reconditioning the existing plants in those buildings or the installation of a new and modern plant."

EDWIN C. WEMPLE, LUMBERMAN, WINS DIVORCE IN NEVADA

Reno, Nev., April 16.—[Special.]—Edwin C. Wemple, New York, Chicago, and Pacific coast lumber man, was granted a divorce here Monday from Sophie Nevin Wemple, to whom he was married in Bordeaux, France, on Aug. 22, 1919, while he was still in the service of the United States army.

Wemple charged lack of affection and attention on the part of his wife. He told of a trip to the Pacific coast from December, 1925, until the next June, and of arrangements for her to establish a home for them in Chicago. On his return, he said, there was no home furnished, and she insisted he live with her parents, which he refused to do. She refused an independent home, he said. He charged that she was jealous and highly temperamental.

List $1,000,000 Assets in John J. Nichols Estate

The inventory of the estate of John J. Nichols, retired lumberman, was filed yesterday before Leon Edelman, assistant to Probate Judge Horner. It lists assets of $1,000,000, chiefly in stock of the First National Bank of Englewood. Mr. Nichols was chairman of the bank's board of directors. He was a founder of the Rittenhouse and Embree Lumber company, and the South Side Lumber company. He died in Pasadena, Cal., on Jan. 14. His will left the most of the estate to his widow, Mrs. Mary O. Nichols, and his son, John M. Nichols, president of the Englewood bank.

TROOPS HOLD ZEP IN LEASH AS KING LOOKS SHIP OVER

SEVILLE, Spain, April 16.—(AP)—The German dirigible Graf Zeppelin, after a stop of one hour at the Tablada air field here, started back for Friedrichshafen at 7 o'clock. During the one hour wait the airship discharged passengers and mail and took on new passengers for the return flight.

A big crowd cheered lustily as the airship rose gracefully, circled the city, and disappeared over the northern horizon. It was believed that the homeward flight would be made northward through Spain and thence into France.

The entire trip is preparatory to the trans-Atlantic flight which will take the airship to South American and then to the United States, starting about the middle of next month.

The Graf flew six times over the airport before it came down smoothly and without incident, aided by skillful work on the part of Capt. Ernest Lehmann, commander of the airship, and the ground crew of Spanish soldiers under the command of Capt. Maldonado. Trucks and other means were employed to bring the dirigible to earth.

As soon as the dirigible touched the ground King Alfonso and other members of the Spanish royal family approached and welcomed the passengers.

A mooring mast for the Zeppelin was begun here, but was not completed in time. As a consequence Spanish troops hauled the airship to earth by means of ropes and patiently held the craft throughout the hour that she tarried here.

Swarms of people witnessed the landing, for Seville is crowded with throngs that have come for Holy week, and additional hundreds arrived to see the airship.

The dirigible left Germany yesterday afternoon, coming by way of southern France and the coast of Portugal. She reached Seville shortly after 1 p. m., but, because of the strong winds, did not land until 5.45, cruising to Cadiz and back in the meantime before being pulled down.

HEINZ RICE FLAKES
H. J. HEINZ COMPANY

Children can't resist this flavor, so they don't resist these benefits.

SEE HOW HE LIKES THEM

Here are luscious, crunchy, oven-toasted rice flakes—daintiest you've ever tasted—offering one of vegetables' best effects. It means help in regulating the important health-habits of children with complete cooperation on the children's part. HEINZ has accomplished this unusual result by including in these flavory flakes a fine cereal-cellulose, a natural food-substance which is a part of rice itself. Children are conscious only of an alluring food. HEINZ has spent eight years in developing this rare combination after sixty years' experience in food making.

NO BRAN IN IT

This remarkable new product contains no bran — nothing harsh or irritating in any way whatever. It is effective in a different manner. When moisture is absorbed (after eating) the volume of the cereal-cellulose increases four to six times.

Thus an entirely natural mild, gentle bulk and roughage is created — high in efficiency, like that formed by the best vegetables.

Think of clothing such a benefit in flakes that stand unique among all breakfast foods even though you judge them by flavor, or daintiness of texture only!

HEINZ Rice Flakes supply all of the usual energizing food value of rice in addition to this feature. Don't use in place of vegetables, of course, because certain food-essentials can come through vegetables alone. Let HEINZ Rice Flakes supplement the vegetable diet.

Make this test: Get a children's jury to try HEINZ RICE FLAKES on the point of flavor solely! Then serve twice daily for one week to start the benefits; once daily thereafter to maintain them.

That will tell the story far better than we can in print.

If not the most delicious and effective cereal you've ever known, your grocer will cheerfully refund the purchase price. But we believe HEINZ Rice Flakes will be on your pantry shelf to stay!

Remember, no other cereal of any type provides this extraordinary feature. A HEINZ patent controls it. To get it for your children, therefore, you must insist on HEINZ Rice Flakes. They are just as good for grown-ups as for children.

PARK HEAD ASKS GOVERNOR TO ACT IN PAY ROLL ROW

Calls Meeting to Urge Special Inquiry.

The verbal battle between President W. R. James of the west park board and James J. Cullen, a member of the board, continued at a lively pace yesterday with each commissioner issuing new statements regarding the affairs of the park administration.

Following a conference attended by Gov. Emmerson, President James and other park commissioners yesterday at the Stevens hotel, Mr. James said he has called a special meeting of the board for tomorrow at which time he will propose a resolution calling upon Gov. Emmerson to appoint a special committee of business men to make an investigation of the park board's records.

"Nothing to Conceal."

"I have nothing to conceal or cover up," said Mr. James. "I want a thorough and complete investigation. The statement of Mr. Cullen that I am not a resident of the district is untrue. I am a legal voter and a taxpayer of the district and have been for twenty-six years."

Earlier in the day Commissioner Cullen challenged Mr. James to join in asking the state's attorney for a grand jury investigation of the west park's pay rolls and reiterated his previous declaration that the park system has been overloaded with payrollers sponsored by Robert E. Crowe, former state's attorney, and other city hall leaders.

"Mr. James seems to ignore the fact that I am the elected auditor of the board and have certain specific duties and responsibilities which I intend to discharge," said Mr. Cullen. "In my letter to Gov. Emmerson I stated that I had signed the last pay roll of the west park system only under protest.

Will Ask Each of Work.

"I intend to sign the current one, but I shall request the state's attorney to have a representative present to require that each employé carried on the pay roll identify himself and state what work he has performed for the period he is being paid.

"I have no controversy with Mr. James except as he chooses to create one. As west park commissioner my fight is against the city hall orgnization, which fought Gov. Emmerson two years ago.

"Pay roll padding is only one phase of the situation, I might add. Coal contracts, let in violation of the ordinance requiring open bids for all purchases in excess of $500, might also be scrutinized."

Mr. Cullen said he had been informed that 195 temporary employés of the board have been laid off in the last two days. Gov. Emmerson declined to comment yesterday on the charges made by the two commissioners.

SO. PARK BOARD VOTES SITE FOR 1933 EXPOSITION

An agreement between the Century of Progress Exposition corporation and the south park board, providing a site for the 1933 centennial exposition, was adopted yesterday by the park commissioners. The ordinance clears the way for the start of construction on the exhibition buildings along the lake front.

President Kelly of the park board said he believed the fair's executive committee will approve the ordinance at once. Officials of the exposition have declared they are ready to begin work on the first two buildings, Mr. Kelly said. If not adopted by the executive committee within sixty days, the ordinance becomes void.

Under the agreement all the park land fronting on the lake from 12th to 39th streets will be turned over to the exposition. The Field museum, Adler planetarium, Shedd aquarium and Soldiers' field also will be given over to the exposition with the park board receiving 10 per cent of the gross receipts collected from the use of these buildings during the fair. Afterward the park board will have the right to possess any of the buildings which it wishes to preserve.

CUBS LOSE TO CARDINALS, 13-3; ROOT ROUTED

BOOTS DURNELL DENIED LICENSE AT LEXINGTON

Stewards Bar Eight Jockeys.

BY FRENCH LANE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Lexington, Ky., April 16.—Sensational rulings were made by the license committee of the Kentucky state racing commission here tonight.

Boots Durnell, for many years a noted trainer and who at one time trained the royal stable horses for the king of Rumania, did not get a license. Last season Durnell trained the horses owned by W. T. Waggoner, multi-millionaire oil magnate of Texas.

Durnell was listed with ten other owners as "applicants unknown to the license committee or applicants whose petition requires further consideration." No other cause was given for his failure to get a license. He came into fame around Chicago years ago as the trainer of McChesney.

Eight Jockeys Barred.

Eight jockeys, including some of the best known in the west, were denied licenses. Seven other jockeys had their applications tabled. The eight refused license were: Danny Connelly, Willie Pool, John Ryan, Jake Teupen, Tommy Luther, Walter Lilly, Andy Anderson, and Verlyn Smith. The seven riders whose applications were tabled were Frank Burnett, Frank Holland, Kenneth Hoffman, John Kirby, Carlos Legnon, Charles Borel, and Joe Dominick.

Smith, the apprentice, who rode more than 100 winners around Chicago last season, lost his license at New Orleans during the winter because he was only 14 years of age and "too young to ride horses." The Kentucky rule committee approved this action.

Smith Ruled Too Young.

The committee produced evidence to show that the lad falsely attested that he was 16 years of age when he applied for an apprentice license on March 8, 1929, whereas at the time he was only 14 years old. The committee suggested that state law regarding the employment of children under 16 years be considered in Smith's case.

Members of the Kentucky license committee are Charles F. Price, Sam C. Nuchols, and Thomas C. Bradley. Their recommendations were the most sensational since the scandal of five years ago when several widely known owners, trainers, and jockeys were ruled off the turf for being implicated in fixed races and betting frauds.

The rulings of the Kentucky committee will be observed by the Illinois Turf association, the Maryland Jockey club, and the Jockey Club of New York, it was reported here tonight.

Lexington, Ky., April 16.—Some thirty-odd candidates for the Kentucky Derby, including the great, the near great, and the selling platers, were out on the 102 year old race track here this morning for a workout.

As they walked, jogged, galloped, and ran around the famous old running strip it became evident that only the system players are going to be out there shouting at Churchill Downs one month from tomorrow afternoon when the Earl of Derby presents the Derby cup to the winning owner.

I'm referring to the system player who swears by the old eenie meenie minie mo method. Or he could be the sort of a system speculator who backs a horse whose name sounds something like the name of a rich uncle or a wealthy aunt.

How to Pick 'Em.

Mr. Arthur (the Singin' Kid) Loftus, noted as one of those multiplication table players years ago, hung over the rail with me at the ancient course here at 5 o'clock this morning as the Lexington trained Derby candidates passed in review.

"My richest uncle's name is Al Lofton," remarked the singer. "Al Smith is a great friend of mine. I have a well to do aunt, and her name is Alice. So my choice for the Derby is Alcibiades."

Just then the fleet western filly reeled off a half mile in :48. It sent the Singing Kid singing down to the corner of Limestone and Main streets.

Dedicate, owned by Fred A. Burton of Chicago, is the leading Derby candidate training at Lexington. He's one of those 10 or 12 to 1 shots in the future book meeting. He is trained by John Ward, a tried and true Kentuckian. Yet Mr. Ward's fellow Kentuckians here at the cradle of the thoroughbred have no faith in Dedicate.

"He's a sprinter and won't go more than a mile," remarked some of the Kentuckians. "He's out of High Time, and did you ever hear of one of that breeding that could go a mile and a quarter?" asked other Kentuckians.

He's mean, nervous, and sulks when they ask him for a serious training effort," was the comment another Kentuckian made.

Batter's Stance May Tell You His Weakness—Tommy

This is the fourth of a series of lessons on pitching for boys in Chicagoland, written by Tommy Thomas of the White Sox for The Tribune. Tommy will give a personal demonstration of the lessons at 9 o'clock Saturday morning at Comiskey park. Boys interested in pitching are invited to attend, the only admission required being a FREE TICKET, which will appear in The Tribune sports pages Saturday.

BY TOMMY THOMAS.

When I was a sandlotter in Baltimore not so many years ago we had a different name for each kind of ball thrown by a pitcher. There was an "out curve" and an "in curve," a "drop," and so forth. I understand these terms still prevail among boy players, but they are not used in major league circles.

There are but two general classifications in the majors—a "curve ball," which is any ball that breaks in its course, regardless of the direction it breaks, and the "fast ball." You never hear the expression "out drop" or any of the other names which used to intrigue me at the time when I was first taking an interest in the pitching business.

Of course there is a great range in these two general classifications, but the terms "curve ball" and "fast ball" have been proven sufficient for the purposes of major league pitching.

Secret of Curve Lies in Wrist.

Now we come to one of the most difficult things for the young pitcher to learn. Fast balls and curve balls should be held alike in so far as possible. Beginners make prominent use of the thumb in throwing a curve and this is discernible to the batter. The trick of the curve ball is not in the use of the fingers—it is effected by the use of wrist movement.

There are "fork balls" and "knuckle balls," but these are freak deliveries and should not be attempted by a pitcher until he is well advanced in his profession and then only in rare instances.

It is not possible to tell any one pitcher that he should use the fast ball oftener than he does a curve ball or vice versa. Each individual can tell when he warms up or early in the game which is "working" better for him on that particular day, and obviously should govern himself accordingly in the ordinary run of events. There are occasions when he should use a curve ball and others when he should use his fast one. I'll mention these presently.

The purpose of all deliveries, of course, is to deceive the batsman, and it is apparent that if you can throw a fast ball to a batsman who is expecting a curve, or the other way around, you have the advantage. It is here that a good catcher can assist you in "keeping ahead" of the batter.

If you see a batter leaning or crouching over the plate it is a safe bet he is expecting a curve. If he stands erect, he's probably expecting a fast one. Many of the best batters tip off their minds by crowding the plate when they are expecting a curve; others have ways of shifting their feet

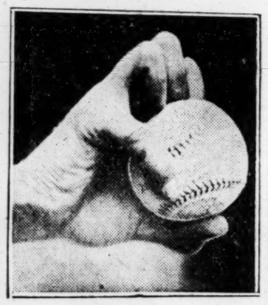
"COUNT STITCHES"



Tommy Thomas shows how to hold a "knuckle ball." When it comes floating up to the batter he can almost count the stitches in the seams. Tommy will explain this pitch and many others in Saturday's lesson for boys at Comiskey park.

La Barba Ready to Fight Any Time—Day or Night

BY WILFRID SMITH.

Fidel La Barba is ready to fight day or night. At least La Barba fought one of the most important matches of his amateur career at 2:30 in the morning.

While training at Kid Howard's gymnasium for his bout Monday night with Bud Taylor, La Barba talked of one of his "midnight" flights.

"I had won the bout which placed me in the finals of the flyweight class in the Olympic games in Paris in 1924," Fidel began. "While waiting for my opponent to be determined, I went to my dressing room to rest. There I fell asleep. About 2 a. m. I wos awakened from a sound slumber and told to hurry into the ring.

"George McKenzie of Scotland was my opponent."

At this point Fidel cut short his story. However, to finish it for him, he won a cleancut decision over the Scot for the 1924 title.

Shortly afterward, Fidel turned professional. After the flyweight champion, Pancho Villa died, Frankie Genaro, who had won the Olympic title in 1920, was recognized as the title-holder. In 1925 Fidel met Genaro. He won and kept the crown until he retired undefeated.

Bud Taylor's training drills at Barry's gymnasium have caused a switch in the betting odds for the Monday fight at the Coliseum. Bud is in great form and yesterday worked six speedy rounds against Prince Saunders and Sammy Levine. His left hook was in evidence. Remembering Bud's last three impressive victories, the fans have given him a 13 to 10 edge in the wagering.

Swedes Ask to Train Ogren for Olympic Games

KARL OGREN.

A Swedish newspaper has offered to pay his expenses back to Sweden, give him a job, and pay for his training expenses in the hope that he will represent Sweden in his event in the 1932 Olympics at Los Angeles.

Ogren's next bout will be at Racine, April 28, when he meets Art Kaufman of Rockford, Ill. On May 5 he will return to Kenosha to fight in the windup of another Eagles' card.

Cincinnati Double Plays Halt Rallies.

Cincinnati, O., April 16.—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds evened the series with the Pittsburgh Pirates by winning the second game today, 3 to 1. The closing innings were played in a drizzle.

Pete Donohue pitched for the Reds and kept ten hits scattered. He received fine support, particularly from Critz, Ford and Kelly, who made three double plays. Walker's home run in the seventh was the hitting feature. The Reds bunched their hits off Ervin Brame in the fourth and fifth for the other two runs.

Pittsburgh's run was made in the ninth on doubles by Suhr and Hemsley. Score:

Why Should Fans be Vexed About Carnera's K. O. Wins?

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 16.—The latest adventure of Primo Carnera is certain to arouse a familiar type of indignation, but I cannot see why anybody should be indignant, considering the character of the people who dominate the prize fighting industry and considering also the potential value of the heavyweight championship.

Here is an asset worth between one and two million dollars, and here is a class of sportsmen drawn largely from the smuggling, bootlegging, kidnaping and bombing trades in a more or less open competition for the title.

The only offense against the public interest that I can perceive in the situation is chargeable to the various prize fighting commissions, and especially to the New York prize fighting commission, which have bent their energies to inflate the importance of the heavyweight championship to the end that their own petty importance as stewards of a legalized racket shall seem less petty.

Exaggerate Subsidiary Fights.

In doing this they have exaggerated the importance of all subsidiary heavyweight prize fights, and the effect on the public has been merely that prize fights worth not more than 25 and 50 cents and $1 per customer have sold to the retail trade at prices ranging between a general admission fee of $3 or $5 and $27.50 or $55 for seats in the so-called ringside sections.

Even this is a minor nuisance, remembering that this still is a free country in some few surviving respects, and that one of the things that a citizen cannot be compelled to do is to spend his money for prize fight tickets.

Therefore, the indignation over anything that may be done on Primo Carnera's behalf with or without his

Coast Perturbed

San Francisco, Cal., April 16.—(AP)—The state athletic commission today delved more deeply into conditions surrounding Primo Carnera's six round technical knockout victory in Oakland last Monday night over Leon Chevalier, San Francisco Negro.

Commissioner Charles F. Traung questioned those connected with the bout to find out why Bob Perry of Hollywood, Chevalier's third assistant second, threw in the towel when Chevalier was not in great distress at the time. Perry explained that he thought the Negro was taking too much punishment.

Three Are Questioned.

Among those questioned were Leon See, Frenchman, who discovered Carnera in Europe and who is his manager; Frank Churchill, California representative of Carnera, and Roy Cummings, a San Francisco newspaperman.

Churchill, asked why he was in the vicinity of Chevalier's corner for a couple of rounds, said he was "trying to find a seat to watch the fight." Churchill said he had known Perry several years, but did not talk to him or Chevalier's other two seconds while he was in the corner.

It was learned that Perry had seconded Neil Clisby, Negro, who was knocked out by Carnera recently in Los Angeles.

Purses Still Withheld.

Cummings testified that he saw Churchill in Chevalier's corner and converse with one of the Negro's seconds.

The commission next Monday will make a decision. Meanwhile, Carnera's 50 per cent share of the $26,478 gate receipts and Chevalier's $1,500 were held.

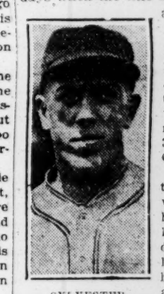
BY IRVING VAUGHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

St. Louis, Mo., April 16.—There are days when the title holding Cubs can't assert themselves with their bats. Due to the deception in Sylvester Johnson's arm this was one of those days. The result was a 13 to 3 victory for the Cardinals.



SYLVESTER JOHNSON.

Manager McCarthy's intentions were good when he started Charley Root, but it didn't take him long to realize he had erred. The ace of the staff was present only until he had thrown to two batters in the third. One of them singled and the other hit a homer. That realized a total of five runs for the home club.

Hal Carlson then was summoned, but the cannonading became even worse. Two runs in the fifth and four in the sixth convinced him he was in the wrong place. Al Shealy was the third Cub hurler, and he did well enough except for two tallies in the eighth.

Cards Get Long Hits.

Root, Carlson and Shealy were touched for 20 hits, more than a few of which went for distance. Sunny Jim Bottomley, for example, hit a homer and two doubles. Frisch assisted with a pair of two baggers and a single. But the prize performer among the hostiles was George Fisher, recently traded away by John McGraw. Young Fisher today shook the air with four consecutive hits, which, with three in a row yesterday, gives him a mark that should stand most of the season.

The total of Cub hits wasn't so bad—three being ten—but it was the way in which they were unloaded and wasted that hurt. Moreover, they made only five of these in the first seven innings. During this time they had two possibilities blasted by double plays, and even in the eighth when they were trying to make an impression, another double killing halted a rally. They did manage to salvage two runs before the round ended. The other came their way in the ninth, but a few tallies more or less at this stage meant nothing except delay.

Root in Trouble at Start.

Three runs off Root in the first inning began to take form when Adams drove a single past the mound. Frisch doubled off the wall in left, and Adams scored. A pop foul to Blair eliminated Bottomley. Hafey lined to left, and Stephenson, having bumped his elbow trying for Frisch's drive, preferred not to get too close to the wall again, so the ball bounced back for a double, Frisch scoring. Hafey registered on a double by Fisher. The hit was a short fly which neither Wilson nor Cuyler could reach.

Frisch's single started Root to the showers in the third. After Frisch's hit, Bottomley hoisted his homer into that part of the right field bleacher not faced with chicken netting. Root didn't wait for any more. Carlson strolled to the front and was greeted by singles off the bats of Hafey and Fisher, but nobody scored.

Bottomley and that Fisher fellow were back in action in the fifth, and two more runs blossomed, giving the Cardinals a 7 to 0 lead. Carlson walked Frisch to open the inning. Bottomley hustled him to third with a double to left. Hafey fouled to Blair, but Fisher singled over short, sending Frisch and Bottomley to the counting station. Gelbert also singled, but Carlson was able to retire the next two batters.

Carlson's goodbye inning, the sixth, began with a scratch single by Dout-

Get Last Chance to Play Cleveland.

BY EDWARD BURNS.

Every good baseball fan in Chicago is urged to wire his congressman this morning with a view of having something done about the weather situation hereabouts.

This, of course, is apropos of the fact that the Chicago phase of the American league opening at Comiskey park yesterday was rained out again and the outlook is none too good for staging the show this afternoon.

One more day of idleness and Donie Bush, a very jumpy person at best, will have to be placed under the care of a physician. Although the bad weather is causing Donie's corns to hurt something terrible, it is said this great agony is slight in comparison with his anguish at being delayed in getting the race under way.

Fans May Miss Indians.

The weather must behave today or the Cleveland Indians will move out of town for Detroit without having played a game, which means that the double header business will start early this year, for with three hangovers and none played there is likelihood of some doubling up the next time the Indians come to town, on May 17. May 17 and 18 are Saturday and Sunday, and double headers usually aren't put on for week-ends so early as mid-May.

And again taking the pessimistic point of view—if the opener is rained out again today—the south side bugs will have an opportunity to see the Sox play but one team, the St. Louis Browns, prior to the aforementioned May 17 series with Cleveland.

Browns Bring Bad Luck.

On the basis of last year's opening series with the St. Louis club, there can be found no reason for welcoming the Browns for the first game in preference to Cleveland, for the St. Louisans won the first three, 3 to 1; 8 to 3, and 4 to 1. The Sox escaped with the fourth, 5 to 4.

The Sox, however, are making no calculations which hinge on what happened last year. So far as they are concerned, 1929 has been blotted out of the book.

hit, who continued to second when Eal pegged wild to Grimm. Adams sacrificed Douthit to third. He scored when Frisch knocked a two bagger past Hornsby, who couldn't move fast enough to make the stop. Bottomley walked and was forced by Hafey. Fisher slapped his fourth hit of the day to right, scoring Frisch. A pass to Gelbert filled the sacks, and two of them counted on J. Wilson's double. Shealy fanned Johnson to end the inning.

Until they scored two runs in the eighth, the Cubs had made only a limited number of threats against Johnson. One of these was in the opening round when Blair doubled with one out. Hornsby fanned and Wilson walked, but Cuyler's best was a pop foul. In the second, Stephenson led off with a hit, but Grimm fouled out and Hartnett banged into a double play. In the fourth, Hornsby and Wilson exploded singles with none out, but another double play ruined this opening. Cuyler tried again in the seventh by doubling, but he died on base like the others.

Few Threatening Gestures.

The possibility of seeing the league champions shut out began to fade in the eighth when Shealy opened the round with a two bagger to right center. He scored on a single which English bounced over second. English moved to second on a passed ball and scored on Blair's hit to center. A foul to Bottomley sent Hornsby back to the bench. Then Wilson hit one on the seam, but Adams speared it on the fly and doubled Blair off first base.

Third Cub Run a Gift.

The Cards tapered off in the home eighth by scoring their last pair of runs. Bottomley hit his second double. Hafey flied out, Fisher walked and Gelbert singled. On the latter hit Bottomley romped home, but Fisher was caught trying to test his speed to third against Cuyler's throwing ability. Gelbert then stole second, and J. Wilson's hit scored him. The Cubs followed with their last run, which resulted from a scratch by Stephenson, his stroll to third unnoticed, and Grimm's infield out.

GAR WOOD GIVES UP SPEED TRIALS AT MIAMI BEACH

Miami Beach, Fla., April 16.—(AP)—Gar Wood today abandoned his plans to attempt a speedboat record of 100 miles an hour with his Miss America VIII and announced that he would ship the boat to his home in Detroit Saturday. His assault upon his present world's record of 93.123 miles an hour will be made within a month, he said.

Prior to abandoning his plans, the racing enthusiast sent Miss America VIII over a marked course of Indian creek at an unofficial average of 96.25 miles an hour. Illness of Odis Parker, official A. A. A. timer, at Fort Lauderdale, prevented his attending the speed trials this morning. The mark could not be accepted as an official record in the absence of the timer, Wood said.

Notes of the Cubs

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 16.—For a while this morning it looked as if the Cubs would be forced to play without Capt. Charley Grimm. His strenuous labors in the opening game caused complications in the region of his cracked rib. A fresh layer of adhesive tape was applied and he survived the game.

It didn't take the St. Louis fans long to get into midseason form. Only about 5,000 were interested enough to come out for the second battle of the campaign.

Both Johnson and Root came close to being wounded in the first inning. Johnson put his bare hand in front of a line smash by English, and for a few minutes there was doubt as to whether he could continue. Root put up his hands in time to stop a drive straight for his face, so no damage was done.

Manager McCarthy hasn't much choice about picking a pitcher for the third of the set tomorrow. He will have to use Malone, who worked two-thirds of an inning yesterday. The Cards' pitcher probably will be Herman Bell.

Hornsby's ailing heel not only handicapped him when Frisch's drive sailed past him in the sixth but again in the eighth, when Gelbert stole second. Gabby's throw was right into the bag, but the Rajah couldn't stoop over to get it. Instead he jumped, thus getting away from both ball and the runner.

PREP TOURNEYS.

SOON the University of Chicago will decide whether its anhual interscholastic basketball tourney is a thing of the past because possibly jealous opposition by a clique of high school officials. In this connection The Wake has just received a letter from R. T. Craig, president of the Athens, Tex., school board, president of Rotary, and editor of the Athens Daily Review. He says in part:

"I think it would be a calamity for the university to cease holding the tournament. In Texas we thought enough of it for three leading newspapers to send staff correspondents. I think the visits our Athens boys made to Chicago for two tournaments were worth far more in an educational way than three months spent in the classroom. Our school board encourages such trips. In addition to Chicago we sent our team to Juarez, Mexico. What would such a trip to Juarez be worth to a Chicago team?

"Prior to their visit to Chicago last year the two Tompkins boys of our squad, who received such favorable mention, never had been outside the county in which they were born. Two this year had never been outside the state. No overtures were made any of our team to attend Chicago. Two of our last year's team went to Texas Christian university.

"We of Texas are in the dark just why the event is being opposed. If the tourney is dropped we wish the University of Chicago would lend us Stagg, the sportsman, to conduct just such a tourney in our state and we'd have plenty of entries, too, but I suppose that is impossible. The south is looking to Chicago to continue the tourney. Teams which do not care to enter are not compelled to do so. Yours for real sport," etc.

NEWARK PLAYER DEFEATS LOTT IN PINEHURST MEET

Pinehurst, N. C., April 16.—(AP)—Favorites continued to fall in fast and furious fashion today in the North and South Tennis tournament. George Lott, fourth ranking player, succumbed before the determined onslaught of Gregory Mangin of Newark, N. J., by a 9-11, 6-2, 6-3 count. John Van Ryn, the slender Orange, N. J., star, who ranks fifth, dropped out as he was outstroked and outfought by Berkeley Bell of Austin, Tex. The scores were 6-4, 3-6, 6-3.

GEORGE LOTT.

J. Gilbert Hall of East Orange, N. J., who yesterday downed Francis T. Hunter, was easily put out of the race by Emmet Pare of Dayton, O., 6-2, 6-1. Even Johnny Doeg, the California giant, found the going difficult and was scarcely able to nose out Clifford Sutter, 19 year old Tulane sophomore, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4.

TOMMY ARMOUR SETTLES 4 SUITS OUT OF COURT

New York, April 16.—(AP)—Four suits brought by Consuelo Armour against her former husband, Thomas Armour, golf professional and former national open champion, and his second wife, Estelle Andrews Armour, for $670,000, have been settled out of court, it was announced today.

"I do not feel at liberty to discuss the details of settlement at this time, but you can say that Mr. Armour has made adequate provision for his wife and child during his life and provided for them after his death by insurance," said Milton Cohn, attorney, who made the announcement.

In the first of these actions Mrs. Armour sued the second Mrs. Armour for $500,000 damages for alienation of affections. The second suit was against the second Mrs. Armour and her husband for a declaratory judgment voiding the Mexican divorce which he obtained and for an injunction restraining Armour and his second wife from calling themselves husband and wife. The third suit was against Armour for a separation and the fourth suit was against Armour for $170,000, money which the first wife claimed she lent him.

CLEVELAND PAIR WILL WED WHEN INDIANS WIN FLAG

Cleveland, O., April 16.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians have a lot of loyal partisans, but none more confident than Miss Esther H. Tetalman and Jack C. Legomsky. They have set their wedding for the day the Tribe wins the American league pennant.

Miss Tetalman, who is 21, and Legomsky, 24 years old, shoe merchant, expect to be on hand cheering lustily every day the Indians play at home. Miss Tetalman also is hunting for some fancy baseball motifs for her reception and formal announcement of the engagement next month.

Legomsky admitted that the Indians may keep them waiting a few seasons, but maintained it's no more of a gamble than a lot of marriages.

HURLER REPORTS TO DECATUR

Decatur, Ill., April 16.—[Special.]—Dewey Hinkle, southpaw hurler, who won 17 games and lost nine for Frank Desaun a year ago, reported to the Decatur club today. Hinkle was sold to Reading, Pa., on a make-good basis and has been returned to the Commies.

WHAT HAS A CANDLE TO DO WITH MOTOR OIL?

You have only to see how watery and bodiless is the wax that drips from a burning candle to realize why the New Waxfree Havoline is the finest oil money can buy for warm weather use in hot high-compression motors. Waxfree Havoline contains no wax!

To appreciate what that means, you must know that there is some wax in every quart of many highly-regarded "summer" oils—the same wax from which candles are made. That is because both the best summer oils and paraffin candle-wax are products of paraffin-base crude oil—and heretofore there has been no way to wholly separate the wax from the oil.

When wax turns water-thin with candle heat, think how nil its lubricating value must be to bearings racing at terrific motor temperatures. Obviously, wax is nothing you want in your crankcase when you are burning up the road.

Now—A Waxless, Heat-Defying Oil for Hot Weather Driving

The New Waxfree Havoline is the first 100%-distilled unblended paraffin-base oil ever refined for hot weather driving. It is free from volatile elements that quickly evaporate with heat; entirely free from wax!

Because every drop is wholly-refined pure rich lubricant, summer grades of Waxfree Havoline possess greater heat resistance than any other oil of the same viscosity at 210°F. and above!

Mark that fact well! It means that Waxfree Havoline sturdily lubricates at the highest temperatures ever found on any bearing surface.

It means, too, many extra miles of superior motor performance between crankcase drainings. More power. Far less carbon. Waxfree means carefree on your hottest, fastest trips . . . as thousands of motorists will testify.

Safeguard your motor from ruinous oil-consuming heat. Drain and refill today with the New Waxfree Havoline—the oil that is all oil, not part candle-wax. A nearby dealer has the correct grade for your car.

Colonels Win Another from Brewers, 5-4

Louisville, Ky., April 16.—[Special.]—Ken Penner, believing Joe Deberry in the eighth with the score tied at 4-4 and two men in scoring position, stopped the Brewers and then proceeded to win his own game with a double in the ninth. He advanced on Simons' sacrifice and scored on Branom's single to right, giving the Colonels a 5-4 verdict. The win made it two straight for Louisville on the series.

TILDEN DEFEATS PRO CHAMPION IN CLOSE MATCH

BEAULIEU, France, April 16.—(AP)—Bill Tilden, American amateur tennis champion, defeated Karel Kozeluh of Czecho-Slovakia, world's professional titleholder, in an impromptu match today by scores of 6-4, 6-4.

Kozeluh was at a disadvantage due to the fact that he had not expected to play. The swarthy little Czech appeared at the grounds as a spectator, but pulled off his coat and jumped on to the court when the match was proposed during an intermission.

Tilden was forced to an extra set, however, in his third round match with Lotan, former amateur champion of Nice, finally winning by scores of 6-1, 3-6, 6-3.

JACK DE MAVE, MANAGER, DRAW YEAR SUSPENSION

St. Louis, Mo., April 16.—(AP)—Seneca Taylor, Missouri boxing commissioner, today announced suspension for one year of Jack De Mave, Dutch heavyweight, and his manager, Lew Diamond, for De Mave's "run out" last night from his scheduled ten round bout with Otto Von Porat, Norwegian heavy. Diamond said he was through with his fighter for good.

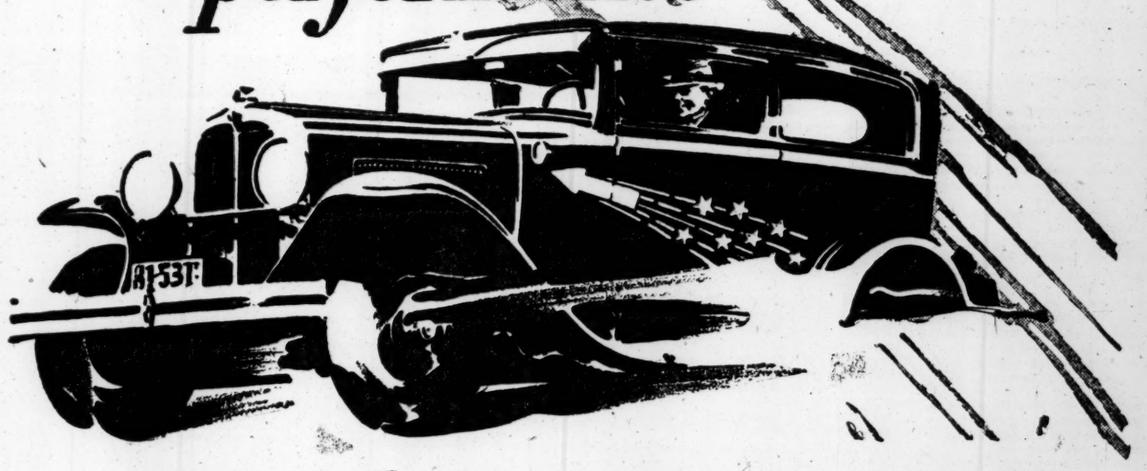
The Red Rocket
a demonstrator of Pontiac's finer performance



Beginning today, you'll see the car with the RED ROCKET on the streets and boulevards of this city. It is a New Series Pontiac Big Six, marked with a RED ROCKET to symbolize its remarkable speed, pick-up and power. This demonstrator is on the streets for two reasons. First, so you can obtain a vivid impression of its speed, its quick getaway, its smoothness and easy handling. Second, so you can receive a demonstration on the spot—anytime, anywhere you see this car. We want you to take the wheel. For only in this way is it possible to realize what excellent performance you can now enjoy in this new low-priced six.

SPEED AND POWER. Pontiac's 60 horsepower engine, with 200 cubic inch piston displacement, is the largest in any six of its price. This accounts for Pontiac's exceptional top speed, its swift acceleration, and its abundant power on the hills.

SMOOTHNESS. This engine is also very smooth because of its new-type rubber mountings and its Harmonic Balancer which counteracts torsional crankshaft vibration.

EASY HANDLING AND RIDING. A new steering system acting on roller bearings, and improved four-wheel brakes make this car delightfully easy to handle. And riding is unusually smooth, thanks to its comfortable new Fisher bodies with mohair upholstery of excellent quality, and improved Lovejoy Hydraulic Shock Absorbers.

Now ask to drive the car with the RED ROCKET. Or come to our salesroom, where you can learn about Pontiac's reliability, economy and long life. A demonstration will show you what splendid performance Pontiac now is offering at very low cost.

Prices are f. o. b. Pontiac, Mich., plus delivery charges. Shock absorbers standard equipment. Bumpers and spring covers at slight extra cost. General Motors Time Payment Plan available at minimum rate.

Consider the delivered price as well as the list (f. o. b.) price when comparing automobile values . . . Pontiac delivered prices include only authorized charges for freight and delivery and the charge for any additional accessories or financing desired.

INDIGNATION OVER CARNERA SEEMS WASTED EFFORT

Fans Better Judges Than Ring Commissioners.

Can't Expect Anything Better.

Nobody who recalls the business arrangements between James Joseph Tunney, the most virtuous of the champions, and the sinister Mr. Boo Boo Hoff of Philadelphia on the day of his first fight with Jack Dempsey can consistently expect much better of Primo, who is a foreigner, unacquainted with the American language and thrown among American racketeers for his schooling in the ethics of the prize fight industry.

As a matter of fact, the boxing commission of all the jurisdictions in which Primo has attacked his bums either has coöperated with his mob or at best tolerated matches which were quite obviously phoney. Even in New York where the prizefight commissioners make rather more display of their integrity than the commissioners of any other jurisdiction, great solicitude was shown when Primo was about to make his American début lest he be matched with some one who would be too tough for him to push over.

Everywhere else, the prizefight commissioners knew in advance that Primo's opponents or victims were expectedy to go into the water, as the phrase goes, with the least possible delay. My only criticism of the situation would be that all prizefight commissions should be abolished and the appearance of official coöperation with the racket corrected.

"Larceny" Is Encouraged.

Just how the New York commissioners are encouraging larceny on a large scale by stipulating that the winner of the Sharkey-Schmeling prizefight of June 12 shall be regarded as the heavyweight champion of the world, his name to be duly engraved upon the Tunney memorial monument which stands in the lobby of the new Garden. Thus they confer a value of at least $1,000,000 on the victory and create a temptation to burgle, kidnap, and cheat, which the boys in the racket are certain to find irresistible.

In his California adventure, Primo seems to have taken a bit of a pounding from a Negro gladiator by the name of Leon Chevalier, and as this is the second time a Negro has resisted him in the tour, it does begin to look as if the Negro boys were getting out of hand. By tradition Negro heavyweights are supposed to fight to orders and go into the water if, as and when instructed under pain of boycott for failure.

In Philadelphia a Negro named Ace Clark either forgot himself or wilfully violated the proprieties, and it was not until Primo had been badly mutilated about the face that his opponent turned square, so to speak, and went in. One may be sure that from now on these two ingrates will be dealt with in a firm manner.

Says He Was Threatened.

Leon Chevalier states that his seconds rubbed burning stuff in his eyes between rounds and that one of them threatened to shoot him if he did not do the honest thing by Primo. There seems to be some sense of public outrage about these things, although I cannot understand why there should be. It is nothing unusual in this country for quick-tempered business men to shoot people for betraying their trust.

The contest in the ring for a heavyweight championship never is as interesting as the scheming and conniving which has preceded the fight, and if any one doubts this then let some good writer try to sell a fiction story about a heavyweight championship bout in which everything is strictly sportsmanlike and on the level.

OVERJOYED TO SEE THE BABE

Batter's Stand May Give Him Away—Tommy

Watch Batter's Stance at Plate.

Rogers Hornsby is supposed to be one of the few batters who have an absolutely noncommital stance at the plate. Many others think they can hide their anticipations, but if they are watched for a while 90 per cent of them will tell you what they are expecting you to throw to them, merely by their attitude at the plate.

This is not to say that they won't hit something they are not expecting. If the element of surprise was the only thing a pitcher had to master, a good pitcher wouldn't lose a game all season. But it is a plain advantage to give a batsman something different from the ball that he expects to get.

I spoke of the catcher's coöperation. He sees the same movements that you see and most times you'll throw what he signals for. You've seen some pitchers "shake off" the catcher's signal by vigorously turning his head. I advise against this. I never "shake off" a catcher's signal. I simply keep looking at him until he gives another signal if I didn't like his first one. This idea of working with the catcher on signals is one of the things I can explain better when I see you personally out at Comiskey park Saturday morning.

Intermingled with the regular curve and fast ball deliveries is the so-called change of pace. In this pitch the element of surprise is intended to reach its peak. However, the change of pace is not to make the batsman miss the ball, but to throw him off his stride and cause him to hit weakly to one of the fielders. The change of pace is no more than the name implies. It becomes effective by throwing it after the same windup as you do your normal pitches.

The foregoing are matters which can be made clearer by personal demonstrations, so I want you to pay especial attention to the part of my lesson at Comiskey park Saturday morning, when, with the aid of one of the White Sox catchers, I'll show how the fast ball and certain curves are thrown. Personally, I don't use the much discussed knuckle ball, but it is a pet of my roomie, Ted Lyons, and I'll ask him to show it to you.

Here Are Points to Keep in Mind.

Pending the personal demonstration, keep in mind these points:

You must learn to hold your curve ball and your fast one with the same grip.

You must learn to outsmart the batsman by determining what he is expecting you to throw.

You must not reveal your change of pace ball by altering your habitual windup.

You must learn to determine at the beginning of your day's work whether your curve is working better than your fast one and govern yourself accordingly.

In connection with this last—be ready to change your mind. If you are throwing a majority of curves and you get caught in a hitting rally, don't persist in the belief that they just happen to be hitting the ball you think is your best. Switch your attack completely. And if the hitting keeps up then, the manager probably will help you solve the problem by calling you out of the game.

Tomorrow I want to tell you some of the most interesting phases of pitching—what to pitch in big parks on windy days; what to pitch with men on base; when to use the pitch out; how to pitch when the infield is playing in, etc.

Gallant Knight Turns in Fastest Trial for Derby

Louisville, Ky., April 16.—[Special.]—Gallant Knight of the Audley stable today covered the Kentucky Derby route, a mile and a quarter, in 2:09 1-5. This was over a track at least three seconds slow to the mile. It was the best time any 1930 Derby candidate has shown.

Gallant Knight stepped the first quarter in :25, the half in :50, three-quarters in 1:16 1-5, mile in 1:43 3-5, mile and one-eighth in 1:56, and the mile and a quarter in 2:09 1-5.

Trainer Kay Spence was pleased with the colt's work and remarked that the one which beat Gallant Knight would win the Derby.

Gallant Knight won the Breeders' futurity at Lexington last fall in the mud from a field of good 2 year olds. He is by Imp-Bright Knight.

Northwestern Nine Defeats Mustangs, 5-3

Dallas, Tex., April 16.—[Special.]—Northwestern today defeated the Southern Methodist nine, 5 to 3. Buck Fyfe held the Mustangs to four hits.

The Wildcats trailed, 3 to 0, until the sixth inning. Schwartz opened that session with a single and Fojan duplicated. With runners on first and second, Kadison tripled over the right fielder's head, scoring both runners. Crizensky walked and Oliphant singled. Schuett sacrificed both runners ahead one base. Pronge, the next hitter, sent a long sacrifice to deep left that permitted Crizensky to score, but Oliphant was out trying for third.

Northwestern meets the local team again tomorrow and then leaves for Austin, where two games will be played with the University of Texas. The score:

beautiful women and their fast horses. Once upon a time they were jealous of their good bourbon whisky. It may be that Dedicate and his trainer, Mr. Ward, have aroused the jealousy of many Kentuckians.

Next to Dedicate in the Lexington trained Derby colony is Tannery. This is a son of Ballot, out of the mare Blemished. She was by the renowned Olambala. Tannery is owned by E. J. Prichard of Kentucky and is trained by Jack Baker, also of Kentucky. As a two year old he won five races in eight starts. He scored all his triumphs before last July 1, which indicates he may be a colt that will come to hand early.

After Dedicate and Tannery there's a whole flock of Derby candidates quartered at Lexington. There's Tea Cracker, Dick O'Hara, and Senator Camden's Sydney, Winslow, and Laodrone. Jack Keene has Silver Cord and Pleadome. Hi Over Racketeer, Lightning Jones, Rusty Breezing Thru, Buckeye Poet, Alvin Renshaw, All Up set, Alcibiades, Chariot, and numerous others are all standing up under the terrific Derby grind.

Racing Starts Today.

Derby talk was in the air because the Kentucky racing season opens here tomorrow afternoon. A drizzle of rain was falling tonight but the weather was like June in Chicago. Only a few Derby candidates go to the post in the opening program.

C. W. Bidwell of Chicago picked out quite a difficult spot for his Derby colt, Tea Cracker, in the Phoenix handicap, but it may be the son of Tea Caddy is just out to get more racing experience. Several of the 3 year old filly eligibles to the Derby are in the Boonesboro purse over the futurity course. But Alcibiades is among them. If a western filly is to win the Derby Alcibiades ought to do it.

At the grass Court Championships . . . at major polo games . . . at important golf tournaments around Chicago . . . have you noticed those sleuth-like individuals who went around sizing up coat hangs, making notes about lapel widths, and surreptitiously measuring knicker lengths?

Those, gentlemen, were Spalding style scouts. They're on hand at every important sporting event. They watch for anything new in sport suit style—and their vigilance keeps the famous Spalding Golf Suit the most authentically styled sport suit in town.

JUICIEST MELON CUT BY LARGEST CORP.—A. T. & T.

Offers "Rights" of 316 Millions.

Leading stock and commodity markets throughout the country, including the New York and Chicago stock exchanges and the Chicago Board of Trade, will be closed tomorrow in observance of Good Friday. Stock markets will remain closed on Saturday, while the grain markets, including the Board of Trade, will reopen. Banks will remain open both days.

BY O. A. MATHER.

The juiciest of melons was cut by the largest of corporations yesterday. In other words, the American Telephone and Telegraph company, the only four billion dollar American concern and the largest public utility in the world, announced a new offering of its stock affording rights worth more than $316,000,000 to the stockholders. And the value may run considerably higher if the bondholders convert their securities into stock.

Under the terms of the offer, the 5,000 American Telepone stockholders of record May 23, may buy one additional share of stock at $100 for each six shares held. At yesterday's closing price of 260 for the present stock, the purchase rights would be worth $26 a share.

But American Telephone last year issued $219,000,000 of 4½ per cent bonds which are convertible into stock at $180 a share until May 23. A considerable amount of these bonds are still outstanding and if all are converted into stock the value of the issue will be boosted many millions of dollars.

The company will obtain about $224,666,000 in new funds if the holders of the 13,479,965 shares outstanding at the end of 1929 take advantage of the subscription privilege. And if the bondholders convert their securities and exercise their rights, an additional $315,000,000 will be derived. Earlier in the year an issue of $150,000,000 of 5 per cent debentures also was marketed.

The stockholders must exercise their subscription rights by Aug. 1. The funds derived from the sale of new stock will be used to finance in part the expansion planned by the Bell system this year, it being estimated that the Bell companies, which are controlled by American Telephone, will require $700,000,000, of which the parent company will furnish about $350,000,000.

Better news came from the steel industry yesterday. The midweek reviews reported some slight improvement in mill operations, due chiefly to increasing activity in the automobile industry.

Iron and steel business is holding its own and in some lines has made moderate seasonal gains," the Iron Age says. "The average for the country at large is 78 per cent of capacity, compared with 76 per cent last week. The industry thus far this year has made a surprisingly good showing, in view of the general business recession, and producers will be satisfied if output can be maintained at the present rate.

Motor Car Production.

"Increases in motor car production are mainly by manufacturers in the lower price range, and spring sales of dealers have not yet got under way in volume. Nevertheless, the automobile industry's requirements in materials in the first half of this month have been appreciably larger than in the corresponding part of March. Building prospects are more hopeful, although construction work is rather slow in getting under way. Activity in railroad equipment is at a low ebb."

Construction awards between April 1 and 11 totaled $181,773,400 in the 37 states east of the Rocky mountains, according to the weekly summary of the F. W. Dodge corporation. This marked a good gain over the $144,802,500 for the last eight business days in March, but was a considerable decline from the $345,243,700 for the corresponding period in April last year.

Employment sagged back last month after the improvement in February, according to the monthly report of the United States department of labor. Taking manufacturing as a whole, employment stood at 89.8 in March, compared with 90.3 in February and 98.6 in March last year. But improvement is predicted for this month.

Industrial employment in Illinois receded 1.2 per cent between Feb. 15 and March 15, according to the monthly review of the Illinois department of labor. Aggregate pay rolls also showed some decline.

Report March Increase in New Life Insurance

The Association of Life Insurance Presidents reports that new insurance written by forty-four companies during March amounted to $1,222,184,000, compared with $1,169,881,000 during March, 1929, a gain of 4.5 per cent. Total new business for the same companies during the first quarter was $3,220,857,000, as against $3,167,407,000 during the same period last year, an increase of 1.7 per cent.

Receiver for U.S. Mortgage Bond Is Named

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Detroit, Mich., April 16.—A liquidating receivership was named for the United States Mortgage Bond company by Judge Guy A. Miller in the Circuit court today. The action was taken on the application of a majority of the board of directors of the company. In granting the petition Judge Miller named the Detroit Security Trust company as receiver.

In a statement issued as of March 31, total resources of the company are listed at $12,561,414 with liabilities totaling $10,776,240.

Howard C. Wade, city controller, was president and organizer of the United States Mortgage Bond company and John S. Haggerty, secretary of state, was first vice president.

The company was started as a copartnership with a capital of $50,000 in 1915 and increased from time to time to $5,000,000 under the reorganization plan.

"The liquidation has been made necessary owing to the great losses sustained in the mortgage business, the inability to get mortgage money, or sell first mortgage real estate bonds," Mr. Wade said. "This condition has existed for nearly two years and was greatly augmented by the stock market crisis of 1929.

"The financial statement as of March 31 shows capital, surplus, and reserves which appear to be sufficient to take care of all creditors, but it was felt that the losses sustained from month to month operation might deplete the reserves so that they would not be sufficient in the event of liquidation."

DAY ORGANIZES NEW INSURANCE COMPANY HERE

Final steps in the organization of the Chicago Fidelity and Casualty company were taken yesterday by its sponsors, Darby A. Day and associates. The announcement was made that underwriting will begin July 1. The company has a paid in capital and surplus of $2,500,000 and is licensed to write all forms of casualty and surety insurance.

POOL PLANTS IN BIG RADIO CORP. CONTROL DEAL

Electric Firms to Acquire Stock.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 16.—Control of the Radio Corporation of America and subsidiaries will pass to the General Electric company and the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, under a plan officially announced today.

The plan provides for doubling the Radio corporation in size as to asse's, capitalization and plant equipment through the acquisition by the corporation of all radio manufacturing facilities and patents held by General Electric and Westinghouse in exchange for 6,580,375 new Radio shares which are to be issued.

General Electric and Westinghouse, whose bankers are J. P. Morgan & Co. and Kuhn, Loeb & Co., respectively, therefore will control, through Radio corporation the Radio-Keith-Orpheum and Radio-Victor talking machine organizations, as well as other operating subsidiaries of the Radio corporation. Radio will now have assets of more than three hundred million dollars.

Government Starts Investigation.

Simultaneously with the announcement, the proposed transaction, which is the largest ever outlined in American radio history, was attacked on the floor of the United States senate as a "new radio trust" and the department of justice announced that the deal was being carefully investigated.

The department of justice statement said it "was fully advised regarding the proposed affiliation between the Radio corporation, General Electric company, and Westinghouse Electric company in the manufacture of radios and it was investigating the application fully and was considerably concerned about it."

David Sarnoff, president of the radio corporation, in Washington to make a courtesy call on President Hoover, confirmed plans for the announcement, but declined to reveal the exact terms of the deal. He said the arrangements would result in cheaper prices for radio sets and tubes.

Details of Plans.

Under the working plan, the 13,160,750 common shares of Radio to be outstanding will have a market valuation of $783,064,625 at today's closing price of 59½ on the New York stock exchange. Total assets of the com-

Finds Farmers' Foreign Markets Disappearing

BY SCRUTATOR.

The mere suggestion that an adequate farm relief program must be based at least in part on the adjustment of production to effective demand makes some thinkers see red. The radical view is that prices that will be profitable should be guaranteed even for suplies that exceed any reasonable demand.

A modern American farmer may well be bewildered by the propaganda of one sort or another that has been fed him in recent years. The plain facts are that markets overseas, once his, have been taken away from him, that this movement is continuing and that the outlook for foreign sales of agricultural produtcs in the future is not bright.

Much of this is due to foreign governmental policies. Following the war nearly all countries adopted the theory that they should make themselves self-sufficing as to foodstuffs. New countries, Canada and the Argentine and Australia, greatly expanded their production of exportable crops. Others made tariff regulations that were unfavorable to American exports. Still others have made a drive to sell their own foodstuffs in the United States, in competition for domestic markets with Americans.

Cuban Egg Imports.

A large firm dealing in butter and eggs in Cuba recently notified the National Poultry, Butter, and Egg association, of which it was a member, that it had gone out of business—not because its imports were not satisfactory as they came from this country, but because the Cuban government had placed a tariff on imported eggs that raised them above the demand price level of the Cubans.

This tariff, placed in all probability as a revenue measure, was equivalent to about 8 cents a dozen and served virtually to double the retail price of this important food in the sugar island. The consequence has been that imports from the United States have fallen, according to the association, to less than one-fourth what they were only five or six years ago.

American canners of tomatoes pointed out at their convention here last winter that they were meeting severe competition from Italian packers, and demanded higher tariffs. Even the Russia of the soviets is said to be cutting in on some products, although that country has been a negligible factor recently in the wheat market where it was once important.

Russian Turkeys.

Harrison F. Jones, secretary of the country's largest butter and egg association, relates that for the last two years the Russians have been sending quantities of high grade turkeys to the New York market and selling them 7 cents a pound lower than the agreed cost of production in the United States. It is quite unlikely that the turkey raising kulaks, or poorer peasants, made any money, but credits were established here by the sales.

American egg producers are inadequately protected against dried eggs from China or from Russia, according to their spokesmen. China already sends some in and the Russians are reported to be making efforts to get into this line. It is something to think about when we realize that two countries supposedly on the verge of starvation can sell us foods that are produced here and of which there is no apparent shortage.

Logic would require that earnest efforts be made to save the domestic markets exclusively for things we grow in abundance. Thereafter, as the federal farm board has pointed out, there must be a close correlation of supply to the demand.

MILWAUKEE R. R. 1929 EARNINGS DROP $2,187,957

Net income of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul, and Pacific railroad declined $2,187,957 in 1929, the annual report released yesterday by President H. A. Scandrett shows. Net earnings for the year were $7,074,014, as compared with $9,261,971 for the period from Jan. 14 to Dec. 31, 1928.

A debit of $2,371,153 resulted from transactions made prior to the date which the present company began operations and, according to the accounting rules of the interstate commerce commission, was not charged against the 1928 net income.

Operating revenues for 1929 were $171,361,385, against $170,554,899, an increase of $806,486. Freight revenues increased $950,010. Mail revenues gained $651,126, of which $237,538 was a retroactive increase for the first seven months of 1928.

Allows Great Western to Issue Promissory Notes

Southern Pacific Co. Reports $48,360,783 Net

New York, April 16.—(AP)—The Southern Pacific company and its wholly controlled affiliated companies today reported 1929 net income of $48,360,783, equal to $12.95 a share. This compared with $39,876,657, or $10.71 a share in 1928.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

New York, April 16.—Stocks beat a highly irregular course throughout today's trading session. Steel shares gave a pretty fair account of themselves, thanks to the midweekly trade journal reviews reporting seasonal gains in some directions in the industry. The motors were generally heavy and the utilities mixed. Some of the oils touched better levels and the leading merchandise issues were helped by reports of heavy Easter trade.

About two dozen stocks sold to new highs for the year and really spectacular gains were recorded by a number of specialties, including Eastman Kodak, Case Threshing Machine, and Vanadium corporation. The bears, however, were not without their ratio when the day's account was cast up and a pretty hefty one it was, too. Checker Cab, Southern Railway, Crown Cork, Goodrich and Goodyear, Hupp Motor, Cash Register, Air Reduction—these and many more were dragged down sharply by too much selling.

Money Tone Easier.

Money was a trifle easier in tone so far as demand funds were concerned with the relaxation here marking the passing of the strain of midmonthly settlements, the call rate renewing at 4 per cent and later yielding to 3½, there was about as much trade news on the bull side as on the other.

Dealings were the heaviest of the week, amounting to around 4,397,660 shares.

Most of the recognized leaders of the market had a lot of selling to weather from the outset. American Telephone and Telegraph took a tumble of nearly ten points on a flood of

Consider Railroad Bonds

In Building a Well Balanced Investment Account

FOR over half a century, railroad securities have played a very prominent part in American finance. Our great railroads, with their vast network of tracks covering the entire country, are, and will continue to be, indispensable to our economic existence. The basic nature of their business has given the railroads a remarkably stable and dependable return on their invested capital.

Railroad securities, accordingly, rate as premier investments. Since the industry is basic and the services rendered indispensable, it is only logical to expect that this great industry will continue to be among the first to share in the normal increase in business that comes with a growth in population and material wealth.

It is the strong position of our railroads from both a financial and operating standpoint that makes railroad bonds excellent securities to add stability to the investment accounts of both individual investors and institutions.

MEETING THE NEEDS OF CONSERVATIVE INVESTORS

MAJESTIC STOCK MAKES SHOWING; RISES 10 POINTS

Harassed Short Interest Aids Movement.

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

Majestic Household Utilities was the big show on the Chicago stock board yesterday. Aided by a harassed short interest, the new issue which is being brought out by the Grigsby-Grunow company soared 12½ points to touch 60½, later easing to 58, where it closed with a net gain of 10 points. Sales in the issue amounted to about 58,000 shares, by far the heaviest turnover of the day.

Grigsby, which holds a 25 per cent stock interest in Majestic, was strong in sympathy. Stock of the radio company ran up above 23, but settled back to 22 before the close. In a letter sent to stockholders of the company, President B. J. Grigsby explained the method of financing the new firm.

Sees Mutual Benefit.

"It is apparent," he said, "that if the capital required were to be raised through sale of additional stock of this company the number of shares necessary to be sold for that purpose would be large and might be disproportionate to the number of shares representing the present invested capital of the company. That evident contingency would be highly prejudicial to your interest as stockholders. Furthermore the established business of this corporation would thereby be subjected to the uncertainties of a new enterprise.

"Through a common management it is expected that economies will be accomplished which will be of mutual benefit to both companies. The interests of stockholders of Grigsby-Grunow company have been protected through the company's acquisition of 125,000 shares of the affiliated company."

The rest of the list failed to keep pace with the fast stepping newcomer, but the close found many issues with substantial gains and most of the active shares moderately improved.

Merger Reports.

Reports of impending merger developments for Jefferson Electric brought buying in the issue and the price moved forward 2½ points. President J. A. Bennan reports that orders indicate that the half year period will be as good as the corresponding period of 1929.

Foote Brothers Gear was another strong spot, advancing an even 2 on sales of 28,000 shares. It is rumored that the company is planning to consolidate with another road building machinery manufacturing concern. Process Corporation was up nearly 2, while E. L. Bruce and National Standard made modest advances.

Inland Utilities gained 1½ to 44½. The company is planning the acquisition of natural gas properties in West Virginia and Kentucky, it was revealed yesterday with the listing of 50,000 shares of additional shares of the corporation. Proceeds will be used to retire funded debt and develop present properties.

Associated Telephone and Telegraph was up a fraction. A preliminary report of the company indicates earnings for the year ended Dec. 31 approximated $1,616,484, as compared with $443,649 in the preceding year. The formal report will be issued next week.

Chicago Board of Trade Stocks

Stocks in the main averaged lower yesterday, with Mining Corporation of Canada under pressure, breaking from 2¼ to 1⅞ on selling of 1,100 shares, the most activity in that issue for many weeks. Fractional gains were made by National Recording Pump, which sells ex dividend today.

BOOSTS CAPITAL

WILLOUGHBY G. WALLING.

The Personal Loan and Savings bank has increased its capital from $1,500,000 to $2,000,000, according to an announcement yesterday by Willoughby G. Walling, president. The capital increase completes the bank's financial program initiated last November, when the Personal Home Mortgage company was incorporated with capital of $500,000.

FUCHS LEASES CHATEAU HOTEL FOR TEN YEARS

A. White, who operates a number of hotels, has leased from Albert Fuchs for ten years the Chateau hotel at 3820-38 Broadway. Mr. Fuchs, a former Chicago real estate man and florist, is now a resident of Santa Barbara, Cal. The lease closed yesterday calls for a rental of $2,175 monthly from June 1, 1930, to March 1, 1935, $2,320 monthly to Sept. 1, 1937, and $2,465 monthly for the balance of the term. The Chateau is six stories high and contains 145 rooms. Lefkovits & Lefkovits were attorneys for the lessee.

News and Gossip of Stock Marts

Forms Banking Connection.

The Republican Steel corporation has formed a new and important banking connection in Wall street with the election of Tom M. Girdler, its president, to the board of directors of the new Chase-Equitable-Interstate bank board. Nor would the advantages of the new connection to be entirely one sided, for Republic undoubtedly will play an important part in the development of the steel industry during the next few years, it is believed, moreover, it may have some profitable underwriting business to hand out.

Investment Trusts.

Investment trusts apparently are still reflecting the effect of public neglect, and except for a few of the lower priced issues, there is almost no outside interest. Some realizing has been taking place in this group, but in the main the selling is very scattered. Even Lehman corporation's sharp rise on the big board has failed to stimulate activity. Lehman was formerly on the curb.

Stein Cosmetics.

It is estimated that net earnings of the Stein Cosmetics company for the fiscal year ending April 30, 1930, will be $150,000, equivalent to $1.30 a share on the common stock. Outlook for the new year is even more favorable than these earnings indicate, according to the management, which is following a conservative expansion program.

offerings following the announcement of the terms of its new offering of stock to stockholders. The stock, which had been anticipating a most juicy melon, was paying the piper—with the "good news" out.

Radio Churns About.

Radio churned about on reports that an announcement will be made tomorrow of its plan to issue stock to repay General Electric and Westinghouse for money lent toward the purchase of Victor. It staged a little rally toward the last, however, in time to enroll among the day's gainers.

Copper shares were strong at intervals on reports of a considerable pickup in foreign trade of the red metal at newly fixed prices, but final quotations showed little chance as a rule. Much of the buying in this department was attributed to belated covering of stubborn shorts.

In the railroad group, Southern Railway was again conspicuously weak, suffering an additional loss of more than five points. Some of its directors are reported to be hopeful of retaining the present $8 dividend rate at the June meeting in spite of the drop in earnings, but admit they are "open to conviction" if the figures do not justify their optimism. New York Central sold off some three points and Atchison dropped two.

J. I. Case Spurts.

The fresh spurt in J. I. Case, sending it to a new high for the year, was accompanied by reports of an impending stock splitup. The street believes a splitup in the shares is bound to come sooner or later. A considerable element evidently believes there is no time like the present.

Close market observers, particularly those who have been of bearish leaning of late, were surprised by the character of the buying which came into a number of the leading stocks late yesterday and again today. Demand for Steel, American Can, General Electric, and a few other high grade issues came principally from brokers who invariably act for some of the most powerful banking interests in the street.

WHEAT CHANGES TREND; PRICES UP 1 3-4 TO 2 3-8c

Kansas Drought Reports Bring Upturn.

BY CHARLES MICHAELS.

There was a marked change in sentiment yesterday among wheat traders as the result of official and private reports showing that nearly half of the Kansas wheat territory had received little or no rain during the recent storm. There appeared to be little possibility of the drought being immediately broken either there or in parts of Oklahoma, as the forecast was for generally fair.

Many operators who sold out on Tuesday reinstated their lines and there was also heavy short covering. Final trades were at net gains of 1¾@2⅜c with May $1.07⅞@1.08 and July $1.09@1.09¼.

Winnipeg led the advance and closed 2½@3c higher with a marked improvement in the export demand, sales of over 1,000,000 bu, largely Manitobas being estimated by the seaboard, and the trade had intimations that the business had greatly exceeded this figure. Liverpool ignored the decline in North America on Tuesday and closed ⅝@¾d higher on short covering and small Argentina shipments.

Fear Dry Weather Talk.

Messages from the southwest generally were of a more bullish tenor than for sometime past, and the Southwestern Millers Federation in session at Kansas City estimated that unless the dry sections received rain by May 1, the state might not raise over 100,000,000 bu. Official reports from the American and Canadian northwest showed that the precipitation there had been too light to furnish other than surface moisture. Seeding in the American northwest is nearing completion and will be out of the way with another week of good weather.

Scattered commission house selling was in evidence in the May wheat delivery a good part of the day, and the discount under July narrowed to 1⅛c at the last against ½c on Tuesday. It was the gossip of the trade that the government is now long more cash and May wheat than at any time since it started its market operations, and have sufficient futures bought to cause congestion.

In some quarters it is expected that the government will shortly start to advance values now that spring wheat seeding is out of the way, and it appears to have accomplished its desire to reduce the area around 10 per cent. Owing to the drought in the southwest and lack of subsoil moisture in the spring wheat territory, the market is expected to be very susceptible to aggressive buying.

May Corn Acts Tight.

Corn market showed a much firmer undertone and prices averaged higher. May acted tight and gained around ½c on the July, with some buying credited to a leading local short. The finish was at net gains of 1@1⅛c with May 84@84⅛c, and July 85⅝@85¾c. Local industries were good buyers in the sample market and the receipts of 140 cars were readily disposed of. Lake navigation has opened and the local grain fleet is expected to clear shortly, with 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 bu corn scheduled to leave before the end of the month, which would materially reduce the stock. Buenos Aires closed 1@1½c higher.

Milnor Buys Kellogg's Seat on Board of Trade

George S. Milnor, president of the Grain Stabilization corporation of the federal farm board, has taken the membership in the Chicago Board of Trade which was purchased March 8 by W. G. Kellogg, resigned head of all the federal farm board corporations. Mr. Milnor's sponsors are F. A. Miller of James E. Bennett & Co. and James A. White of Lamson Bros. & Co.

Mr. Kellogg is said to have had a three years' contract with the federal farm board, or its subsidiaries, at a salary of $35,000 a year.

HOG PRICES HIGHER

A larger trade with buying of July lard attributed to New York interests and general covering by shorts advanced prices yesterday as offerings from various sources were well taken. At the close lard was 10 to 12½c higher, September leading. Bellies were 5 to 7½c higher. Hogs were 10c higher with receipts lighter than a week and a year ago. Cash trade was only fair. Export clearances from the seaboard were 1,168,365 lbs of lard and 17,400 lbs of bacon. Prices follow:

Estimated receipts at Chicago today: 5,500 cattle, 21,000 hogs, 17,000 sheep.

Cattle and lambs continued to decline yesterday while hogs recovered 10@15c of the recent loss. A new bottom was established in the lamb market when top for wool stock dropped to $9.50, the lowest since November, 1921. On the corresponding day in 1929 top wool lambs sold at $18.00 and two years ago the top was $17.50.

Cattle prices are averaging nearly $2.00 lower than a year ago, while yesterday's average price of hogs shows a $1.45 decline, compared with the same day in 1929.

Medium and heavy hogs met brisk demand at 10@15c higher prices and best grades of light advanced mostly 10c. Both the extreme top and general average price showed a 10c gain at $10.45 and $10.05, respectively, but are still 30@35c under the high point early last week.

September Heavy, $10.40.

Trading in hog futures was more active at steady to 10c higher prices, with May light at $10.55@10.60 getting most of the attention. A lot of five carloads opened the market at $10.55. April light sold at $10.50. September heavy at $10.40 equaled the highest paid for that class since the market was established about six weeks ago. The volume of trading was the largest since middle of last week.

The general cattle market entered semi-demoralized condition yesterday at new low price levels for the year. With the exception of a few specialties suitable for eastern outlet, demand was as narrow as any time this year and hundreds were carried into the afternoon on sharply lower bids.

Scattered sales uncovered losses of 50@75c since last week's close. Some were off $1.00. Choice 1,326 lb steers topped the list at $14.50 and a string of 93, averaging 1,267 lbs; made $14.35. Few others passed $13.50. The bulk stopped at $10.50@13.25, while several lots of 800@900 lb steers as low as $8.75@9.00 were of beef merit. Cows and heifers were dull at the week's 50@75c decline. Calves tumbled 50c more. Stockers and feeders were slow and weak to unevenly lower.

Sheep Prices Decline.

Additional declines of 25c were recorded in the lamb market yesterday, with closing sales 75c to $1.00 under the high point of last week. Aged sheep showed the first substantial break in many weeks when buyers took off 15@25c yesterday. Handy ewes sold to a local packer at $6.25, being comparable to kinds at $6.75 two weeks ago.

Thousands of wool lambs were purchased at $9.00@9.25, with the best light at $9.50. Shorn lambs sold at $8.50 and below. The few native spring lambs bought for Eastern holiday festivities cost $15.00@18.00, with several sales to Greeks at $19.00@22.00. This demand drops off abruptly directly after the holiday, however, and a break of several dollars may be expected.

RUBBER.

NEW YORK, April 16.—(AP)—RUBBER—Futures closed steady: May, 15c; July, 15.40c; September, 15.80c. New contracts: May, 15.20c; July, 15.54c; September, 15.94c. Spot smoked ribbed, 15c.

COTTON UP $1.50 A BALE

Despite several unfavorable conditions in the early trading cotton markets had a stronger undertone yesterday and closed at nearly the highest of the day. Early cables, however, were rather depressing but apparently the market was oversold and in the covering movement, particularly in the old crop deliveries found limited offerings and the close was almost the best prices with net gains of 27 to 35 points, being more than $1.50 a bale.

Unsatisfactory labor conditions in Manchester had but a limited influence. Prices follow:

NATURAL GAS
The Most Profitable Utility

APRIL, 1929
Four Subsidiaries • Six Communities

Ten Subsidiaries • Thirty Communities and still growing

Beginning conservatively, planning carefully, developing logically—this is the history, in brief, of Southern Union Gas Company, now one of the leading distributors of natural gas in the entire Southwest.

Efficient service to three or four diversified territories has led within the past six months to the acquisition of Albuquerque and Santa Fé, New Mexico and Fayetteville and Bentonville, Arkansas. More new business is in sight.

There are many practical reasons for the increasing demand for natural gas. It is the world's cheapest fuel available in readily usable form and in sufficient quantity. It contains approximately twice the heat units of manufactured gas. It is easily handled and transported, requires no storage space and no tie-up of capital in fuel inventory, leaves no residue and gives off an even and easily controlled heat.

Fill in and mail the attached coupon and we will forward a brochure on Natural Gas illustrated by views of Southern Union territory.

many will be well in excess of $300,000,000. Radio stock has been very active recently, running up from a year's low of 34¾ to a high of 62¾. Westinghouse and General Electric stocks also have advanced sharply since the first of the year. Both of these companies will jointly own about 8,000,000 of Radio's common shares, having a present market value of $476,000,000, in addition to preferred stock.

Owen D. Young, chairman of the executive committee of the Radio Corporation of America, is chairman of the General Electric company. He is generally recognized as the prime mover in the formation of the company and in its subsequent career. Until recently, he was chairman of the R. C. A. board, which position is now held by Maj. Gen. James G. Harbord.

Early last year, prior to the absorption of Victor Talking Machine company and the Orpheum and Keith-Albee vaudeville circuits by Radio, General Electric held about 21.5 per cent of the A preferred. Westinghouse at that time held 2.4 per cent of the common stock and 12.6 per cent of the preferred.

Gives Joint Control.

Through a plan for increasing the capital stock of Radio corporation from its present authorized 7,500,000 common shares to 15,000,000 shares, General Electric and Westinghouse will receive 6,580,375 of the new shares, which is equal to the common shares now issued and outstanding. General Electric will receive three-fifths of the new stock and Westinghouse will receive two-fifths which, combined with the radio stock these companies now own, will give them full joint control with 51.3 per cent of the stock.

General Electric will own about 5,300,000 shares of the authorized 15,000,000 common shares when the new stock is added to what was previously held, and Westinghouse will own about 2,700,000 shares, giving the companies combined ownership of about 8,000,000 common shares. The company will have outstanding a total of 13,160,750 shares of the authorized 15,000,000, compared with 6,580,375 now outstanding of an authorized 7,500,000 shares.

Meet Next Month.

Stockholders at a meeting on May 6 will also be asked to approve an increase in the B preferred stock from 813,365 no par value shares to 1,500,000 no par shares. Part of this increase in the preferred will be given to General Electric and Westinghouse in order to close out current accounts. The remainder will be held unissued. The transfer of the proposed new stock will include reimbursement to General Electric and Westinghouse of $32,000,000, plus interest, on cash advanced by them in connection with the Radio-Victor Talking Machine merger last year.

At present Westinghouse holds a joint contract on a 40-60 basis with General Electric for the exclusive manufacture of all radio equipment for the Radio corporation.

An important feature of the proposed transfer of shares for properties and patents is that General Electric and Westinghouse will relinquish their stock holdings in Radio's subsidiaries, controlling them instead through joint control of the parent company. Radio Corporation will acquire all these subsidiary stocks held by General Electric and Westinghouse. It will acquire 50 per cent of the stock of the National Broadcasting company, giving the parent company 100 per cent ownership. N. B. C. operates radio stations WEAF, WJZ, and WRC, stations WGY at Schenectady and KDKA at Pittsburgh will remain in the hands of General Electric and Westinghouse, respectively.

SYNOPSIS.

Catherine West of Boston, on her way to Paris, meets Geoffrey Macadam in the Havre to Paris train. Macadam is an Englishman who lives in Paris. Catherine tells him that she is going to visit her cousin's widow, Mme. Belmont Bender. She is a little apprehensive about the coming visit because she had received just before sailing a letter from Hermione Cushing who tells her that Mme. Bender is far from well. Yet he doesn't know the widow very well. He had heard that she was ill. Arrived in Paris, Catherine is a little disappointed when her cousin's chauffeur is not at the station to meet her. Geoffrey sees her into a taxi, giving her his address and telephone number. He tells her that he will be anxious to know how things are at the Bender apartment, and she promises to call him. Arrived at Mme. Bender's apartment, the concierge tells her that madame is very ill. Catherine waits at the door for some time before the ring is answered. Finally Eduardo, the butler, responds to the ring. She is treated coldly by the servants, and Jeanne, Mme. Bender's maid, suggests that she go to a hotel. Catherine insists on staying in the apartment as she is suspicious of the servants. Jeanne tells her that Mme. Bender attempted to commit suicide the night before. The next morning Catherine goes in to see Germaine Bender, who is pathetically glad to see her. She tells Catherine how she had taken poison by mistake and Catherine believes her. Geoffrey calls up Catherine and asks her to dine with him. She accepts the invitation and he goes to the Bender apartment to call for her. Arrived at the door, he finds Jeanne quarreling with a man.

RELIEF.

Here the brawlers caught sight of Geoffrey and lapsed into sullen silence. With slow reluctance the chauffeur withdrew his foot and turned away, breathing hard. Geoffrey had a glimpse of a white, enraged face, the mutinous eyes blazing. He was a youngish man of decent appearance and, contrary to Geoffrey's first impression, seemed to be perfectly sober. He shot a glance at the newcomer as though of half a mind to appeal to him for support, thought better of it, and made off toward the stairs. The woman gave a snort of triumph.

"Another time," she muttered in vitriolic accents, "he will not get past the concierge. I'll see to that! Making a scene like this in a respectable house!"

"Monsieur——?" she interrogated, with aloof respect.

"Good evening. Will you kindly tell Mlle. West that M. Macadam is here?"

On hearing the name a subtle alteration came over the pronounced features. The lips drew back in a mechanical smile, the brown eyes scrutinized the visitor with searching keenness.

"Ah-h-h!" breathed the maid with a prolonged inflection, "It is for mademoiselle! Come in, monsieur. I will inform mademoiselle."

It was needless to do so, however, for at that moment Catherine, ready in her coat and hat, issued from the salon. At once the expression of her face arrested Geoffrey's attention to such an extent that self-consciousness deserted him and he forgot everything except curiosity and concern. He could not say that she looked frightened; that was too strong a word; but her shining eyes were wide with bewilderment, and in each cheek burned a spot of crimson evidently not rouge. She approached him eagerly, hand outstretched with the informality of an old friend.

"O!" she cried, with what he fancied was relief in her tone, "how nice to see you! I've got such a lot to talk to you about."

She faltered in the midst of the last sentence, as though disconcerted by the fixed gaze of the maid's eyes, somehow at variance with her smiling mouth. Neither she nor Geoffrey had any idea as to how much English the woman understood, but both detected a quick narrowing of the lids not altogether friendly.

"Mademoiselle has the key I gave her?" inquired the woman with smooth solicitude.

"Certainly, Jeanne, it is in my bag."

"And if you should come in late, mademoiselle, you will be careful not to make a noise?" pursued the other with perfect suavity. "It is so easy for madame to be disturbed."

"I'll be very quiet," returned the girl. "And I shan't be at all late."

Rather quickly she preceded Geoffrey through the door, and as he reached her side he thought that the color staining her cheeks burned a still brighter hue, but she was a little preoccupied and said nothing till the cage of the lift was sinking to the ground floor. Then suddenly she let herself go with a burst of confidence, though her voice remained lowered.

"O, how thankful I am to get away," she cried, with a half ashamed laugh. "That flat is getting horribly on my nerves. Silly, isn't it?" she added, with an appeal for tolerance.

She hesitated, biting her lip.

"Yes and no. I don't know what to say. Mostly it's just a—a feeling. . . . What happened a few minutes ago, for instance. Did you see a man talking to Jeanne as you came up?"

"Yes, a chauffeur. I fancy I know his face. Probably I've seen him driving the Benders' car. They were having some sort of shindy."

"So that's who it was. I wondered. You see, I heard nearly the whole of the dispute, I couldn't help it. It was quite right, of course, for Jeanne to refuse to let him see Mme. Bender, but—well, she was abusively rude to him from the beginning, and I somehow felt he was genuine and believed he had a real grievance. Odd for him to be dismissed without any reason, don't you think? Not a bit like my cousin to do that. She wouldn't hurt any one for the world. I can't understand it."

It flashed into Geoffrey's mind that in all probability the dismissal had come from the maid herself, in which case Mme. Bender knew nothing about it, but he merely nodded in silence. After all it was only supposition, founded on a knowledge of the autocratic ways of old and trusted servants.

"O, well," . . . and Catherine smiled up at him, giving her shoulders a shake as though to throw off an irksome load. "Why should I bother about it? It's certainly not my affair. Let's talk of something quite different."

"Right. The first thing to determine is, where shall we dine? A lively, riotous place, or a quiet one?"

"A quiet one," she answered quickly. "We can talk better there. I really do want to tell you about a number of things—chiefly something that happened night before last. Quite dreadful—I still haven't got over the shock of hearing about it."

"What was that?" he demanded abruptly, scenting the perturbation in her voice.

However, they were abreast of the concierge's loge now, and she made no attempt to reply until she was safely in the car beside him. Then briefly she told the unfortunate incident of two nights ago, her cousin's narrow escape from a death of her own seeking. She saw his face cloud with the gravity of the news.

"Good God! So it's as bad as that! I had no idea."

"I'm afraid it is. But—let's not discuss it now. She's recovered, that's the main thing. Later I'll give you all the details I know. I want awfully to enjoy myself now."

He agreed with alacrity, and they spoke of more cheerful topics while the Citroen conveyed them smoothly down the Champs Elysée to a dignified, typically French restaurant in one of the grand boulevards where the food promised to be excellent and the service unobtrusive. Here, seated against the wall in a secluded corner, they gave rapt attention to the menu, while an elderly functionary bent over them, tenderly solicitous, treating their gastronomic interest with the respect it deserved.

In feminine eyes it is no small asset in a man to be able to order a worthy repast. Catherine's opinion of Geoffrey Macadam rose by swift degrees as he displayed both expert knowledge and taste in the choosing of admirable dishes, and she told herself that, staid and almost severe though she had originally thought him, he gave no evidence of lack of sophistication. The first sip of the golden, icy cocktail stamped the evening with success, and by the time the oeufs Bourgognaises appeared, adorned with their incomparable sauce, she was ready to pay her new friend the tribute of a willing admiration.

By Mae Tinée.

Good Morning!

Out-of-door westerns usually take themselves seriously. Here's one that doesn't.

It's hero is a gay, kidding caballero, more adept at shooting the bull, as our charming colloquialism has it, than, you feel, he might be at fighting the bull, though tales of his prowess ring th ough Texas and Mexico, where the scenes of this story are laid. He himself tells a story that makes you wonder, to the peppery Lolita, who has declared that nowhere in the whole wide world is there another such matador as her brother, Antonio. Says Don Carlos [and he has a string of other names that I couldn't even try to remember!] with flowing gestures, flash of white teeth, and devastating roll of woman slaying eye:

"There was me—all alone. The crowds they cheer. The bulls they come—SEEX of them!—right at me, Don Carlos [de-da-da-de-da-da-de-da-da, etc.] . . ."

"Ye-AZ?" scornfully from the maiden related to the so great Antonio. "An' do you keel them ALL, señor?"

"Don' be foolish," says the gentleman with all the names merrily. "No. I run like hell."

This gives you an idea as to the general tone of "Under a Texas Moon," which deals with the adventures, mostly romantic, of Don Carlos, who is loved by all the girls and who kisses and leaves them all till this Lolita snaps her fingers at him and tells him in very plain language that he's no flower she wants blooming in her garden, Then? Well—THEN . . . !

Two singing, banjo playing comrades accompany him hither and yon and are always in the offing to render sweet music at a given sign.

"The music! Where he come from!" always inquires the Maid of the Moment in hushed tones.

Don Carlos, soulfully: "'EAVEN!"

Besides being a great lover, Don Carlos is a business man. He has agreed, for the sum of $7,000, to catch some cattle rustlers and return all the cattle they have stolen to the rightful owner. DOES HE . . . Ah, is he not Don Carlos, and so on?

"Under a Texas Moon" is all in technicolor. It has beautiful maidens, fine photography, and scenery, and sets that are nice. Frank Faye is an elegant actor and the players supporting him know their business. Dialogue is snappy in spots.

The idea behind the production is great, and, as is, the piece hands you quite a few laughs, but due to not particularly adept direction the action drags considerably and the humor becomes blurred. Therefore, "Under a Texas Moon" is not the brilliant satire that it set out to be—and might have been.

THE CAST.

David Wade	Monte Blue
Moira	Myrna Loy
Stella	Betty Compson
Tom Shane	Noah Beery
The Judge	Ivan Simpson
Hank	Jack Ackroyd
Ma Blackney	Rose Dorne

KIND: South sea island melodrama.
QUALITY: Inferior.
PHOTOGRAPHY: Good—and there's some nice water.
ACTING: Too good for the story.
DIRECTION: Good enough for the story.

STORY: Unbelievable and uninteresting.

REMARKS: Picture furnished work for a lot of extras, who have a lovely time pretending they're terrible savages. Fashion note: Earrings and cretonne bathing trunks are worn by the men. The only really convincing acting is done by a parrot, which doesn't do anything.

The Inquiring Reporter

Every Day He Asks Five Persons, Picked at Random, a Question.

The Question.

In learning to drive a car, what was your greatest difficulty?

The Answers.

Lester Eames, 722 North 7th street, De Kalb, Ill., farmer.—I never had any difficulty. The difficulties come in figuring out what the other fellow is going to do. I always know what I want to do.

Mrs. V. V. Parsons, 2630 North Racine avenue, housewife.—Backing out of tight places. I couldn't watch the wheels, stick my head out to see where I was going, and manage the mechanism of the car at the same time.

Charles J. Duffy, 801 41st street, drug salesman. — My difficulty was in getting my feet to synchronize in controlling the gas and the clutch. I let the gas feed too rapidly, thereby causing the car to make a jerky start.

Miss C. J. Hocy, 418 Linden avenue, Wilmette, Ill., real estate broker. — My greatest difficulty was shifting gears. I could do everything else with ease and confidence. Once when I was shifting gears a man asked me: "Where's the boiler factory?"

John Brooks, 1116 North Clark street, machinist. — I have been a mechanic all my life, and the car was nothing new to me. I have always enjoyed trying out new cars to see how they worked. I had more trouble learning to ride a bicycle.

Hoover Will Address Editors' Convention in Washington Saturday

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—Editors from all sections of the country were arriving here tonight for the opening tomorrow afternoon of the annual meeting of the American Society of Newspaper Editors.

Walter M. Harrison of the Oklahoma City Times, president of the society, will call the first session to order soon after noon tomorrow. After that the editors will be greeted on behalf of the Washington correspondents by Norman Baxter, president of the National Press club. The meeting will continue through Saturday and will close that night with a banquet at which President Hoover, H. Wickham Steed, formerly of the London Times, and André Geraud [Pertinax], political editor of the Echo de Paris, will speak.

The address of President Hoover will be only to the editors and the usual custom of not publishing his remarks will be followed.

Among the speakers on the three day program will be Edward H. Butler, editor and publisher of the Buffalo Evening News; Marlen E. Pew, editor of Editor and Publisher; Senator Vandenberg of Michigan; Joseph Hostetler of Cleveland; Justice Ernest I. Edgecomb of the Appellate division of the Supreme court of New York.

'Rescued' Faint Princess; Will Wed U. S. Girl

Indiana Knight Chooses Hoosier Fiancee.

Newland De Pauw Knight, the New Albany, Ind., youth who afforded the "greatest thrill" of her American tour to Princess Ileana of Rumania, according to a statement she made on her return to Europe in the summer of 1927, is to be married Tuesday night to Miss Virginia Bash Voyles of New Albany, Ind.

VIRGINIA B. VOYLES

W. DE P. KNIGHT.

Knight, who is associated with the Central Trust Company of Illinois, was a student in Culver Military academy at the time of the princess' visit. When informed through dispatches from abroad of the princess' statement, Aug. 8, 1927, the young man said he had had no romantic sentiments.

On an automobile trip with her and Prince Nicholas, in company with C. G. Culver and Col. Clavin P. Chambers, Princess Ileana, who was driving, fainted following a near collision with a truck.

"I did what any one would do," Knight explained. "In helping Col. Chambers carry the princess upstairs to a doctor's office, her maid removed Ileana's shoes and stockings and I massaged her feet and ankles."

Knight is a son of Col. E. V. Knight, a wealthy lumberman and furniture manufacturer, who won distinction in the Spanish-American war. The marriage will be in the home of Miss Voyles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Voyles of New Albany. They will be at home after June 1 at 1400 Lake Shore drive.

THE STAGE

MEI LAN-FANG closed his highly successful engagement at the Princess theater last night and prepared to entrain for San Francisco with his troupe. On April 23 he will begin an engagement of four weeks or longer there. Aside from that his plans are indefinite. He may visit Los Angeles and set up his tent of oriental dreams before the camera worshipers. He may remain in this country through the summer, studying our customs and our language. Mr. Mei is a very rich young man who believes in doing what he likes.

"Strictly Dishonorable" will celebrate its 100th performance at the Adelphi theater next Monday night. Holy week has not had the traditional depressing effect upon its box office receipts and the little comedy about a foolish virgin, modern style, may easily run well into the summer. But when it has worn out its welcome here Manager A. H. Woods knows what will be its successor at the Adelphi. It is a play called "For Chorus Girls Only," written by John Montague. The piece is still in manuscript and will have its first time on any stage here.

The Goodman theater announces that it will withdraw "Kolpak Must Dance" after tonight's performance. "Holiday" will be revived for afternoon and evening performances on Friday and Saturday of this week.

A comedy by Franz [or Ferenc, if you speak Hungarian] Molnar called "One, Two, Three" will be one of Gilbert Miller's important importations for the next stage season. It is a current hit in Berlin, where Max Pallenberg has its leading rôle. Mr. Miller plans to import this actor also, in a German repertory. Arthur Byron, who has been acting in "The Criminal Code" this season, has been engaged for the Pallenberg rôle in "One, Two, Three."

Arch Selwyn, the manager, who is interested in the American presentation of "Bitter Sweet," denies that Evelyn Laye, the lovely English star of this Noel Coward operetta, will appear under another management in "Princess Charming." Mr. Selwyn says that Miss Laye will tour in "Bitter Sweet" next season, after she makes a talking picture.

Lillian Foster, the American actress whose activities in London included the much paragraphed slapping of a dramatic critic's face, has returned to New York. She is engaged to appear in "The Trimmer," which was formerly known as "Reckless Daughters." The play will reach Broadway the week of May 5. C. C.

LONG NOSED MONKEY NOT MISSING LINK, SAYS YOUNG SCIENTIST

New York, April 16.—(AP)—Theodore Seelmann, young explorer, was en route home to Chicago tonight with a present for Prof. Fay-Cooper Cole, head of the department of anthropology of the University of Chicago.

Under Mr. Seelmann's Pullman berth is the head of a long nosed monkey, pickled in alcohol, contained in a tin can. Mr. Seelmann said he was told by scientists in Java that it is the only specimen ever brought into this country. Mr. Seelmann is afraid newspapers will call it the "missing link," which he swears it is not.

A news item in THE TRIBUNE last Sunday state that Michael Klem, secretary of the Dnipro Building and Loan association, was accused of embezzling between $50,000 and $60,000 from that organization. Attorney B. Pelechowicz announced yesterday that the loan association lost only a small part of that sum and that the remainder was lost to individuals who deal privately with Klem in his real estate business. The attorney said that the loan association is fully covered by insurance.

Chicago Temple, 12 to 12:45—Auspices Chicago Church federation and the First Methodist Episcopal church. The Rev. Dr. Charles W. Gilkey. Subject: "The Comradeships of Christ."

Garrick theater, 12:10 to 12:30—Auspices Episcopal Church club. The Rev. Dr. John Henry Hopkins, rector emeritus Episcopal Church of the Redeemer.

Great Northern theater, 12 to 1—Auspices Missouri Synod Lutheran churches.

Cohan's theater, 12:10 to 12:50—Auspices of the Federation of Lutheran brotherhoods.

Adelphi theater, 12 to 1—Auspices Salvation Army. Commissioner Samuel L. Brendle, D. D.

St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church, Adams and Des Plaines streets. Mass at 12:10.

BY THE REV. JOHN EVANS.

Sharp conflict and not vesper quietness marked Christ's last week on earth. This thought was presented by Salvation Army Commissioner Samuel L. Brendle in his noon day Lenten sermon yesterday at the Adelphi theater. He contrasted the present day quiet of the church services during Holy week with the storm, tumult and controversy of the climax week of Christ's earthly career.

"Christ was a lone man pitted against a whole nation," Dr. Brendle declared. "Holy week was the evening of Christ's earthly life, but it was not marked by vesper services. It was a week of conflict with the wits and wills of wily enemies. Those normally that were enemies to each other forgot their enmities and united in a truce to entrap Christ."

Commissioner Brendle then pointed out Christ's patience, together with the wisdom and insight with which he answered his opponents and then confounded them with revealing questions. Finally, after many conflicts, Dr. Brendle said Christ uttered "the most terrible words that ever were pronounced against designing men and then passed from the temple, calling out, 'O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, how oft would I have gathered thy children together.' After this call he retired to meditation and prayer before giving his last message to his disciples."

Christians should follow Christ's example in taking time for spiritual retirement for meditation, prayer and repentance, so advised the Rev. Dr. John Henry Hopkins at the Lenten services conducted by the Episcopal Church club in the Garrick theater yesterday.

Dr. Hopkins pointed out that the same sort of avarice that brought Christ's betrayal is the principal sin of the present day and that "the faults of the betrayer are found in many Christians of today."

"One of our chief needs in these rushing, crowded days is more opportunity for spiritual retirement," Dr. Hopkins continued. "Clergy and laity alike should pay more heed to quiet days and retreats. There is so much loneliness and too little retirement for most of us today. Christ has much to tell us if we would listen in reverent quiet for His voice."

Religious leaders of all faiths are voicing enthusiasm for the public response to the Lenten season this year. They declare that the city never has turned so wholeheartedly to the devotions of the pre-Easter season.

Holy Week in Rome.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

ROME, April 16.—Great crowds of worshipers, including members of pilgrimages and American tourists, today thronged the churches of this center of Christianity as the classic and traditional church rites of Holy week, which culminates with Easter, were begun.

Holy Wednesday marks the beginning of the psalmodic reënactment of the Golgotha tragedy, with specially impressive services being held today in St. Peter's, Santa Maria Maggiore, San Carlino, and St. John of Lateran. The ceremonies are those of mourning, evoking the days preceding the crucifixion.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY

Washington, D. C., April 16.—Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, sister of Vice President Curtis, assisted Mrs. Walter F. George and Mrs. William J. Harris, wives of the senators from Georgia, at the tea they gave this afternoon for the Georgia delegates to the congress of the D. A. R., given at the Democratic Women's club, of which Mrs. J. Borden Harriman is president. The wives of the Georgia members of the house of representatives, Mrs. John Slayton, wife of a former governor of that state, and some of the high officials in the D. A. R. also assisted.

Mrs. Paul M. Linebarger of Chicago was hostess at tea this afternoon in honor of Mrs. Emma C. Fox of Detroit, who for many years has been official parliamentarian for the congresses of the D. A. R.

NEW YORK SOCIETY

New York, April 16.—[Special.]—The engagement was announced today by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bailey of Locust Valley, L. I., of their daughter, Miss Barbara Bailey, to Mr. John Vanneck of New York City.

Mrs. Edward R. Stettinius has returned from her winter home in Bermuda and is at her city residence, on Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Winton G. Rossiter gave a dinner at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Dickinson Peck of Bronxville, who sail Saturday to spend two months in Italy and France.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis H. Booth, accompanied by Mrs. Robert W. Chambers, returned from California, where they have been visiting.

Mrs. Rockhill Brevoort Potts announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Anita Potts, to Mr. John Hunt Marshall of Chestnut Hill, Mass.

Ruth Bryan Owen Brings Prize Pupils to Washington

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—Reaping rewards for a school year's efforts toward dependability, patriot- ism, service and leadership, Ruth Bryan Owen's thirty-six young Florida citizenship prize winners invaded Washington today. They are here for a three day stay in which they will be greeted by President Hoover, pre- sented with medals by Vice President Curtis, and receive other honors be- fitting the one boy and the one girl pronounced by students and faculty members of the best high school citi- zen in each county. Mrs. Owen offered the trip to Washington as prize in each of the eighteen counties in her Florida district.

J. B. Forgan Again Leading City's Red Cross

James B. Forgan was reelected chairman of the Chicago chapter of the American Red Cross at the an- nual meeting held on Tuesday at the headquarters, 616 South Michigan avenue. John W. Scott was reelected vice chairman. Col. A. A. Sprague was named as treasurer to succeed J. M. Dickinson Jr., who resigned.

James T. Nicholson, newly appoint- ed manager, described a year of out- standing achievement for the Red Cross in his report, and made an ap- peal for contributions and member- ships in the next roll call. He said that the receipts of the last roll call were slightly below that of the pre- vious year, while the work for dis- abled veterans and their families had greatly increased.

"Chicageans gave during 1929 to the Red Cross $198,409," the report stated, "in the same period the claims section of the chapter war service de- partment collected on behalf of clients residing within the chapter's jurisdic- tion $219,574, more than $20,000 in ex- cess of what the people gave the Red Cross for all its work in Cook, Du Page, and one-half of Lake counties."

Three high school students will rep- resent more than 600,000 members of the Junior Red Cross in Chicago at the convention of the American Red Cross, to be held in Washington May 5 to 8. They are Charlotte Clark, 15, of Deerfield-Shields High school; Mel- ville Ensminger, 16, of Calumet High school, and Maurice Bame, 18, of the Harvard School for Boys.

The two boys were elected by vote of the Junior Red Cross council made up of representatives of the high schools in the Chicago chapter terri- tory. Charlotte was appointed by the local Red Cross office. Miss Verall D. Wright, director of the Junior group in Chicago, will chaperon the dele- gates.

Al Smith Tells Plan to Curb Scalping of N. Y. Theater Tickets

New York, April 16.—[Special.]—Ex-Gov. Alfred E. Smith, representing the public on the board of governors of the New York Theater league, the recently established organization to abolish exorbitant theater ticket prices, in a statemen today described the purpose of the league as that of bringing the theater within the reach of all the people all the time. Mr. Smith outlined a new plan which pro- vides that tickets will be sold only to licensed brokers, who will have the option of returning all tickets they have been unable to sell to the indi- vidual box offices.

In an agreement drawn up between the brokers and the theatrical man- agers the browers have consented to charge not more than 75 cents in ex- cess of the box office price per ticket. The plan further provides that any broker found violating the agreement shall be subject to having his license revoked.

French City Plans to Reproduce Days of Triumphs of Joan

[Copyright: 1930: By the New York Times.]

PARIS, April 16.—The outstanding event this year, in the fifth century since the feats of Joan of Arc, will be held at Compiegne on April 17 and 18, and on May 25 and 29, in commemora- tion of the maid's entries into the town.

The fetes will be the most gorgeous thus far attempted, surpassing by far the ceremonies at Orleans and Rheims last year. The entire town has been working for six months; more than 3,000 persons in costumes, reproducing in detail those worn in Joan's epoch of the 15th century, will participate in processions. The entire central district of Compiegne, where stand medieval buildings, will assume an appearance as near as possible to the days of Joan's entry.

M. Fournier Sarlovez, mayor of Compiegne, has taken particular pride in directing preparations. Shops will be given false fronts and will display medieval emblems of the different trade guilds.

School Pupils Plant Elm, Honoring Unknown Soldier

An American elm tree was planted as a memorial to the Unknown Soldier during exercises held yesterday at the Lindblom High school, 61st and Lin- coln streets. Fifty gold star mothers attended the dedication as the guests of the student body. The ceremony is an annual event, trees having been dedicated in former years to George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, Luther Burbank, and Clara Barton. Miss Mae Pinkovich, president of the senior class, presided at the program which was ar- ranged by Miss Mary E. Courtenay, dean of girls.

Bringing Home the Bacon.

One winter afternoon I met a girl whom I knew and walked home with her. I asked her if I might carry a small package which she was holding. As my overcoat has a large side pocket, I slipped the package into it. When we reached her house I put my hand into my pocket for the package, but pulled out only the string that was tied around it. Then I tried again, but only the paper came out. Once more I put my hand into my pocket. This time I pulled out a pound of sliced bacon. H. G. M.

Co-eds Hear Lecture on What to Wear to Best Advantage

While State street stores were thronged yesterday with women in search of the latest modes in bright spring frocks and Easter bonnets, Anna Helga Hong, professor of cos- tume and design at Northwestern uni- versity, was laying down the rules of proper costuming to 400 co-eds.

Prof. Hong emphasized first of all that women should choose designs to suit the individual, that clothing should show simplicity, but be distinc- tive, indicating the personality of the wearer.

"Neutral colors such as beige and gray are proper for street wear, and those past college should avoid gay colors," she declared. "One color scheme should be chosen for a season, and all accessories should be bought to fit that scheme."

Prof. Hong calls the head the key- note of the color chart—green, grays and blues for the blonds and the gray- headed, warm red, tan, orange and purple for the brunettes, and colors of not too much of a contrast for the intermediates. She warned against wearing imitations such as in fur, jewelry and leather.

Tribune Cook Book

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

Smelling Up the House.

A year or two ago a leading novel of the season described as highly ob- jectionable the smell of cauliflower while being cooked. Naturally this made an indescribable impression on my mind, because there was thus pic- tured such an injured cauliflower.

When tea is brewing and it smells up the house, as it can, the product is a highly injurious beverage. When the odor of coffee is sent away to the neighbors and even out along the street the people who drink that cof- fee are doing themselves some or even great harm, but they are likely to blame the coffee in general instead of the way they have prepared their cof- fee.

That cauliflower that smelled up the house when it was done could not have been the beautiful white, tinged with green, that perfectly cooked cau- liflower should be. When it is thus white it is as delicious as lobster, and when served with Hollandaise sauce it may seem more like a sea food than a vegetable.

To get white cauliflower the vege- table must be cooked quickly as well as gently. Break it into its flower- ettes, wash, drain well, scald with boiling water, rinse with cold water till it is thoroughly chilled. It is not good to leave it tepid. Put one layer of flowerettes in a flat bottomed alum- inum kettle with a close fitting cover. Add one-half cup of water, and when this boils up turn the fire low. The condition secured may be such that the cauliflower is practically steamed till tender, and if unwilted it will cook in ten minutes or perhaps fifteen is a good average. Twenty minutes at the most is enough when the cauli- flower is a little old. With perfect cooking it needs not a single addition in the way of seasoning, but plain melted butter with a little salt will enhance it, and if, in addition, we have a few drops of lemon juice it will be more piquant.

This cauliflower with hot melted butter, and if we have no lemon juice a teaspoon of vinegar to two table- spoons of butter, may satisfy the peo- ple who otherwise would call for the unwholesome pickle. The line between perfection and imperfection in cauli- flower cooking is an exceedingly fine one.

Circus Moves to Stadium; to Be There 12 Days

The Sells-Floto circus settled down yesterday in its new home in the Chi- cago Stadium after three weeks at the Coliseum and will remain there for the next twelve days before starting its road season. The circus elephants and most of the rest of the menagerie are housed in a tent on Madison street ad- joining the Stadium.

Today 300 patients at the Great Lakes hospital and the U. S. Veterans' hospital, North Chicago, will journey to the Chicago Stadium. A six car North Shore line special will carry them direct to the Madison street sta- tion on the Logan Square branch of the rapid transit lines, arriving there at 1:30 p. m. The special will leave the Madison street station at 4:50 p. m. on the return trip.

Washington Elm Junior to Be Planted by Legion

A little tree, grown from a cutting from the Washington elm, the tree under whose branches George Wash- ington took command of the Ameri- can army in 1775 in Cambridge, Mass., will be planted by Beverly Hills post of the American Legion at a patriotic ceremony next Saturday in Ridge park, 96th street and Longwood drive. The cutting was taken from the roots of the Washington elm by H. Roy Mosnat, Morgan Park botanist, when that tree was chopped down some time ago.

Girls Still Dream of Ideal Man; Tall, Dark 'n' Wealthy

BY DORIS BLAKE.

A tall, dark man with an adequate income and wide experience!

That, my boys, is what a body of young women voted on as the ideal suitor. An art school standard, it might be put, since it was at an art institution the vote was taken.

If you don't measure up to color and height (figuratively and financial- ly) there is still hope for you if you keep away from red neckties and pastel colored accessories. They, it would seem, would destroy even the tall, dark ideal suitor's desirability.

Whenever this tall, dark man pref- erence is voiced as the ideal suitor, and it is done frequently, one begins to wonder how the little fellows man- age to get at the heart of girls the way they do. How the graying heads, the bald heads, the fair, the golden, the red and brown of varying heights, shapes and incomes manage to get a line on the good sales talks they have. They have them, as per wit- ness the constant procession in the parson's direction, the girls beaming, the men smiling all for the moment, anyway, forgetful of the tall dark shadow.

Methinks this tall, dark one is but a male counterpart of the golden haired princess of men's dreams. It does prove the adaptibility of the human race when it is called upon to substitute reality for dreams that women can fall madly in love with men who are not tall, dark, and 'ansum of person and purse and men can lose their heads so riotously over gals whose hair is not even a peroxide version of their dream ones.

But this question of neckties in- trigues me. Are men coming to be judged by the necktie company they keep? Lenore, an 18 year old, well known to me, and a level headed mem- ber of the generation known as honest, discarded a suitor because of his necktie taste. Maybe he would have been given the air, anyway.

People don't excuse a DIRTY KITCHEN

Keep walls and floors clean and tidy. Quick—use Gold Dust! Cleans safely, and 6 to 8 times faster, without the use of grit.

DON'T drudge away at heavy household tasks. Use your INTELLIGENCE. Gold Dust will do your DIRTY work!

Many women don't know how to use soap right. For dirty dirt use GOLD DUST. Not expensive flakes that just slide over the grease and don't remove it. Not gritty cleansers that may scratch and mar.

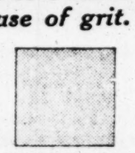
What is the USE of struggling along trying to make inefficient soaps do a job they were never meant to do? There is a BETTER WAY. A way that insures a SPOTLESS HOME, with far less work. For DIRTY DIRT—use Gold Dust.

When you remove FILTH and DIRT with Gold Dust you PROTECT your CHILDREN, because Gold Dust KILLS GERMS instantly.

Sensible women always come to Gold Dust. Gold Dust is at your grocer's now, in two convenient sizes.

Woodwork washed with expensive flakes or chips is apt to look gray and smudgy, not quite clean.

Harsh cleansers are so likely to scratch and mar. And they leave unsightly deposits of grit.



Gold Dust, the ideal soap for dirty dirt, cleans things clean. It works quickly, easily and safely.

150 Pupils of Night Schools to Visit Hoover

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—From the mountains of North Carolina 150 adult night school pupils, some white haired, will arrive here tomorrow.

They are the star pupils of classes of elderly people who learned to read and write in Buncombe, Guilford, and Rowan counties.

The Washington trip was arranged by Mrs. Elizabeth Morriss, director of adult elementary education in Buncombe county, as a reward for their scholastic perseverance.

With them the men and women will bring a "President's primer," a thin volume of primary reading material similar to the primers children use. Instead of learning in it "I see the cat," these adults have spelled out "I shall go to Washington," "I shall see the President." It contains colored pictures of President Hoover and Washington scenes.

Seven of their number will read aloud for President Hoover extracts from some of his own speeches dealing with education. It will be the first time they have read aloud in public. This visit to the White House has been their goal for years.

Youngster Picks Up Rough Words, but Soon Drops Them

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

"There's another thing that worries me about him," writes a mother. "He is learning such rough talk at school. 'I'll gun you,' 'I'll knife you,' and such things are part of his conversation."

Every mother knows this effect that the outside world of play or school has on her children when they first leave the atmosphere of home, where the language is more choice. Also, almost every mother worries about these new words, thinking her child is being spoiled or really contaminated.

Now, as a matter of fact, this importing of new and rough sounding words should not be taken too seriously. Certainly, if you think about it, you will realize that it is natural for a child to adopt these novel expressions, and this is one reason why.

The home vocabulary is selective, and it is quite right that it should be so. But also it is not always vigorous enough for the large or even the smaller boy. Just as he needs physical freedom he also needs parallel freedom in his language. Many of our lusty old Anglo-Saxon words which would give him that outlet have been refined away because we are too polite to use them. So slang, or the language of fisticuffs, or primitive comic words, express his love of battle or his natural fondness for slapstick humor.

Don't be horrified that he picks up vigorous expressions which he's never heard at home. Don't let him scandalize you or create an interesting sensation each time he displays them.

Take them as a matter of course and they'll probably die out in a short time. If they don't, and you consider them undesirable as part of his permanent vocabulary, then you can ask him not to use them, for any one of a number of perfectly good reasons that you will be able to think of when the occasion arises.

Paris Looks with Kindly Eye at Full Figures

BY BETTINA BEDWELL.

PARIS.—[Special Correspondence]—Ladies who are threatened with a nervous break-down at the mere sight of a weighing machine, take notice! Paris is doing something about it which is much easier and pleasanter than snubbing sweets.

There are lots of fitted frocks and coats in spring fashions and, as we all know, fitting is hard on the girls with too many curves. Paris, however, finds ways this season of adapting them and tempering their revelations so that women who aren't slender can wear these chic clothes without going on a reducing spree.

Such an ensemble is shown in the sketch. The frock of this ensemble has the fashionably fitted silhouette, made gracious by draped folds in the waistline region, and by the fluted sash ends at the right side. The skirt makes use of similar devices, with the vertically gathered front, attached to fitted side panels.

The placing of the circular ruffle that goes around the bottom of the skirt and rises above the knees on the right side is another slenderizing trick, aside from its undeniable cachet. The fluted frill around the edge of this ruffle, and the fluted frills on the sleeves and white plastron collar are extremely smart this spring, particularly on the printed flat crêpe dresses like the model shown.

The colors of the material are tones of rose and burgundy red, and the seven-eighths length coat is plain burgundy red wool crêpe. This coat has been cleverly adjusted by Germaine Lecomte to the no longer slender figure, although it is fitted. Below the shoulders is a wide band in front and back, suggesting a bolero jacket, and in both front and back are curved piped lines that make the figure of the wearer appear far more slim than it actually is.

FARM AND GARDEN BY PAUL POTTER

"Keep off the grass" signs are just as valuable to dairymen who prize succulent summer pastures as they are to city dwellers trying to cultivate green lawns for summer, according to E. A. Hanson, dairy specialist at the university farm, St. Paul, Minn. He is seconded by experts in all the northern and midwest states.

Cows should be kept off the pasture until the grass gets a good start, he says. His advice also includes continuing the winter ration to both the milk producing herd and to growing calves.

Even when the herd does go on pasture, the general opinion is that a successful milk flow is best maintained by continuing to feed some hay and other dry feed. Corn, barley, and oats are considered a satisfactory pasture supplement, while many northern state farmers use a mixture of barley and oats.

Tramping of the soft sod often may do more damage than the worth of the pasture feed. Turning a herd out early may ruin prospects of a good pasture for the entire summer. The early grass is very succulent and appetizing, but quantitative tests show that it has much less actual food value than the older grass.

GIRL'S DRESS.

One of the prettiest new models is shown in a nautical blue printed crêpe de chine with plain blue used for the contrast. The skirt is made with a gathered tunic flounce, and it just pretends a hip yoke. The long waisted bodice in a deep scalloped outline ties its narrow belt at a normal waistline. Plaits at the center front of the cape collar give it a draped effect.

The pattern, 3375, comes in sizes 6, 8, 10, and 12 years. Size 8 requires 1¾ yards of 39 inch material with ⅝ yard of 32 inch contrasting.

Mothers Can Help Their Daughters to Gain Poise, Beauty

by Gabriele Donnelly

There is a streak of cruelty in some mothers that passes human understanding. A young girl between 15 and 15 confided to a school pal of hers that she wished she were dead because she was so ugly. The pal told her she was no such thing. Her complexion was bad, as is many a complexion at this particular age, but her other features were more than passable.

Helen broke down while her young friend was trying to encourage her, with: "There's no use telling me that. My mother says I am ugly and she ought to know."

The embarrassments, the dwarfed ambitions that might be charged up against that type of mother are simply manifold.

Why do parents underestimate their girls? They are willing enough to see beauty in other youngsters. Of course, the species is dying out—nevertheless, it is still with us in a proportion that is bound to make inferiority victims out of a goodly number of tomorrow's women.

If a young girl's complexion is passing through an unhappy stage, why doesn't a mother do something to help the child, instead of making life more unbearable for her? Why doesn't she take her to a doctor and let him prescribe for the youngster? Or, why doesn't she take it upon herself to read and find out why the condition exists and how it can be corrected?

In this age, it is unbearably cruel to give a girl an inferior opinion of herself. It is better to spoil her with flattery than to spoil her with lack of encouragement. Beauty, assurance, poise are such necessary ingredients in a girl's success. A child should be encouraged to know her assets—they all have some—and if she has liabilities, they ought to be treated sanely and without too much emphasis on their being liabilities.

Tell a young girl she has good hair, or good skin, or good whatever she has. Build up a pride in her to correct faulty features by giving her to understand her case is not a hopeless one.

"After my baby was born I was very weak and 'skinny'. But when I took IRONIZED YEAST I began to eat and feel better. Now feeling good and can work hard every day. Have gained 22 lbs." Mrs Laura Benoit

New IRONIZED YEAST Builds Weight and Strength Quick!

Pleasant Tablets. Quick Results—or Pay Nothing

Mrs. Laura Benoit

Mrs. Benoit's experience proves that there is little excuse for being weak, tired and "skinny." For new IRONIZED YEAST has enabled thousands of thin, weak folks to report gains of 5 to 15 lbs. in 3 weeks; fill out ugly hollows, change bony limbs to graceful roundness. Skin clears like magic. New pep overnight. Rich, red blood right away.

Good for Mothers and Children

Why You Gain Weight Quick

This new, more powerful IRONIZED YEAST is two marvelous tonics in one—specially cultured, weight-building Malt Yeast and strengthening, blood-enriching Iron. Only when Yeast is Ironized is it most effective, for Iron is needed to bring out the strengthening values of Yeast. Highly concentrated by a new process which makes it many times more effective than unmedicated yeast. Gives results in half the time required by ordinary yeast or iron.

Don't go on being half alive, with "skinny," tired body and an ugly skin. Get IRONIZED YEAST from druggist today. Feel great tomorrow. Gain weight, pep and clear skin from the very start.

New IRONIZED YEAST Ends "Nerves," Constipation, Indigestion, Bad Skin

It amazes people to see how quickly IRONIZED YEAST ends nervous troubles. Nervousness is due to a run-down condition. IRONIZED YEAST builds up the system so quick you feel new pep arriving overnight; ends constipation and indigestion at once. Nervousness vanishes.

Mrs. E. White of Brooklyn writes: "Because of lost appetite and sleepless nights, I became nervous and run-down. Tried IRONIZED YEAST. Gained 5 lbs. and sleep like a baby."

A physician says: "Surprised to find how QUICK Ironized Yeast acted as a nerve system builder."

Get IRONIZED YEAST from your druggist today. Feel like new person tomorrow. Watch nervousness, nervous headaches, indigestion, constipation vanish at once. Sleep sound the first night. Get rich, red blood.

BEAUTY EXPERT CLEARS SKIN; GAINS WEIGHT, PEP

Mrs. Oma Dixon

"Lost weight. Complexion bad. Almost lifeless. Since taking IRONIZED YEAST have regained lost weight. Now vigorous and strong. Complexion clear and rosy."—Mrs. Oma Dixon, Blackey, Ky. Good advice from a Beauty Expert. IRONIZED YEAST beats creams and lotions.

Ends Nerves. Clears Skin. Gains 7 lbs. in 5 Weeks

Mrs. M. A. Sutton

"I was in awful run-down condition. My nerves were at the breaking point. Complexion bad. IRONIZED YEAST made me feel like new. Gained 7 pounds in 5 weeks. Skin has cleared."—Mrs. M. A. Sutton, Borman, Md.

Miss G. M. Byrd

Decries Wild Stories of Harm to U. S.

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

The new "World Bank," to be established at Basle, Switzerland, within the next two months or so to act as clearing house and trustee for German reparations payments, was described as "simply a cross road country bank, in relation to the great banks of the world," in an address by Melvin A. Traylor, president of the First National bank, at an Association of Commerce luncheon at the Hotel La Salle yesterday. Mr. Traylor was a member of the committee which organized the bank.

"We need not fear that this bank will run amuck, disturbing international relationships and the movements of gold," he said. "It will be run on the highest plane of sound finance possible, in my opinion. Under its charter and trust agreement it will be impossible for the bank to exercise any detrimental influence on the economic life of any nation.

Not League Bank.

"Much of the criticism directed against the bank is based on lack of knowledge. It has been charged that the Bank of International Settlements is part of the league of nations and the world court. This is ridiculous. It is entirely away from the field of politics. Its organizing committee was made up of international bankers and had no business with the league. It is not connected with any government.

"Of the $100,000,000 capital authorized, only $25,000,000 is to be paid in now. The business of the bank is limited to dealing in acceptances, bills of exchange and government securities. It has a right to buy and sell and deal in gold, but gold of itself in the bank vault is a dead asset, and I see no reason why this bank will ever require any gold.

Sees Useful Purposes.

"It may some day create a gold settlement fund. The central banks of the world could deposit certain sums of gold and if a large movement was made settle the difference by delivering from one account to the other at the bank. I think this would be extremely useful if it succeeded in reducing the fluctuation of exchange, eliminating the time element and acting as a sort of clearing house, a world federal reserve.

"The bank may not issue its own notes. It may not accept obligations of other banks, make advances to governments or carry current government accounts. It cannot bid, for instance, for United States treasury notes. It may not have a controlling interest in enterprises of any kind. More than that, it may not undertake operations in any country until it has obtained the consent of the central bank of that country. It cannot offer German reparations bonds here if the central bank, which in this case is the federal reserve bank of New York, vetoes it. It is impossible for it to interfere with the normal ebb and flow."

Percy Grainger Wins Approval with New Works

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Percy Grainger, noted Chicago pianist and composer, was the soloist on the New York orchestral concert from New York through W-G-N, 7:30 to 8.

Radio knows its Percy Grainger. It knows his "Shepherd's Hey," played by the fifty-five piece orchestra. It knows his "Country Gardens," which the composer himself played. "Coon River," for orchestra, is a new work, somewhat reminiscent of the "Turkey in the Straw" theme, containing modern syncopation effects, and has the typical Grainger rollicking rhythmic swing. In this piece Mrs. Grainger played the studio bells.

Joe Howard, of former La Salle theater musical comedy successes such as "The Time, the Place and the Girl," and Miss Anita Case, musical comedy soprano, were singers, entertainers, and tête-à-têters on the W-G-N 9 to 10 program. The studio atmosphere was as completely and as pleasantly theatrical as though the event had taken place on the stage.

The old time songs rendered orchestrally and vocally from WBBM, 9 to 9:30, were pleasing. That the "Hallelujah" dance, a hit of a few years ago, is still much alive was obvious from the hearing of it on the program through KYW, 9 to 9:30. The orchestra and vocal program through WMAQ, 9 to 10, was excellent in every respect.

ACTOR ARRESTED AS CHARGES FLY ON $5,000 CHECK

Lou Clayton, a member of a vaudeville team playing at a loop theater, was arrested last night on a warrant charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses after Louis Simon, a theatrical agent with offices at 77 West Washington street, charged that Clayton had stopped payment on a $5,000 check which he gave Simon in 1928.

Simon said that he met Clayton in the Hotel Sherman in October, 1928, and that Clayton gave him the check for money which he borrowed to bet on the world series. Clayton, however, told the police that he had given Simon the check in the Manhattan club, a Milwaukee gambling house, after he had lost that amount in gambling.

Clayton told the police that Simon and Thurman Garfield had asked him to act as a decoy to encourage other patrons of the place and assured him that his money would be refunded. He said he lost $1,800 of his own money and then lost $5,000 more, giving the check for his losses, to deceive the other gamblers. He said he had been threatened by hoodlums several times because of his failure to make the check good. He was released under $5,000 bond.

Elmer Hill, in Customs Office 42 Years, Dies

Elmer Hill, who was in the United States customs service here for 42 years, died yesterday at his home at 625 North Oak Park avenue. For fifteen years, until his retirement following a paralytic stroke two years ago, Mr. Hill was cashier in the Chicago office of the collector of customs. He was active in Masonic circles.

STATE REVOKES 2 AUTO LICENSES ON NORTH SHORE

W. E. Walling of Hubbard Woods and Frederick Raube, 141 Asbury street, Evanston, were notified yesterday that their automobile licenses had been revoked by the secretary of state for three months, beginning on Tuesday. Walling had been convicted of speeding four times and Raube three times. The revocation of the licenses was asked by Frank Kreml, head of the safety bureau of the Evanston police department, who has been conducting a campaign against speeding and reckless driving in the suburb.

Father of Chick Harley Is Found Dead in Bed

Charles Harley, father of Chick Harley, former Ohio State gridiron star, was found dead in bed at his home, 6832 Oriole avenue, yesterday morning. Death was attributed to heart disease. He was employed as machinist in THE TRIBUNE composing room for 17 years. He is survived by his widow, three daughters, and three sons. DR. JOSEPH M. PATTON IS DEAD; RITES SATURDAY

Funeral services for Dr. Joseph M. Patton, former president of the Chicago Medical society, who died suddenly yesterday, will be held Saturday afternoon at his residence at 335 South Hoyne avenue, with burial at Rosehill cemetery.

DR. PATTON

Dr. Patton, who was 69 years old, died of heart disease following an attack in his office at 108 North State street. He had been practicing medicine in Chicago since 1882, having come here shortly after his graduation from New York university. For many years he was a member of the faculty of the University of Illinois college of medicine and was formerly attending physician at the county hospital. He was made professor emeritus after his retirement from the Illinois faculty a year ago after serving there for nearly 40 years.

He is survived by his widow, an only son, Dr. Leigh Patton, having died three years ago. He was a member of the American Medical association, the State Medical society, and the Pathological society, of which he was a former president.

HOOVER STATEMENT PRINTED IN YALE NEWS WRITTEN 10 YRS. AGO

Washington, D. C., April 16.—(AP)—The article published in the Yale News, quoting President Hoover's views on individuality and leadership, was identified at the White House today as comprised of excerpts taken from an article on American individualism written by Mr. Hoover ten years ago. It was said on the President's behalf that the chief executive was not writing exclusive interviews for any publication.

Yale Editor Explains.

New Haven, Conn., April 16.—(AP)—William A. Lydgate, editorial board chairman of the Yale Daily News, this afternoon gave out the following statement as to an article of yesterday which gave an expression of President Hoover's views on individualism and leadership:

"The statement of President Herbert Hoover which appeared in the Yale Daily News Tuesday was written by him several years ago, and without reference to any present political situation. In view of the publicity which this article has received, the News wishes to stress this fact."

The article as printed in the News bore a caption that it was written by the President and released with official sanction for publication.

CLUB WOMEN FAVOR REPEAL OF LIQUOR LAW

Repeal of the 18th amendment or modification of the Volstead act is favored by the Illinois Women's Athletic club, it was announced yesterday.

The club voted unanimously at its annual meeting Tuesday night to accept the report of the legislative committee, in which such legislation was favored. The committee members all favored repeal, but some members considered that modification might be effected more quickly than the repeal, according to Mrs. Charles E. Severn, committee chairman.

Let's buy a BOX OF Candy

There's a place in every normal diet for candy

NOWHERE else in the world are candies made of such pure ingredients or under such sanitary conditions as in the United States. The immaculate and inviting way in which they are offered makes them a pleasure to buy.

And what a variety to choose from! There are those made of chocolate, nuts and fruit. As you eat any of these you receive the food value of the special ingredient in addition to the flavor which the sugar gives.

At the end of a meal, a piece of candy is ideal. The sweet goodness satisfies the appetite without taxing the digestive system. For the healthy child, candy at the end of a meal is dietetically correct.

The demand of the system for sugar should not be denied. Sugar comes to us in fruits and vegetables. If such are lacking in sweetness when you get them, a dash of sugar will make them more palatable. Stewed and fresh fruit often need sugar. Try a pinch of sugar in cooking tomatoes, peas and carrots. Add a dash of sugar to the salad dressing. Sugar sprinkled on cereal makes it taste much better. And desserts—puddings, custards or ice cream—belong in every diet. The Sugar Institute.

YESTERDAY'S PUZZLE SOLVED

Gowns of Other Easter Parades on Show at Museum

Planning the Easter frock for the Easter parade of a couple of generations ago was almost as much of a ritual as the trip to the church itself, judging from the costumes on exhibit this week at the Chicago Historical society. For months in advance the ladies of Prairie avenue and other fashionable streets of young Chicago went in search of dressmakers who would give the tuckings and the frills and the bustles and leg o' mutton sleeves that right from Paris look. Among the gowns on exhibit is an 1880 costume worn by Mrs. John Drake, one that belonged to Mrs. Henry Howe, and an 1893 costume of Mrs. Mary Wilmarth.

BEAUTIFULLY DECORATED AND ELEGANTLY FURN. SUITE OF OFFICES TO BE SUBLET FURNISHED OR UNFURNISHED AT UNUSUAL SACRIFICE

Due to the consolidation of our Chicago and New York offices we can offer a most unusual opportunity to a responsible party to secure a suite of offices completely and elegantly furnished at a very considerable sacrifice. This fine corner building (Insurance Building) offices are carpeted and equipped with drapes, radiator covers, etc., and are beautifully decorated. Offices will be furnished or unfurnished as a very reasonable rental or sublease can be made part of the furniture. Suite consists of three private offices and reception hall and large vault; complete description with photographs will be furnished on request. For further information telephone Franklin 0201.
